American Literature Library Elizabeth Jones,1989-09-01 A Concise Companion to Postwar American Literature and Culture Josephine Hendin,2008-04-15 This Concise Companion is a guide to the creative output of the United States in the postwar period in its diverse energies shapes and forms Embraces diversity covering Vietnam literature gay and lesbian literature American Jewish fiction Italian American literature Irish American writing emergent ethnic literatures African American writing jazz film drama and more Shows how different genres and approaches opened up creative possibilities and interacted in the postwar period Portrays the postwar United States split by differences of wealth and position by ethnicity and race and by agendas of left and right but united in the intensity of its creative drive Game Theory and Postwar American Literature Michael Wainwright,2017-02-14 If game theory the mathematical simulation of rational decision making first axiomatically established by the Hungarian born American mathematician John von Neumann is to prove worthy of literary hermeneutics then critics must be able to apply its models to texts written without a working knowledge of von Neumann s discipline in mind Reading such iconic novels as Fahrenheit 451 In Cold Blood and Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye from the perspective of the four most frequently encountered coordination problems the Stag Hunt the Prisoner s Dilemma Chicken and Deadlock Game Theory and Postwar American Literature illustrates the significant contribution of mathematical models to literary interpretation The interdisciplinary approach of this book contributes to an understanding of the historical political and social contexts that surround the texts produced in the post Cold War years as well as providing a comprehensive model of joining game theory and literary criticism Repression and Realism in Post-War American Literature E. Mercer,2011-05-09 This study of fiction produced in America in the decade following 1945 examines literature by writers such as Kerouac and Bellow It examines how though such fiction seemed to resolutely avoid the events and implications of World War II it was still suffused with dread and suggestions of war in imagery and language American Literature Hans Bertens,Theo D'haen,2013-11-12 This comprehensive history of American Literature traces its development from the earliest colonial writings of the late 1500s through to the present day This lively engaging and highly accessible guide offers lucid discussions of all major influences and movements such as Puritanism Transcendentalism Realism Naturalism Modernism and Postmodernism draws on the historical cultural and political contexts of key literary texts and authors covers the whole range of American literature prose poetry theatre and experimental literature includes substantial sections on native and ethnic American literatures explains and contextualises major events terms and figures in American history This book is essential reading for anyone seeking to situate their reading of American Literature in the appropriate religious cultural and political contexts American Literature from 1945 Through Today Adam Augustyn Assistant Manager and Assistant Editor, Literature, 2010-08-15 Explores the works and writers from post World War II America to today including Stephen Crane Arthur Miller and Allen Ginsberg Religion and American Literature Since 1950 Mark Eaton, 2020-04-16 From Flannery O Connor and James Baldwin to the post 9 11 writings of Don DeLillo imaginative writers have often been the most insightful chroniclers of the USA s changing religious life since the end of World War II Exploring a wide range of writers from Protestant Catholic Jewish and secular faiths this book is an in depth study of contemporary fiction s engagement with religious belief identity and practice Through readings of major writers of our time like Saul Bellow E L Doctorow Philip Roth Marilynne Robinson and John Updike Mark Eaton discovers a more nuanced picture of the varieties of American religious experience that they are more commonplace than cultural ideas of progressive secularisation or faith based polarization might suggest Research Guide to American Literature John Cusatis, 2010 Covers American literature during the postwar period The Literature of the United States of America Marshall Walker, 1988-09-15 American literature over the last four hundred years has developed distinctive qualities and traditions partly engendered by the land itself The rich variety of literature flourished as the land was colonised and cultivated In this new edition Marshall Walker has updated his wide ranging study of American literature by giving greater attention to poets from Hart Crane and e e Cummings to John Ashbery and A R Ammons and to novelists from William Burroughs and Kurt Vonnegut to John Irving More space is given to drama from the later works of Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller to the plays of Sam Shepard and David Mamet The special concerns of Black Jewish and Women writers are explored as this book demonstrates that American literary history can no longer be considered largely in terms of regional dominances Encyclopedia of American Literature Manly, Inc., 2013-06 Susan Clair Imbarrato Carol Berkin Brett Barney Lisa Paddock Matthew J Bruccoli George Parker Anderson Judith S Special Collections in ARL Libraries Judith Michelle Panitch, 2001 From Tragedy to Apocalypse in American Literature Lin Atnip, 2024-06-15 From Tragedy to Apocalypse in American Literature Reading to Make Sense of Our Endings argues that imaginative literature is essential to comprehending contemporary threats to the survival of the human species and the preservation of our humanity Atnip outlines a theory of reading which directs us to realities and imperatives that are ignored denied or distorted by dominant social conventions and habits of cognition She then puts this theory into practice through readings of postwar American works by Robert Lowell Wallace Stevens Cormac McCarthy and Norman Maclean This book argues that these texts collectively educate us to a new ground of sense the apocalyptic sublime and the need for an unending effort to comprehend what it means to live a human life against this inhuman background Real Life Writings in American Literary Journalism: a Narratological Study Gurpreet Kaur, 2015-07-24 This referential collection of essays is an important guide to the emergence and development of literary journalism through the centuries The book begins with the defining of genres literature and journalism which blur the lines between them It also gives an insight into the theories of narratology Some practitioners included in this book are great American writers like John Hersey Truman Capote Norman Mailer and Don DeLillo These literary journalists bring to life both major as well trivial issues of the society New journalists coalesce all the fictional techniques with the journalistic methods to present a unique and sophisticated style which requires extensive research and even more careful reporting than done in the typical news articles The book closes with the concluding thoughts followed by list of works cited

Memory and the Built Environment in 20th-Century American Literature Alice

Levick,2021-05-20 From the paving of the Los Angeles River in 1938 and the creation of the G I Bill in 1944 to the construction of the Interstate Highway System during the late 1950s and the brownstoning movement of the 1970s throughout the mid 20th century the United States saw a wave of changes that had an enduring impact on the development of urban spaces Focusing on the relationship between processes of demolition and restoration as they have shaped the modern built environment and the processes by which memory is constructed hidden or remade in the literary text this book explores the ways in which history becomes entangled with the urban space in which it plays out Alice Levick takes stock of this history both in the form of its externalised concretised manifestation and its more symbolic representation as depicted in the mid 20th century work of a selection of American writers Calling upon access to archival material and interviews with New York academics authors local historians and urban planners this book locates Freud s Uncanny in the cracks between the absent and present invisible and visible memory and history as they are presented in city narratives demonstrating both the passage of time and the imposition of 20th century modernism With reference to the works of D J Waldie Joan Didion Hisaye Yamamoto Raymond Chandler Marshall Berman Gil Cuadros Paule Marshall L J Davis and Paula Fox Memory and the Built Environment in 20th Century American Literature unpacks how time becomes visible in Los Angeles Sacramento Lakewood and New York in the decades just before and after the Second World War questioning how these spaces provide access to the past in both narrative and spatial forms and how at times this access is blocked
