The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism R. S. Sugirtharajah, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism is a comprehensive treatment of a relatively new form of scholarship Generally speaking postcolonialism aims to critique and dismantle hegemonic worldviews and power structures while giving voice to previously marginalized peoples and systems of thought This approach has inevitably engaged with the text and reception of the Bible a scripture that Western colonizers introduced to and often imposed upon their colonial subjects With a globally diverse list of contributors the Handbook aims to cover the perspective and context of the authors of the Bible as well as the modern experiences of imperialism resistance decolonization and nationalism

Hybridity Anjali Prabhu, 2012-02-01 This critical engagement with some of the most prominent contemporary theorists of postcolonial studies reevaluates recent theories of hybridity and agency Challenging the claim that hybridity provides a site of resistance to hegemonic and homogenizing forces in an increasingly globalized world Anjali Prabhu pursues the ways in which hybridity plays out in the Creole postcolonial societies of Mauritius and La Reunion two small islands in the Indian Ocean and offers an introduction to the literature and culture of this lesser known region of Francophonie She also reconsiders two major theorists from the Francophone context Edouard Glissant and Frantz Fanon through a provocatively Marxian framing that reveals these two writers shared more in common about agency and society than has previously been recognized

Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt, 2015-01-08 In Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt reflects on the nature and value of the postcolonial hermeneutical approach as it relates to the interpretation of biblical and in particular Pauline texts Showing when a socio politically engaged reading becomes postcolonial but also what in the term postcolonial both attracts and also creates distance exegesis from a postcolonial perspective is profiled The book indicates possible avenues in how postcolonial work can be helpful theoretically to the guild of biblical scholars and to show also how it can be practiced in exegetical work done on biblical texts

Daniel Luther, 2023-09-30 This book develops a queer methodology to analyse a queer archive for the impact of normativity on subjecthood and the ways in which it shapes and curtails gender and sexuality Chapters demonstrate how normativity functions to mask its own operation is internalised by subjects and is continually reproduced through discourse and in material ways In seeking to make visible the functioning of normativity the book performs a task of queering normativity by querying that which appears as natural in South Asian public culture The book engages with both the consolidation and the unsettling of normativity through artefacts of South Asian public culture including canonical figures such as Rabindranath Tagore literary and cinematic texts Bollywood films advertisements social media posts and ubiquitous ephemera in South Asia and beyond Through these texts the author unpacks the construct of canon the nation woman as a post colonial subject the home and the child marriage same sex sexuality and identity This book will be of interest to scholars and students studying and researching Queer Studies Gender and Sexuality Studies South Asian Studies Cultural Studies Literary Studies Film Studies and Media Studies ambivalence contradictions and anxieties generated by the process of globalization The contributors provide a compelling conclusion for a rethinking and reconfiguration of cultures and intercultural relations in today s global world in which dichotomized representations coexist with a discourse of globalization The Colonized Apostle Christopher D. Stanley,

Queer Asia J. Daniel Luther,Jennifer Ung Loh,2019-05-15 Queer studies is now a rapidly expanding field as scholars from a variety of disciplines seek to address the long running marginalisation of queer perspectives and experiences But there has so far been little effort to unify the study of queer communities outside the West and much of the current writing views these communities through a narrowly Western lens Building on the work of the annual Queer Asia conference which the editors helped to establish this collection represents the most comprehensive work to date on queer studies in an Asian context Featuring case studies and original research from across the continent covering the Middle East South and East Asia and Asian diasporas the collection offers a genuinely pan Asian perspective which places queer Asian identities and movements in dialogue with each other rather than within a Western framework By considering how queerness is imagined within plural Asian experiences and contexts the contributors show a that re envisioning of queer through Asian perspectives has the potential to challenge existing discourses and debates in the wider field of contemporary gender sexuality and queer studies

Duggan,2012-06-14 The first book in the new Postcolonialism and Religions series offers a preview of the series focus on multireligious indigenous and transnational scholarly voices In this book the once arch enemies of Religious studies and Postcolonial theory become critical companions in shared analysis of major postcolonial themes Of Irony and Empire Laura Rice,2012-02-01 Of Irony and Empire is a dynamic thorough examination of Muslim writers from former European colonies in Africa who have increasingly entered into critical conversations with the metropole Focusing on the period between World War I and the present the age of irony this book explores the political and symbolic invention of Muslim Africa and its often contradictory representations Through a critical analysis of irony and resistance in works by writers who come from nomadic areas around the Sahara Mustapha Tlili Tunisia Malika Mokeddem Algeria Cheikh Hamidou Kane Senegal and Tayeb Salih Sudan Laura Rice offers a fresh perspective that accounts for both the influence of the Western instrumental imaginary and the Islamic holistic one Talking God in Society

Ute E. Eisen,Heidrun Elisabeth Mader,2021-02-15 Peter Lampe s work has covered a wide range of fields the common denominator being his interest in contextualizing belief systems Mirroring his multifaced work the authors pursue his interest from different interdisciplinary angles addressing the interdependence between religious expressions and their situations or contexts The application of theoretical models to texts examples flanks the inspiring theoretical epistemological and methodological reflections Studies in socio economic and political history adjoin archaeological epigraphic papyrological and iconographic investigations Social psychological interpretations of texts complement rhetorical analyses The hermeneutical reception of biblical materials in for example the Koran and Christian Chinese or Orthodox contexts as well as in religious education and homiletics rounds off the volumes From Kung Fu to Hip Hop M. T. Kato, 2012-02-01 From Kung Fu to Hip Hop looks at the revolutionary potential of popular culture in the sociohistorical context of globalization Author M T Kato examines Bruce Lee's movies the countercultural aesthetics of Jimi Hendrix and the autonomy of the hip hop nation to reveal the emerging revolutionary paradigm in popular culture The analysis is contextualized in a discussion of social movements from the popular struggle against neoimperialism in Asia to the antiglobalization movements in the Third World and to the global popular alliances for the reconstruction of an alternative world Kato presents popular cultural revolution as a mirror image of decolonization struggles in an era of globalization where progressive artistic expressions are aligned with new modes of subjectivity and collective identity Posts and Pasts Alfred J. Lopez, 2001-05-16 Deconstructs the field of postcolonial studies Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001-08 Relocating Agency Olakunle George, 2012-02-01 2003 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Combining a sustained critical engagement of Anglo American theory with focused close readings of major African writers this book performs a long overdue cross fertilization of ideas among poststructuralism postcolonial theory and African literature The author examines several influential figures in current theory such as Habermas Althusser Laclau and Mouffe as well as the theorists of postcolonialism and offers an extended reading of the Nigerian writers D O Fagunwa Wole Soyinka Amos Tutuola and Chinua Achebe He argues that contrary to what the purism and voluntarism common to postcolonial theory might suggest one lesson of African letters is that significant agency can result from acts that are blind to their determinations For George African letters offer an instance of agency in motion as opposed to agency in theory Film Sound in Italy A. Sisto, 2014-03-13 A critical engagement with cinema in Italy this book examines the national archive of film based on sound and listening using a holistic audio visual approach Sisto shifts the sensory paradigm of film history and analysis from the optical to the sonic demonstrating how this translates into a shift of canonical narratives and interpretations The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002
