not only to understand them better but also to understand itself in relation to a past literary tradition aesthetic paradigms cultural formations etc that has not really passed Penelope Fitzgerald s The Blue Flower Peter Ackroyd s The Last Testament of Oscar Wilde and Chatterton Peter Carey s Jack Maggs Michael Cunningham s The Hours Colm Toibin s The Master and Geoff Dyer s Out of Sheer Rage Wrestling with D H Lawrence the mighty dead Harold Bloom are brought back to life reanimated and bodied forth in new textual bodies that project a post modern understanding of the author as a historically and culturally contingent subjectivity constructed along the lines of gender sexual orientation class and nationality

Laura E Savu is a lecturer at the University of Bucharest      Between Self and Society John Rodden,2016-01-15 Between Self and Society explores the psychosocial dramas that galvanize six major British novels written between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries The book challenges an influential misconception that has for too long hindered appreciation of the psychological novel John Rodden argues that there should be no simplifying antithesis between psychological inner conflicts within the mind or soul and institutional outer conflicts within family class community Instead it is the overarching dramatic yet often tortuous relations between self and society that demand our attention Rodden presents fresh interpretations of an eclectic group of prose fiction classics including Tobias Smollett s The Adventures of Roderick Random William Godwin s Caleb Williams Thomas Hardy s The Mayor of Casterbridge Ford Madox Ford s The Good Soldier Wyndham Lewis s Tarr and D H Lawrence s Women in Love Far from being merely admirable experiments let alone daring though interesting failures these fictions are shown to possess aesthetic unity stylistic consistency and psychic force Between Self and Society thus impels our careful reconsideration of novels that represent major artistic achievements yet have been either unjustly neglected or appreciated in limiting ways that do injustice to their psychological aspects Rodden s vibrant discussion invites an upward revaluation of these works and encourages the full recognition of their value and significance in British literary history      Studies in the Age of Chaucer Larry Scanlon,2003-12-15 Studies in the Age of Chaucer is the annual yearbook of the New Chaucer Society publishing articles on the writing of Chaucer and his contemporaries their antecedents and successors and their intellectual and social contexts More generally articles explore the culture and writing of later medieval Britain 1200 1500 Each SAC volume also includes an annotated bibliography and reviews of Chaucer related publications

Reading the Renaissance Jonathan Hart,2019-06-04 Approaching the Renaissance from many perspectives historicism genre studies close reading anthropology feminism new historicism cultural materialism and postmodernism these original essays explore the boundaries between genre and gender languages and literatures reading and criticism the Renaissance and the Middle Ages the early modern and the post modern world and theater They offer a new way of looking at the Renaissance and at literature and history generally through the lens of cultural pluralism which reflects the changing nature of Western society The collection reveals that the study of literature should take into account its cultural context and that it is enriched by an examination of other literatures      The Reception of Derrida M. Thomas,2006-05-31 This book explores the cross cultural reception of Derrida's work specifically how that work in all its diversity has come to be identified with word deconstruction It is the first book to consider the cultural reception of Derrida's works its accessible language and structure help to make this a benchmark amongst introductory Derrida studies
