A Social History of Late Ottoman Women Duygu Köksal,Anastasia Falierou,2013-10-10 In A Social History of the Late Ottoman Women New Perspectives Duygu Köksal and Anastasia Falierou bring together new research on women of different geographies and communities of the late Ottoman Empire Making use of archives literary works diaries newspapers almanacs art works or cartoons the contributors focus particularly on the ways in which women gained power and exercised agency in late Ottoman Empire and early Republican Turkey The articles convincingly show that women s agency cannot be unearthed without narrating how women were involved in shaping their own and others lives even in the most unexpected areas of their existence The women s activities described here do not simply reflect modernizing trends or westernizing attitudes or their defensive denial They provide an array of local responses where the local can never be found and should never be conceptualized in its initial unchanged or authentic state

The Oxford Handbook of the History of Education John L. Rury,Eileen H. Tamura,2019-06-17 This handbook offers a global view of the historical development of educational institutions systems of schooling ideas about education and educational experiences Its 36 chapters consider changing scholarship in the field examine nationally oriented works by comparing themes and approaches lend international perspective on a range of issues in education and provide suggestions for further research and analysis Like many other subfields of historical analysis the history of education has been deeply affected by global processes of social and political change especially since the 1960s The handbook weighs the influence of various interpretive perspectives including revisionist viewpoints taking particular note of changes in the past half century Contributors consider how schooling and other educational experiences have been shaped by the larger social and political context and how these influences have affected the experiences of students their families and the educators who have worked with them The Handbook provides insight and perspective on a wide range of topics including pre modern education colonialism and anti colonial struggles indigenous education minority issues in education comparative international and transnational education childhood education non formal and informal education and a range of other issues Each contribution includes endnotes and a bibliography for readers interested in further study The Routledge Companion to Historical Studies Alun Munslow, 2006-02-01 The Routledge Companion to Historical Studies provides a much needed critical introduction to the major historians and philosophers together with the central issues ideas and theories which have prompted the rethinking of history that has gathered pace since the 1990s With twenty nine new entries and many that have been substantially updated key concepts for the new history are examined through the ideas of leading thinkers such as Kant Nietzsche Croce Collingwood White Foucault and Derrida and subjects range over class empiricism hermeneutics inference relativism and technology New entries for the second edition include Carl Becker Frank R Ankersmit Jean Francois Lyotard gender justified belief the aesthetic turn race film biography cultural history critical theory and experimental history With a revised introduction setting out the state of the discipline of history today as well as an extended and updated bibliography this is the essential reference work for all students of history The Hadrami Diaspora Leif O. Manger, 2010 The Hadramis of South Yemen and the emergence of their diasporic communities throughout the Indian Ocean region are an intriguing facet of the history of this region s migratory patterns In the early centuries of migration the Yemeni or Hadrami traveler was both a trader and a religious missionary making the migrant community both a trade diaspora and a religious diaspora This tradition has continued as Hadramis around the world have been linked to networks of extremist Islamic inspired movements Osama bin Laden leader of Al Qaeda and descendant of a prominent Hadrami family as the most infamous example However communities of Hadramis living outside Yemen are not homogenous The author expertly elucidates the complexity of the diasporic process showing how it contrasts with the conventional understanding of the Hadrami diaspora as an unchanging society with predefined cultural characteristics originating in the homeland Exploring ethnic social and religious aspects the author offers a deepened understanding of links between Yemen and Indian Ocean regions including India Southeast Asia and the Horn of Africa and the emerging international community of Muslims The Economy of Early America Cathy D. Matson, 2006 In recent years scholars in a number of disciplines have focused their attention on understanding the early American economy This text enters the resurgent discussion by showcasing the work of leading scholars who represent a spectrum of historiographical and methodological viewpoints Fox Volant of the Snowy Mountain Arif Dirlik, Guannan Li, Hsiao-pei Yen, 2012-02-03 Within this text the contributors provide a historical perspective on the development of anthropology and sociology since their introduction to Chinese thought and education in the early twentieth century with an emphasis on the 1930s and 1980s The authors offer different windows on theoretical and research agendas of anthropologists and sociologists of the PRC and Taiwan shaped as much by their political context as by disciplinary training In examining the careers of several individual scholars they also make note not only of their creative contributions but also of the resonance of their intellectual concerns with contemporary issues in sociology and anthropology culturalism frontiers women Finally the volume is organized loosely around the problem of how to translate these disciplines into a Chinese context s the issues of indigenization bentuhua or making Chinese Zhongguohua which have haunted the two disciplines since their establishment in the 1930s because of the contradictory expectations that they generate This is where the case of China resonates with similar concerns in other societies where the disciplines were imported from abroad as products of a Euro American capitalist modernity conflicting with aspirations to create their own localized alternative modernities

