Henderson,1998 This text is a distinctly post Cold War learning tool that will help make sense of the rapid changes now taking place in international relations The author s goal is to contribute to an understanding of a world more willing to abide by rules and norms especially as expressed in international law and a world shifting to an emphasis on the soft power of economic influence rather than relying on the hard power of military force While this text is cautiously optimistic about humankind s future as we enter the 21st century it warns about continuing turbulence caused by terrorism rogue states intense trade competition ethnic conflict and the antagonism between rich and poor states The chapters are tied together with an overarching theme that argues the world is moving from an international anarchy based on fear and military power to the early stages of an international society comprised of multiple actors cooperating to solve problems they handle on their own World Wide Work Sylvia van de Bunt-Kokhuis,2006 The amount of information that is online and potentially relevant to learners is enormous Finding selecting and judging relevant online content are important competencies in a world where lifelong learning is becoming a must In practice online content is the subject of economic cultural and language filtering arising from design features such as browsers commercial search engines portals and
