Critical Conversations in African Philosophy Alena Rettová, Benedetta Lanfranchi, Miriam Pahl, 2021-11-29 In this edited collection contributors examine key themes sources and methods in contemporary African Philosophy building on a wide ranging understanding of what constitutes African philosophy and drawing from a variety of both oral and written texts of different genres Part one of the volume examines how African philosophy has reacted to burning issues ranging from contemporary ethical questions on how to integrate technological advancements into human life to one of philosophy's prime endeavours which is establishing the conditions of knowledge to eternal ontological and existential questions on the nature of being time memory and death Part two reflects on the re definition of philosophy from an African vantage point and African philosophy's thrust to create its own canon archive and resources to study African concepts artefacts practices and texts from the perspective of intellectual history The volume aims to make a contribution to the academic debate on African philosophy and philosophy more broadly challenging orthodox definitions and genres in favour of a broadening of the discipline's self understanding and locales This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African philosophy and comparative philosophy

African Philosophy Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze, 1998-02-12 Bringing together canonical philosophical texts from African African American Afro Caribbean and Black European thinkers this major new anthology is designed to serve both as a textbook and as the authoritative reference volume in Africana philosophical and cultural studies

African Philosophy Pascah Mungwini, 2022-03-24 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023 Caught between the history of exclusion and the reality of the world philosophies approach this is an introduction to African philosophy unlike any other With distinctive insight Pascah Mungwini brings together African philosophy and the emancipative mission introducing African thought as a practice defined by its own history and priority questions while always in dialogue with the world He charts the controversies and contestations around the contemporary practice of philosophy as an academic enterprise in Africa examining some of philosophy's most serious mistakes omissions and failures Covering the history of African philosophy's development and trajectory Mungwini's introduction focuses on the struggle for intellectual liberation His compelling portrayal reveals that true liberation begins by understanding one's own world an essential point for anyone beginning to explore another philosophical tradition on its own terms

Understanding African Philosophy Jan Fernback, 2015 A critical guide to some of the most important issues in modern African philosophy Topics include the legacy of colonialism the challenges of post independence Africa and African oral and written philosophical traditions and Issues in African Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odhiambo, 2010 This book provides an excellent orientation to and a logical development of the major trends and issues that have dominated discussions in African philosophy since the publication of Placide Tempels' Bantu Philosophy in 1945. Views of some of the best known African philosophers such as Kwasi Wiredu, Paulin Hountondji, H. Odera Oruka, Peter Bodunrin, and D. A. Masolo are discussed in detail. The text takes into account in the form of quotations or referencing the views of several other philosophers who have had something to say about African philosophy. This book facilitates an excellent orientation on African philosophy at the undergraduate level. Those pursuing African philosophy at the graduate level will find the text refreshingly novel.

A Short History of African Philosophy, Second Edition Barry Hallen, 2009-09-03 A Short History of African Philosophy discusses major ideas, figures, and schools of thought in philosophy in the African context. While drawing out critical issues in the formation of African philosophy, Barry Hallen focuses on recent scholarship and relevant debates that have made African philosophy critical to understanding the rich and complex cultural heritage of the continent. This revised edition expands the historical perspective, takes account of recent discoveries, and new canonical figures. It highlights new discussions about gender as a cultural and philosophical phenomenon, clarifies issues regarding indigenous cultures and human rights, and builds on the notion that African philosophy shares methods and concerns of philosophy worldwide. This short reference is an essential resource for students, scholars, and general readers.

Understanding African Philosophy Richard H. Bell, 2002 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions. Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play. The issues discussed include gender, authority, female autonomy, and unruliness, courtship and marriage, language and speech, and performance and theatricality.

