postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Do You Feel it Too? Nicoline Timmer,2010 Do You Feel It Too explores a new sense of self that is becoming manifest in experimental fiction written by a generation of authors who can be considered the heirs of the postmodern tradition It offers a precise in depth analysis of a new post postmodern direction in fiction writing and highlights which aspects are most acute in the post postmodern novel Most notable is the emphatic expression of feelings and sentiments and a drive toward inter subjective connection and communication The self that is presented in these post postmodern works of fiction can best be characterized as relational To analyze this new sense of self a new interpretational method is introduced that offers a sophisticated approach to fictional selves combining the insights of post classical narratology and what is called narrative psychology Close analyses of three contemporary experimental texts Infinite Jest 1996 by David Foster Wallace A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius 2000 by Dave Eggers and House of Leaves 2000 by Mark Danielewski provide insight into the typical problems that the self experiences in postmodern cultural contexts Three such problems or symptoms are singled out and analyzed in depth an inability to choose because of a lack of decision making tools a difficulty to situate or appropriate feelings and a structural need for a we a desire for connectivity and sociality The critique that can be distilled from these texts especially on the perceived solipsistic quality of postmodern experience worlds runs parallel to developments in recent critical theory These developments in fiction and theory both signal in the wake of poststructural conceptions of subjectivity a perhaps much awaited turn to the human in our culture at large today John, a Postmodern Gospel Patrick Chatelion Counet, 2021-11-15 This study deals with the postmodern philosophy of language as developed mainly by French authors as R Barthes J Derrida and J F Lyotard The four chapters of the first part are theoretical and relate the literary concepts of postmodernity poststructuralism and deconstruction to the practice of biblical exegesis One of the important conclusions is that deconstruction affects both diachronic and synchronic approaches of texts Each chapter closes with not suggestions but implications for a postmodern deconstructive strategy of reading The four chapters of the second part apply this postmodern deconstructive strategy of reading to the Fourth Gospel as a whole chapter five to John 6 chapter six to John 17 chapter seven and to John 21 24 25 chapter eight This deconstructive reading shows the differential and apophatic character of Saint John's Gospel Red-Light Novels of the Late Qing Chloë F. Starr, 2007 Chloe Starr's book offers a comprehensive literary reading of six nineteenth century Chinese red light novels and assesses how and why they alter our view of late Qing fiction and the authorial self Critical Dialogues Isobel Armstrong, Hans-Werner Ludwig, 1995 Postmodernism Deborah L.
