Postcultural Theory E. Bannet, 1993-04-20 The world of literary theory and criticism is once again at a crossroads While much of the academy has been absorbing and institutionalizing that unstable mixture of poststructuralism deconstruction political critique and materialist historicism which is known as Cultural Theory some people have been working up alternative theories This book is about some of these less familiar Postcultural theories and about the ways in which they challenge current thinking and open other positive and constructive possibilities for thought and research in the nineties

Mendelssohn Benedict Taylor, 2017-07-05 This volume of essays brings together a selection of the most significant and representative writings on Mendelssohn from the last fifty years Divided into four main subject areas it makes available twenty two essays which have transformed scholarly awareness of this crucial and ever popular nineteenth century composer and musician it also includes a specially commissioned introductory chapter which offers a critical overview of the last half century of Mendelssohn scholarship and the direction of future research The addition of new translations of two influential essays by Carl Dahlhaus hitherto unavailable in English adds to the value of this volume which brings back in to circulation important scholarly works and constitutes an indispensable reference work for Mendelssohn scholars

Shakespeare Minus 'Theory' Tom McAlindon, 2017-03-02 Demonstrating and defending a method of close reading and historical contextualisation of Shakespeare and his contemporaries this collection of essays by Tom McAlindon combines a number of previously published pieces with original studies The volume includes six interpretative studies all but one of which involve challenges to radical readings of the plays involved including Henry V Coriolanus The Tempest and Doctor Faustus The other three essays are critiques of the claims and methods of radical postmodernist criticism new historicism and cultural materialism especially they illustrate the author's conviction that some leading scholars in the field of Renaissance literature and drama who deserve credit for shifting attention to new areas of interest must also be charged with responsibility for a marked decline in standards of analysis interpretation and argument Likely to provoke considerable debate this stimulating collection is an important contribution to Shakespeare studies

On the Future of History Ernst Breisach, 2007-11-01 What does postmodernism mean for the future of history Can one still write history in postmodernity To answer questions such as these Ernst Breisach provides the first comprehensive overview of postmodernism and its complex relationship to history and historiography Placing postmodern theories in their intellectual and historical contexts he shows how they are part of broad developments in Western culture Breisach sees postmodernism as neither just a fad nor a universal remedy In clear and concise language he presents and critically evaluates the major views on history held by influential postmodernists such as Derrida Foucault Lyotard and the new narrativists Along the way he introduces to the reader major debates among historians over postmodern theories of evidence objectivity meaning and order truth and the usefulness of history He also discusses new types of history that have emerged as a consequence of postmodernism including cultural history microhistory and new historicism For anyone concerned with the postmodern challenge to history both advocates and critics alike On the Future of History will be a welcome guide The Reception of Derrida M.

Thomas,2006-05-31 This book explores the cross cultural reception of Derrida s work specifically how that work in all its diversity has come to be identified with word deconstruction It is the first book to consider the cultural reception of Derrida s works its accessible language and structure help to make this a benchmark amongst introductory Derrida studies Ethics and the Curriculum Mona Baker,Carol Maier,2014-07-04 First Published in 2011 This special issue of The Interpreter and Translator Trainer provides a forum for reflection on questions of ethics in the context of translator and interpreter education Covering a wide range of training contexts and types of translation and interpreting contributors call for a radically altered view of the relationship between ethics and the translating and interpreting profession a relationship in which ethical decisions can rarely if ever be made a priori but must be understood and taught as an integral and challenging element of one s work Palestrina and the German Romantic Imagination James Garratt,2002-07-18

Focusing on the reception of Palestrina this bold interdisciplinary study explains how and why the works of a sixteenth century composer came to be viewed as a paradigm for modern church music It explores the diverse ways in which later composers responded to his works and style and expounds a provocative model for interpreting compositional historicism In addition to presenting insights into the works of Bruckner Mendelssohn and Liszt the book offers fresh perspectives on the institutional aesthetic and ideological frameworks sustaining the cultivation of choral music in this period This publication provides an overview and analysis of the relation between the Palestrina revival and nineteenth century composition and it demonstrates that the Palestrina revival was just as significant for nineteenth century culture as parallel movements in the other arts such as the Gothic revival

