Reality and the Poet in Spanish Poetry Pedro Salinas, 1940 Reality and the Poet in Spanish Poetry. (English Text by Edith Fishtine Helman.) Pedro SALINAS Y. SERRANO, 1940 Reality and the Poet in Spanish Poetry Pedro Salinas, 1966 Reality and the Poet in Spanish Poetry Pedro Salinas, Jorge Guillén, 1940 Reality and the Poet in Spanish Poetry, by Pedro Salinas. Translated by Elizabeth Fishtine Helman Pedro Salinas, Edith Helman, 1966 An Anthology of Spanish Poetry John A. Crow, 1980-12-01 John A Crow a leading Hispanist has culled the best translations available by such poets as Richard Franshawe Edward Fitzgerald Percy Bysshe Shelley Lord Byron Henry Wadsworth Longfellow William Cullen Bryant Robert Southey and many distinguished modern poets of poems ranging from the eleventh century to the present to make this the most complete collection of both Spanish and Spanish American poetry in English translation Represented here is work by such twentieth century poets as Gabriela Mistral Octavio Paz Federico Garc a Lorca C sar Vallejo Pablo Neruda Anotnio Machado and Juan Ram n Jim nez many of whom the editor has known personally The inclusion of many contemporary poets whose verse has never before appeared in English makes this anthology a particularly valuable collection Reality and the Poet in Spanish Poetry Pedro Salinas Serrano, 1940 Reality and the Poet in Spanish Poetry Pedro Salinas, 1966 Fantasy, 1935 The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian, Anna Elizabeth Balakian, 1984 Edited by Anna Balakian this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages The scope of these analyses which explore Latin America Scandinavia Russia Poland Hungary Serbia Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria as well as West European literatures continues to make the volume a valuable reference today As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution the fifty one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology divided into eight parts traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts pointing to Symbolism at work in painting music and theatre Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism The theoretical historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de si cle is still felt today Theories of Literary Realism Dario Villanueva, 1997-04-24 Realism has not only shaped important schools and periods in literary history but has also been a fundamental constant of all literature its first theoretical formulation being the principle of mimesis in Aristotle's Poetics Realism can be considered by extension one of the main aspects of literary theory the aims of which must be to define its concepts clearly and to neutralize the imprecision polysemy and ambiguity that often characterized the application of realism This book explores the possibilities and limits of a concept of realism that seeks a point of equilibrium between the principle of the autonomy of the literary work vis a vis reality and the complex relations that the work clearly establishes with this reality It acknowledges that it is a personal response to the poststructuralist crisis in literary theory By concentrating on the study of the literary work of art as a verbal construction the great Continental and Anglo American tradition of formalism and New Criticism has ended up neglecting the second mimetic aspect of the literary problematic thus dissociating literature from life Woman and the Infinite Violla Hartfield-Méndez, 1996 Woman and the Infinite demonstrates how Pedro Salinas's poetry and frequently overlooked narrative and theater reveal a preoccupation with the nature of time especially extraordinary moments that transcend space and time Many of these moments are intimately connected with the man woman yo tu relationship Salinas's exploration of this theme is best understood in the context of other modern literary evocations of epiphanic moments Such literary phenomena as William Wordsworth's spots of time and James Joyce's epiphanies are among the precursors of Salinas's moments of eternity as are moments of timelessness in works by Marcel Proust and the French Symbolist poets Salinas's reception of the Symbolists was direct but also refracted through his reading of the Latin American modernistas especially Ruben Dario In his well known commentary on Dario Salinas connects the perception of woman with a visionary moment of extraordinary lucidity a connection found in his own works Woman is elusive for Salinas She has a multiplicity of forms and varying identities that are expressed with mirrors and shadows or Classical and Biblical mythological archetypes All of these are found in Aurora de verdad from Vispera del gozo a narrative piece which can be read as representative of Salinas's work as a whole Specific images in the story including mirrored figures and references to mythological goddesses are also key elements in a trajectory in Salinas's works in general toward an all encompassing absolute and infinite moment

García Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism David F. Richter, 2014-10-15 García Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism The Aesthetics of Anguish examines the variations of surrealism and surrealist theories in the Spanish context studied through the poetry drama and drawings of Federico García Lorca 1898 1936 In contrast to the idealist and subconscious tenets espoused by surrealist leader André Breton which focus on the marvelous automatic creative processes and sublimated depictions of reality Lorca's surrealist impulse follows a trajectory more in line with the theories of French intellectuals such as Georges Bataille 1897 1962 who was expelled from Breton's authoritative group Bataille critiques the lofty goals and ideals of Bretonian surrealism in the pages of the cultural and anthropological review Documents 1929 1930 in terms of a dissident surrealist ethno poetics This brand of the surreal underscores the prevalence of the bleak or darker aspects of reality crisis primitive sacrifice the death drive and the violent representation of existence portrayed through formless base matter such as blood excrement and fragmented bodies The present study demonstrates that Bataille's theoretical and poetic expositions including those dealing with the formless and the somber emptiness of the void engage the trauma and anxiety of surrealist expression in Spain particularly with reference to the anguish desire and death that figure so prominently in Spanish texts of the 1920s and 1930s often qualified as surrealist Drawing extensively on the theoretical cultural and poetic texts of the period García Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism offers the first book length consideration of Bataille's thinking within the Spanish context examined through the work of Lorca a singular proponent of what is here referred to as a dissident Spanish surrealism By reading Lorca's surrealist texts including Poeta en Nueva York Viaje a la luna and El p blico through the Batailleian lens this volume both amplifies our understanding of the poetry and drama of one of the most important Spanish writers of the twentieth century and expands our perspective of what surrealism in Spain means

Crossfire Roberta Johnson, 2021-10-21 The marriage of philosophy and fiction in the first third of Spain's twentieth century was a fertile one It produced some truly notable offspring novels that cross genre boundaries to find innovative forms and treatises that fuse literature and philosophy in new ways In her illuminating interdisciplinary study of Spanish fiction of the Silver Age Roberta Johnson places this important body of Spanish literature in context through a synthesis of social literary and philosophical history Her examination of the work of Miguel de Unamuno Pio Baroja Azorin Ramon Perez de Ayala Juan Ramon Jimenez Gabriel Miro Pedro Salinas Rosa Chacel and Benjamin Jarnes brings to light philosophical frictions and debates and opens new interpersonal and intertextual perspectives on many of the period's most canonical novels Johnson reformulates the traditional discussion of generations and isms by viewing the period as an intergenerational complex in which writers with similar philosophical and personal interests constituted dynamic groupings that interacted and constantly defined and redefined one another Current narratological theories including those of Todorov Genette Bakhtin and Martinez Bonati assist in teasing out the intertextual maneuvers and philosophical conflicts embedded in the novels of the period while the sociological and biographical material bridges the philosophical and literary analyses The result solidly grounded in original archival research is a convincingly complete picture of Spain's intellectual world in the first thirty years of this century Crossfire should revolutionize thinking about the Generation of 98 and the Generation of 14 by identifying the heterogeneous philosophical sources of each and the writers' reactions to them in fiction
