Poverty And Human Rights A Theological Perspective:

Poverty and Human Rights Moses P. Manohar, 1997 Global Poverty Justin Thacker, 2017-03-28 While a number of secular philosophers have written on global poverty theologians have either steered clear entirely or simply mimicked the political analysis currently on offer Christian authors have argued either for a free market solution to global poverty or for a radical reform of global capitalism as the best approach but the theological underpinnings of such conclusions are noticeable by their absence Justin Thacker offers a new way forward He suggests deeply theological answers to questions around the effect of capitalism on global poverty and whether aid is really a sustainable long term solution for the world's poor This book will challenge theologians church leaders and congregations to consider much more seriously the huge implications of faith and theology on our attitude to those who live in extreme poverty Genesis and Christian Theology Nathan MacDonald, Mark W. Elliott, Grant Macaskill, 2012-04-03 Proceedings of a conference held July 14-18 2009 at St Andrews

Church Caritas Ministry in the Perspective of Caritas-Theology and Catholic Social Teaching Giampietro Dal Toso, Heinrich Pompey, Rainer Gehrig, Jakub Doležal, 2015-12-31 Charitable services are sometimes held up as a shop window and Catholic social teaching as the best kept secret of the Church Reaching far beyond the usual writings on this topic the authors from four European topic relevant institutes attempt to formulate the inter relation between these two spheres or missions of the Church in relation to the outside world the importance of which is only tentatively questioned Giampietro Dal Toso current secretary of the Papal Council COR UNUM points to the theological inspiration of the Motu Proprio Intima ecclesiae natura to show the dramatic change in the position of the charitable service within the Church Magisterium Heinrich Pompey distinguished scholar and proponent of Charitable Service Studies Caritaswissenschaft in Freiburg Germany and Olomouc Czech Republic presents an exquisite model for conceptualisation of Charity Theology Rainer Gehrig representative of Charitable Service Studies in Murcia Spain delivers a survey of the details and differences in emphasis put on the charitable service and Catholic Social Teaching as well as a summary of academic institutes which offers an opportunity to study and explore the charitable services Jakub Doležal representative of Charitable Service Studies in Olomouc Czech Republic tables a model of integral caritas practice which maintains the balance between both courses of socio pastoral mission

Theology and the Boundary Discourse of Human Rights Ethna Regan, 2010-04-14 What are human rights Can theology acknowledge human rights discourse Is theological engagement with human rights justified What place should this discourse occupy within ethics Ethna Regan seeks to answer these questions about human rights Christian theology and philosophical ethics The main purpose of this book is to justify and explore theological engagement with human rights Regan illustrates how that engagement is both ecumenical and diverse citing the emerging engagement with human rights discourse by evangelical theologians in response to the War on Terror The book examines where the themes and concerns of key modern theologians Karl Rahner J B Metz Jon Sobrino and Ignacio Ellacuría converge with the themes and concerns of those committed to the advancement of human rights. Regan also critically engages with the disdain for rights discourse that is found in the postliberal critiques of John Milbank and Stanley Hauerwas. This interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of systematic theology, theological ethics, human rights, religion, and politics and political theory.

COMPLETE THEOLOGY COURSE Marcel Souza, Complete Theology Course is a comprehensive work that delves into the complexities and depths of theological study, guiding the reader through an enriching intellectual journey. This book provides an overview of major theological traditions, exploring crucial themes that permeate the history of religion and philosophy. From the foundations of theology to contemporary issues, each chapter is skillfully crafted to provide a solid and balanced understanding. Readers will find in-depth discussions on the nature of God, theodicy, Christology, pneumatology, and other crucial topics. Additionally, the book critically and reflectively addresses the intersections between theology, ethics, science, and society. Written by experts in the field, the Complete Theology Course not only presents essential theological information but also stimulates critical thinking and personal reflection. With an accessible approach, the work is intended for students, academics, and readers interested in deepening their understanding of theological issues that have shaped and continue to shape human thought. This book is a valuable resource for those seeking to explore the mysteries of faith, the evolution of doctrines, and interreligious dialogue, providing a comprehensive and contemporary insight into the vast field of theology.