Hasidism Beyond Modernity Naftali Loewenthal,2019-12-18 The Habad school of hasidism is distinguished today from other hasidic groups by its famous emphasis on outreach on messianism and on empowering women Hasidism Beyond Modernity provides a critical thematic study of the movement from its beginnings showing how its unusual qualities evolved Topics investigated include the theoretical underpinning of the outreach ethos the turn towards women in the twentieth century new attitudes to non Jews the role of the individual in the hasidic collective spiritual contemplation in the context of modernity the quest for inclusivism in the face of prevailing schismatic processes messianism in both spiritual and political forms and the direction of the movement after the passing of its seventh rebbe Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson in 1994

Attention is given to many contrasts pre modern modern and postmodern conceptions of Judaism the clash between maintaining an enclave and outreach models of Jewish society particularist and universalist trends and the subtle interplay of mystical faith and rationality Some of the chapters are new others published in an earlier form have been updated to take account of recent scholarship This book presents an in depth study of an intriguing movement which takes traditional hasidism beyond modernity

The Domestic Revolution Eve Tavor Bannet, 2000-11-10 Alongside the three revolutions we usually identify with the long eighteenth century the French Revolution the American Revolution and the Glorious Revolution of 1688 Enlightenment ideology gave rise to a quieter but no less significant revolution which was largely the fruit of women s imagination and the result of women s work In The Domestic Revolution Eve Tavor Bannet explores how eighteenth century women writers of novels conduct books and tracts addressed key social political and economic issues revising public thinking about the family and refashioning women s sexual and domestic conduct Bannet examines the works of women writers who fell into two distinct camps Matriarchs such as Eliza Haywood Maria Edgeworth and Hannah More argued that women had a superiority of sense and virtue over men and needed to take control of the family Egalitarians such as Fanny Burney Mary Hays and Mary Wollstonecraft sought to level hierarchies both in the family and in the state believing that a family should be based on consensual relations between spouses and between parents and children Bannet shows how Matriarch and Egalitarian writers in their different ways sought to raise women from their inferior standing relative to men in the household in cultural representations and in prescriptive social norms Both groups promoted an idealized division of labor between women and men later to be dubbed the doctrine of separate spheres The Domestic Revolution focuses on women s debates with each other and with male ideologues alternating between discursive and fictional arguments to show how women translated their feminist positions into fictional exemplars Bannet demonstrates which issues joined and separated different camps of eighteenth century women tracing the origins of debates that continue to shape contemporary feminist thought

Nominalism and Literary Discourse , 2021-11-01 Influential accounts of European cultural history variously suggest that the rise of nominalism and its ultimate victory over realist orientations were highly implemental factors in the formation of Modern Europe since the later Middle Ages but particularly the Reformation Quite probably this is a simplification of a state of affairs that is in fact more complex indeed ambiguous However if there is any truth in such propositions which have after all been made by many prominent commentators such as Panofsky Heer Blumenberg Foucault Eco Kristeva we may no doubt assume that literary texts will have responded and in turn contributed in a variety of ways to these processes of cultural transformation It seems of considerable interest therefore to take a close look at the complex precarious position which literature as basically a symbolic mode of signification held in the perennial struggles and discursive negotiations between the semiotic twin paradigms of nominalism and realism This collection of essays many of them by leading scholars in the field is a first comprehensive attempt to tackle such issues by analyzing representative literary texts in terms of their underlying semiotic orientations specifically of nominalism but also by studying pertinent historical theoretical and discursive contexts of such developments in their relation to literary discourse At the same time since literary nominalism and realism are conceived as fundamentally aesthetic phenomena instantiating a genuinely literary debate over universals consistent emphasis is placed on the discursive dimension of the texts scrutinized in an endeavour to reorient and consolidate an emergent research paradigm which promises to open up entirely new perspectives for the study of literary semiotics as well as of aesthetics in general Historical focus is provided by concentrating on the English situation in the era of transition from late medieval to early modern c 1350 1650 but readers will also find contributions on Chr tien de Troyes and Rabelais as well as on the aftermath of the earlier debates as exemplified in studies of Locke and post modern critical altercations respectively which serve to point up the continuing relevance of the issues involved A substantial introductory essay seeks to develop an overarching theoretical framework for the study of nominalism and literary discourse in addition to offering an in depth exploration of the nominalism realism complex in its relation to literature An extensive bibliography and index are further features of interest to both specialists and general readers

Pun(k) Deconstruction jan jagodzinski, 2018-12-07 In Postmodern Dilemmas Outrageous Essays in Art Art Education and Pun k Deconstruction Experifigural Writings in Art Art Education jan jagodzinski presents a series of essays covering a timespan of approximately ten years These essays chart the theory and practice of art art education as it relates to issues of postmodernity and poststructuralism concerning representation identity politics consumerism postmodern architecture ecology phallocentrism of the artistic canon pluriculturalism media and technology and AIDS As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art art education in these postmodern times Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex gender issues in art art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content This is particularly the case in Pun k Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987 This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies aesthetics art history art education poststructuralism and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education