Kant and the Politics of Racism Jimmy Yab, 2021-09-11 This book proposes an account of the place of the theory of race in Kant's thought as a central part of philosophical anthropology in his political system. Kant's theory of race, this book argues, is integral to the analysis of the Charakteristik of the human species and determined by human natural predispositions. The understanding of his theory as such suggests not only an alternative reading to the orthodox narrative we have seen so far but also reveals the underlying centrality of the notion of human natural predispositions in a way that is consequential for Kant's philosophy as a whole. What is the impact of Kant's racial theory on his philosophy and political thought? Is Kant a consistent egalitarian or a partisan Universalist thinker? Is he the symbol of racist prejudices of his time? What is the influence of his racial hierarchy on his cosmopolitan right? Or more simply, is Kant racist? From a systematic examination of Kant's relevant writings, this book provides answers to these questions and sheds light on two fundamental problems of his theory of race for moral philosophy: namely, 1. the completeness of the character of the White race and 2. the dispossession of the character of the beauty and the dignity of human nature of the Negro race. These two issues, unperceived from the orthodox reading's perspective, however, uncovered.

by the heterodox reading not only shape Kant's race thinking from the beginning to the end of his life transform his cosmopolitan right into a non universalist form of right but merely define Kant as a fundamental racist thinker since he developed the anthropology the philosophy and the politics of racism in a systematic way

Ethnophilosophy and the Search for the Wellspring of African Philosophy Ada Agada, 2022-01-12 This book provides a case for the destigmatisation of ethnophilosophy by demonstrating its continuing relevance in contemporary African philosophy The book brings together established and brilliant young scholars who defend ethnophilosophy as a unique source of African philosophy with the capacity to colour African philosophical scholarship thereby distinguishing African philosophy from other philosophical traditions of the world and setting the stage for philosophical dialogue in the 21st century characterised by multiculturalism and globalisation The volume addresses the future of African philosophy by closely linking the past of this tradition with the exciting projects of the contemporary system builders whose works emerge from the ethnophilosophical while transcending it The book is aimed at African philosophy experts scholars of intercultural philosophy African studies scholars and graduate students of African and intercultural philosophy

Method, Substance, and the Future of African Philosophy Edwin E. Etieyibo, 2018-02-24 This book takes stock of the strides made to date in African philosophy Authors focus on four important aspects of African philosophy the history methodological debates substantive issues in the field and direction for the future By collating this anthology Edwin E Etieyibo excavates both current and primordial knowledge in African philosophy enhancing the development of this growing field

Consolationism and Comparative African Philosophy Ada Agada, 2021-11-18 In a major challenge to African philosophy this book demonstrates the importance of the universalisation question for every committed African philosopher Rooted in Africa's colonial legacy the universalisation question challenges the African thinker to show how authentically African philosophical concepts and phenomena can be universally applicable in a globalising world In this highly original book the author inserts the philosophy of consolationism into African philosophical discourse constructing a unique philosophical system that is at once African and universally relevant The book engages major African and Western philosophers of diverse ideological leanings in a compelling dialogue that announces the future of world philosophy as one of interculturality in which a common philosophical horizon is forged out of the cultural diversities of the world for the edification of humanity in a continually changing world This book will be an important read for researchers in the fields of African Studies intercultural philosophy philosophy of mind and existentialism