Public Theology Perspectives on Religion and Education Manfred L.

Pirner, Johannes Lahnemann, Werner Haussmann, Susanne Schwarz, 2019-01-23. In order to draw out the relationship between publicly oriented Christianity and education, this book demonstrates that education is an important method and prerequisite of public theology, as well as an urgent object of public theology research's attention. Featuring work from diverse academic disciplines including religion, education, theology, philosophy, and religious studies, this edited collection also contends with the educational challenges that come with the decline of religion on the one hand and its transformation and regained public relevance on the other. Taken together, the contributions to this volume provide a comprehensive argument for why education deserves systematic attention in the context of public theology discourse and vice versa.

Evelyne Fiechter-Widemann, 2017-05-05 Water is a matter of life and death Advanced technology and engineering enable humans to gain better access to it Nonetheless the conditions and effort required to reach this goal remain colossal in many countries Building a lasting infrastructure for adequate treatment before and after use is costly Therefore the author believes that a radical change of thinking among people around the world from the domestic to the large scale users becomes a priority Even if the United Nations entitles all people to justice for water more responsible and ethical use of it by all interested parties is more important than the spreading of promises which in practice may turn out to be a sham Only a better understanding that access to water rests on the efforts of everyone without exception will reduce overuse waste and pollution of the indispensable resource This volume while written from a theological philosophical and legal perspective focusing on John Calvin John Rawls and Paul Ricoeur demonstrates that water cannot be merely understood as a human right but also has to be dealt with from an economic point of view as well as under the authority of the Golden Rule The Church and Development in Africa, Second Edition Stan Chu Ilo, 2014-10-20 In this book Stan Chu Ilo offers an integral theology of development and a critical social analysis of different development theories and practices in the world especially in Africa Ilo offers a comprehensive biblical anthropological and theological foundation of the principles and praxis of Catholic social ethics from the Second Vatican Council to Pope Francis Drawing from the social encyclical Charity in Truth Ilo shows how

Catholic social teaching responds to some of the challenging questions and concerns of our times in relation to human rights ecology globalization international cooperation development and aid human and cultural development business ethics social justice and the challenges of poverty eradication He creatively applies these principles to the social context of Africa and lays a groundwork for sustainable Christian humanitarian and social justice initiatives in Africa

Theological perspectives on re-imagining leadership in post-COVID-19 Africa Philip La G. du Toit, Alfred R Brunson, 2023-11-30 Post coronavirus disease 2019 COVID 19 realities are challenging leaders in all spheres of society in many ways From the onset of the pandemic leaders on every level were challenged to provide appropriate guidance in the face of new and adverse realities From the micro level of local congregations to the macro level of national governments leaders were required to provide the type of leadership that would not only address immediate obstacles but simultaneously be visionary in the face of uncertainties that became the hallmark of post COVID 19 society In this book the authors reflect on leadership in a post COVID 19 society from bibliological practical theological missiological and ethical perspectives Although the authors have the global village in mind the focus leans towards the African context The book aims to contribute meaningfully to a much needed and re imagined vision of leaders which fits post COVID 19 societies

The Cry of the Poor Alexandre A. Martins, 2019-11-21 This book offers an interdisciplinary effort to address global health issues grounded on a human rights framework seen from the perspective of those who are more vulnerable to be sick and die prematurely the poor Combining his scholarship and service in impoverished communities the author examines the connection between poverty and health inequalities from an ethical perspective that considers contributions from different disciplines and the voices of the poor

The Future of Political Theology Péter Losonczi, Mika Luoma-aho, Aakash Singh, 2016-03-16 Recent shifts in the contemporary cultural political and religious landscape are engendering intensive attention concerning political theology New trends and traditional ideas equally colour these movements Given that a medley of recent books and articles have exhaustively treated both the history and the current resurgence of political theology we now find ourselves faced with the task of reinventing and redefining the future of political theology This book presents a rich overview of fresh contemporary theoretical approaches uniquely prioritizing the prospects of the future of political theology but also making room for significant interventions from philosophy and political theory Including prominent essays on Judaic Islamic Buddhist and Christian perspectives this book balances elements from post modern theology with more classical as well as anti post modern approaches