The houses of history Anna Green,Kathleen Troup,2016-08-15 The houses of history is a clear jargon free introduction to the major theoretical approaches employed by historians This innovative critical reader provides accessible introductions to fourteen schools of thought from the empiricist to the postcolonial including chapters on Marxist history Freud and psychohistory the Annales historical sociology narrative gender public history and the history of the emotions Each chapter begins with a succinct description of the ideas integral to a particular theory The authors then explore the insights and controversies arising from the application of this model drawing upon debates and examples from around the world Each chapter concludes with a representative example from a historian writing within this conceptual framework This newly revised edition of the highly successful textbook is the ideal basis for an introductory course in history and theory for students of history at all levels

Issues in Art and Design Teaching Nicholas Addison,Lesley Burgess,2003 Arguing for a critical approach to art and design curriculum this volume draws together a range of ethical and pedagogical issues for trainee and newly qualified teachers of art and design in both primary and secondary schools

Localizing Knowledge in a Globalizing World Ali Mirsepassi,Amrita Basu,Frederick Weaver,2003-01-01 The essays in this collection address the current crisis in area studies a crisis that differs from its perennial struggle with the established academic disciplines This crisis stems from the confluence of three related circumstances the end of the Cold War greater economic and cultural fluidity across political borders and contradictory intellectual trends in the academy which include on the one hand a renaissance of universalizing thinking in the social sciences and on the other hand the rise of post colonial studies and debates about modernity postmodernity and cultural hybridization Although the essays differ markedly in their focus and strategies the authors all demonstrate that local knowledge including serious study of individual cultures and proficiency in foreign languages which are vital to understanding rapidly changing global patterns and to countering universal claims by the social sciences While the authors also agree that area studies must reject their ethnocentric heritages and adopt inventive new contours they present a diversity

Domesticating the World Jeremy Prestholdt,2008-01-15 Ingeniously stands the study of globalization and trade on its head Edward Alpers Chair of Department of History UCLA

Time and Environmental Law Benjamin J. Richardson,2017-08-03 Disciplined by industrial clock time modern life distances people from nature s biorhythms such as its ecological evolutionary and climatic processes The law is complicit in numerous ways It compresses time through fast track legislation and accelerated resource exploitation It suffers from temporal inertia such as grandfathering existing activities that limits the law's responsiveness to changing circumstances Insouciance about past ecological damage and neglect of its restoration are equally serious temporal flaws we cannot live sustainably while Earth remains degraded and unrepaired Applying international and interdisciplinary perspectives on these issues Time and Environmental Law explores how to align law with the ecological timescape and enable humankind to tell nature's time Lending insight into environmental behaviour and impacts this book pioneers a new understanding of environmental law for all societies and makes recommendations for its reform Minding nature not the clock requires regenerating Earth adapting to its changes and living more slowly

Writing Indian Nations Maureen Konkle, 2005-11-16 In the early years of the republic the United States government negotiated with Indian nations because it could not afford protracted wars politically militarily or economically Maureen Konkle argues that by depending on treaties which rest on the equal standing of all signatories Europeans in North America institutionalized a paradox the very documents through which they sought to dispossess Native peoples in fact conceded Native autonomy As the United States used coerced treaties to remove Native peoples from their lands a group of Cherokee Pequot Ojibwe Tuscarora and Seneca writers spoke out With history polemic and personal narrative these writers countered widespread misrepresentations about Native peoples supposedly primitive nature their inherent inability to form governments and their impending disappearance Furthermore they contended that arguments about racial difference merely justified oppression and dispossession deriding these arguments as willful attempts to evade the true meanings and implications of the treaties the writers insisted on recognition of Native peoples political autonomy and human equality Konkle demonstrates that these struggles over the meaning of U S Native treaties in the early nineteenth century led to the emergence of the first substantial body of Native writing in English and as she shows the effects of the struggle over the political status of Native peoples remain embedded in contemporary scholarship

