Power And Community:

Community and Power Robert A. Nisbet, 1967      Community Power and Empowerment Brian D. Christens, 2019-01-16

Many people want to help bring about changes in their neighborhoods workplaces and communities Leaders and scholars of change efforts are likewise eager for insights into what makes some organizations and coalitions capable of building and exercising power Why are some groups successful in making changes in policies and systems and in sustaining their momentum over time while others struggle or never really get off the ground With Community Power and Empowerment Brian D Christens brings the most comprehensive analysis of empowerment theory yet conducted to bear on these questions taking aim at many of the longstanding weaknesses and ambiguities of empowerment theory research and practice For example one major hindrance is that most notions of empowerment have not been coherently connected with community power In addition research has emphasized psychological aspects of empowerment over organizational processes and has neglected community empowerment processes to an even greater extent By linking empowerment and community power Christens constructs a holistic framework for assessing and comparing community driven change efforts This book offers new guidance for inquiries into outcomes and impacts of empowerment processes on health and well being providing a resource for researchers organizational leaders practitioners and anyone interested in collective action for change development      The Language of Faith in Southern Africa: Spirit World, Power, Community, Holism Hermen Kroesbergen, 2019-12-12 The aim of this book is to provide a way to do justice to an African language of faith In systematic theology anthropology and philosophy of religion similar debates about how to interpret an African language of faith are ongoing Trying to avoid the othering discourses of past generations scholars are careful to take seriously what people in Africa say without portraying people s beliefs as weird or backward Yet in their desperate attempts to avoid othering these theologians anthropologists and philosophers often painfully misconstrue the language of faith in Africa Understanding the language of faith in Southern Africa is not an easy task How should we take seriously the form of language that often seems so strange and different I argue that after African inculturation theology and black liberation theology a better way to make sense of being a Christian in Southern Africa is to pay close attention to people s language of faith The way in which people speak of the spirit world or powers in Africa appears strange to outsiders and the sense of community and the holistic worldview differentiates the African way of life from its Euro American counterparts When proper attention is paid to the use of concepts like spirit world power community and holism language of faith in Southern Africa is neither as strange as it may seem nor as romantic By investigating these distinguishing concepts that colour language of faith in Southern Africa this book contributes to future projects of both fellow theologians who try to construct a contemporary African theology and those who are interested in theology in Africa given the well known southward shift of the centre of gravity of Christianity