Cosmopolitan Civility Ruth Abbey, 2020-02-01 Prolific and pioneering Fred Dallmayr has been an active scholar for over fifty years His research interests include modern and contemporary political theory hermeneutics phenomenology the Frankfurt School continental political thought democratic theory multiculturalism environmentalism and cosmopolitanism Dallmayr is also one of the founders of comparative political thought and his interest in non Western political theory spans Chinese Islamic Indian Buddhist and Latin American traditions In emulation of the vast interdisciplinary and international character of Dallmayr's work this book draws upon senior and emerging scholars from an array of disciplines and countries with essays that are philosophical in the Western and non Western traditions cultural and or political and international Dallmayr himself responds to the essays in a concluding chapter Imagining God Hans-Georg Ziebertz,2001 Is the question of God still relevant for our time Empirical studies from an international perspective show the fact that there are both indications of God's importance and disappearance The articles in this book deal with questions related to the content structure and function of images of God The studies document the actual variety and forms of religious practice and highlight the issues of God present out of necessity from an ecumenical and interdisciplinary point of view If and how the question of God is asked is not only of denominational interest but is also of a cultural importance for the individual and public life in Europe The empirical studies in this collection were discussed at the Wurzburg Research Days Practical Theology in December 2000 The Palgrave Handbook of African Philosophy Adeshina Afolayan, Toyin Falola,2017-11-17 This handbook investigates the current state and future possibilities of African Philosophy as a discipline and as a practice vis vis the challenge of African development and Africa's place in a globalized neoliberal capitalist economy The volume offers a comprehensive survey of the philosophical enterprise in Africa especially with reference to current discourses arguments and new issues feminism and gender terrorism and fundamentalism sexuality development identity pedagogy and multidisciplinary etc that are significant for understanding how Africa can resume its arrested march towards decolonization and liberation Kant and the Concept of Race Jon M. Mikkelsen,2013-08-01 Late eighteenth century writings on race by Kant and four of his contemporaries Kant and the Concept of Race features translations of four texts by Immanuel Kant frequently designated his Racenschriften race essays in which he develops and defends an early theory of race Also included are translations of essays by four of Kant's contemporaries E A W Zimmermann Georg Forster Christoph Meiners and Christoph Girtanner which illustrate that Kant's interest in the subject of race was part of a larger discussion about human differences one that impacted the development of scientific fields ranging from natural history to physical anthropology to biology Whiteness Fractured Cynthia Levine-Rasky,2016-02-11 Whiteness Fractured examines the many ways in which whiteness is conceptualized today and how it is understood to operate and to effect social relationships Exploring the intersections between whiteness social class ethnicity and psychosocial phenomena this book is framed by the question of how whiteness works and what it does With attention to central concepts and the history of whiteness it explains the four ways in which whiteness works In its examination of the outward and inward fractures of whiteness the book sheds light on both its connections with social class and ethnicity and with the epistemology of ignorance and the psychoanalytic Representing the long career of whiteness on the one hand and investigating its expansion into new areas on the other Whiteness Fractured reflects the growing maturity of critical whiteness studies It undertakes a critical analysis of approaches to whiteness and proposes new directions for future action and enquiry As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in race and ethnicity intersectionality colonialism and post colonialism and cultural studies

African Philosophy in an Intercultural Perspective Anke Graneß, Edwin Etieyibo, Franz Gmainer-Pranzl, 2022-05-18 African philosophy under the specific conditions of a colonial and postcolonial world is at least since the 20th century if not even earlier inherently intercultural The aim and target of the volume is to reveal interrogate and analyse the intercultural dimension in African philosophy and to critically interrogate the project of an intercultural philosophy from an African perspective This volume is the first publication that explicitly discusses African philosophy as a challenge to the project of intercultural philosophy

The Postcolonial Enlightenment Daniel Carey, Lynn Festa, 2009-02-26 Over the last thirty years postcolonial critiques of European imperial practices have transformed our understanding of colonial ideology resistance and cultural contact The Enlightenment has played a complex but often unacknowledged role in this discussion alternately reviled and venerated as the harbinger of colonial dominion and avatar of liberation as target and shield as shadow and light This volume brings together two arenas eighteenth century studies and postcolonial theory in order to interrogate the role and reputation of Enlightenment in the context of early European colonial ambitions and postcolonial interrogations of Western imperial aspirations With essays by leading scholars in the field Postcolonial Enlightenment address issues central not only to literature and philosophy but also to natural history religion law and the emerging sciences of man The contributors situate a range of writers from Hobbes and Herder Behn and Burke to Defoe and Diderot in relation both to eighteenth century colonial practices and to key concepts within current postcolonial theory concerning race globalization human rights sovereignty and national and personal identity By enlarging the temporal and geographic framework through which we read the essays in this volume open up alternate genealogies for categories events and ideas central to the emergence of global modernity
