The Death Census of Black '47: Eyewitness Accounts of Ireland's Great Famine Liam Kennedy, Donald M. MacRaild, Lewis Darwen, Brian Gurrin, 2023-01-10 The Great Irish Famine claimed the lives of one million people mainly from the lower classes More than a million others fled the stricken land between 1845 and 1851 In recent decades its history has become the focus of considerable scholarly and popular attention but much remains to be retrieved and reconstructed particularly at the level of the rural poor This book fills that gap It is based on a large volume of reports on social conditions in the Irish localities emanating from within those localities that has never been used systematically by historians It bears the compelling title of the Death Census Most historians are simply unaware of its existence The outstanding feature of the Death Census is that it was authored by local clergymen who lived among the people they served and were intimately involved with their lives This book brings the Death Census together in composite form for the first time and provides a detailed examination of its contents The result is new understanding of the Great Famine as it was experienced on the ground