The Ethics of Witness Xiao Cai, 2018-10-10 This book explores the aesthetic and ethical ways in which history and daily life are filmically represented and witnessed in Taiwanese director Hou Hsiao hsien's movies From the era of the Japanese Occupation to the White Horror and then to the lifting of martial law the author shows how Hou Hsiao hsien uses visual media to evoke the rhythms of daily life through the emotional memory of the characters and communities he explores In particular the book focuses on the ways in which Hou Hsiao hsien seeks to reflect the strong dilemmas of identity and the traumatic emotions associated with witnessing history Taking an interdisciplinary approach it investigates the concepts of daily life representation and historical trauma in order to focus on how these films represent history and political trauma through the nature of daily life and personal memories and the resulting historical responsibility and ethics This is the first academic monography about Hou Hsiao hsien's films

Global Modernity Arif Dirlik, 2015-11-17 A compelling essay on the contemporary human condition William D Coleman Director of the Institute on Globalization and the Human Condition

McMaster University An unusually perceptive and balanced appraisal of the globalization hype and its relation to the reality of global capitalism Immanuel Wallerstein Yale University In his provocative new book Arif Dirlik argues that the present represents not the beginning of globalization but its end We are instead in a new era in the unfolding of capitalism global modernity The fall of communism in the 1980s generated culturally informed counter claims to modernity Globalization has fragmented our understanding of what is modern Dirlik s global modernity is a concept that enables us to distinguish the present from its Eurocentric past while recognizing the crucial importance of that past in shaping the present Revisiting Minjung Sunyoung Park,2019-03-11 An epoch marking alliance of laborers students dissident intellectuals and ordinary citizens was at the heart of South Korea s transformation from a dictatorship into a vibrant democracy during the 1980s Collectively known as the minjung the people these agents of Korean democratization historically carved out an expanded role for civil society in the country s politics In Revisiting Minjung some of the foremost experts in 1980s Korean history literature film art and music provide new insights into one of the most crucial decades in South Korean history Drawing from the theoretical perspectives of transnationalism post Marxist studies intersectional feminism popular culture studies and more the volume demonstrates how an era that is often associated with radical politics was in effect the catalyst for the subsequent flourishing of democratic and liberal values in South Korea Revisiting Minjung brings new themes new subjectivities and new theoretical perspectives to the study of the rich ecosystem of 1980s Korean culture Treated here is a wide array of topics including the origins of minjung ideology its critique by the right wing minjung art and music workers literary culture women writers and the resurgence of feminism erotic cinema science fiction transnational political travels and the representations of race and queerness in 1980s popular culture The book thus details the origins and development of some of the movements that shape cultural life in South Korea today and it does so through analyses that engage some of the most pressing debates in current scholarship in Korea and abroad *Mentoring, Methods, and Movements: Colloquium in Honor of Terence K. After the Third World? Mark T. Berger, 2013-10-18 The emergence of the Third World is generally traced to onset of the Cold War and decolonization in the 1940s and 1950s In the 1960s and 1970s the three worlds of development were central to the wider dynamics of the changing international order By the 1980s Third Worldism had peaked entering a period of dramatic decline that paralleled the end of the Cold War Into the 21st century the idea of a Third World and even the pursuit of some form of Third Worldism has continued to be advocated and debated For some it has passed into history and may never have had as much substance as it was credited with while others seek to retain or recuperate the Third World and give Third Worldism contemporary relevance Beginning with a comprehensive introduction this edited volume brings together a wide range of important contributions Collectively they offer a powerful overview from a variety of angles of the history and contemporary significance of Third Worldism in international affairs The question remains did the Third World exist what was it does it still have intellectual and political purchase or do we live in a global era that can be described as After the Third World This book was previously published as a special issue of Third world Quarterly

Critics and Writers Speak Igor Maver, 2006-01-01 This book of new critical essays and interviews with writers interrogates the current usage of the term and the category of the post colonial as a theoretical concept discourse and state of mind By looking at contemporary writing in English throughout the world it critically revisions the current practice of post colonial studies and calls attention to its significant weaknesses