The Rhetoric of Affirmative Resistance Julian Wolfreys, 1997-09-12 In this wide ranging challenging theoretical study Julian Wolfreys offers close readings of films novels and poetry in order to draw attention to the ways in which texts resist acts of reading by performing their own idiomatic wayward identities Looking at the construction of identity in Lewis Carroll Charlotte Perkins Gilman James Joyce Maya Deren Sylvie Germain Jacques Derrida Michel Deguy and George Eliot Wolfreys asks the reader to reassess the textual performance of identity by attending to a rhetoric which is simultaneously both resistant to mastery and affirmative of dissonance Explorations in Latin Literature: Volume 1, Epic, Historiography, Religion Denis Feeney,2021-08-19

Denis Feeney is one of the most distinguished scholars of Latin literature and Roman culture in the world of the last half century These two volumes conveniently collect and present afresh all his major papers covering a wide range of topics and interests Ancient epic is a major focus followed by Latin lyric historiography and elegy Ancient literary criticism and the technology of the book are recurrent themes Many papers address the problems of literary responses to religion and ritual with an interdisciplinary methodology drawing on comparative anthropology and religion The transition from Republic to Empire and the emergence of the Augustan principate form the background to the majority of the papers and the question of how literary texts are to be read in historical context is addressed throughout All quotations from ancient and modern languages have now been translated and Stephen Hinds has contributed a foreword Applying: To Derrida J.

Brannigan,Ruth Robbins,Julian Wolfreys,1997-01-12 Striking out from a number of new headings and in a number of new directions each of the essays in this collection pushes at the borders of their topics disciplines and ways of thinking providing innovative and inventive insights into the work and application of Jacques Derrida on a diverse range of themes including Irish identity communication ethics love tele technology Victorian studies the limits of philosophy translation otherness and literature demonstrating that today despite repeated accusations over recent years that the work of Derrida has become passe there is more vitality and spirit in engaging with the writings of Derrida than ever before Music and Politics

James Garratt,2019 Changes our picture of how music and politics interact through a rigorous and wide ranging reappraisal of the field Geographies of Rural Cultures and Societies Moya Kneafsey,2017-09-08

The last decade or so has witnessed a flourishing of research in rural geography in particular approaches which have developed socio cultural perspectives on rural issues This book brings together well established and newer researchers to examine the position of rural social and cultural geography at the beginning of the 21st century and to suggest new research agendas It offers critical evaluations of theoretical positions and advances introduces new conceptual and methodological tools and reports on recent empirical work on a variety of topical issues in a number of countries With diverse theoretical and empirical content the book makes a valuable contribution to the development of research into changing social and cultural geographies of rurality in developed or Western countries Emerging Digital Spaces in Contemporary Society Phillip Kalantzis-Cope,Karim

Gherab-Martin,2010-12-08 Analyzing the relationship between digital technologies and society this book explores a wide range of complex social issues emerging in a new digital space Itexamines both the vexing dilemmas with a critical eye as well as prompting readers to think constructively and strategically about exciting possibilities Charting the Future of Translation History Paul F. Bandia, Georges L. Bastin, 2006-07-28 Over the last 30 years there has been a substantial increase in the study of the history of translation Both well known and lesser known specialists in translation studies have worked tirelessly to give the history of translation its rightful place Clearly progress has been made and the history of translation has become a viable independent research area This book aims at claiming such autonomy for the field with a renewed vigour It seeks to explore issues related to methodology as well as a variety of discourses on history with a view to laying the groundwork for new avenues new models new methods It aspires to challenge existing theoretical and ideological frameworks It looks toward the future of history It is an attempt to address shortcomings that have prevented translation history from reaching its full disciplinary potential From microhistory archaeology periodization to issues of subjectivity and postmodernism methodological lacunae are being filled Contributors to this volume go far beyond the text to uncover the role translation has played in many different times and settings such as Europe Africa Latin America the Middle East and Asia from the 6th century to the 20th These contributions which deal variously with the discourses on methodology and history recast the discipline of translation history in a new light and pave the way to the future of research and teaching in the field Published in English Adult Students At-Risk Timothy William Quinnan, 1997-07-23 This work analyzes the current state of the adult student experience in higher education exploring the organizational instructional and interpersonal barriers that adults face in reaching their educational goals
