Rebuilding From Within Rotstein, Abraham,1984-01-01 In this study written in 1984 the author discusses problems and weaknesses in Canada s economy and offers solutions for improving in the future Skeptical of the benefits of free trade proposals and deeply critical of the effects of monetarism the author proposes an alternative vision of the nation s development Rotstein outlines the sorts of industrial policies that Canada must have in a balanced portfolio to better exploit the domestic market and survive in a changing global marketplace Rebuilding from Within is a clear headed response to the economic upheavals experienced in Canada in the early 1980s The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy

Daniel Drache,Wallace Clement,1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada s external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline How Ottawa Decides French, Richard,1984-01-01 Published in 1984 How Ottawa Decides is an insider s view of how Ottawa tried throughout the 1970s to establish priorities and act on them The book anatomizes the politics of the bureaucracy and the Cabinet showing how power really operated in Ottawa during this period It tracks the failure of many ambitious efforts to impose political control over government departments long used to operating without undue interference from elected officials How Ottawa Decides is startling first hand account of the forces that really ran the federal government in the 1970s Rebuilding from Within Abraham Rotstein,Canadian Institute for Economic Policy,1984

Continentalizing Canada Gregory J. Inwood,2005-01-01 Free trade has been a highly contentious issue since the Conservative government of Brian Mulroney negotiated the first deal with the United States in the 1980s Tracing the roots of Canada s contemporary involvement in North American free trade back to the Royal Commission on the Economic Union and Development Prospects for Canada in 1985 also known as the Macdonald Commission Gregory J Inwood offers a critical examination of the commission and how its findings affected Canada s political and economic landscape including its present day reverberations Using original research including content analysis interviews archival information and surveys of relevant literature Inwood argues that the Macdonald Commission created an atmosphere and political discourse that made the continentalization of Canada possible by way of free trade agreements with the U S and Mexico Through the use of a suspect research program and with the aid of a select oligarchy within the Commission and the government bureaucracy opposition to continentalism from both the majority of the Canadian population and even several commissioners was ignored Accessible to readers interested in Canadian politics policy or economy Continentalizing Canada offers a thorough examination into the Macdonald Commission and the resulting discourse in the Canadian political economy Progress in Postwar International Relations Emanuel Adler, Beverly Crawford, 1995-02-02 Joseph S Nye Harvard University A Guide to Canadian Economic History Kenneth J.
