Nothingness and Emptiness Steven W. Laycock, 2012-02-01 This sustained and distinctively Buddhist challenge to the ontology of Jean Paul Sartre's Being and Nothingness resolves the incoherence implicit in the Sartrean conception of nothingness by opening to a Buddhist vision of emptiness Rooted in the insights of Madhyamika dialectic and an articulated meditative zen phenomenology Nothingness and Emptiness uncovers and examines the assumptions that sustain Sartre's early phenomenological ontology and questions his theoretical elaboration of consciousness as nothingness Laycock demonstrates that in addition to a relative nothingness the for itself defined against the positivity and plenitude of the in itself Sartre's ontology requires but also repudiates a conception of absolute nothingness the Buddhist emptiness and is thus as it stands logically unstable perhaps incoherent The author is not simply critical he reveals the junctures at which Sartrean ontology appeals for a Buddhist conception of emptiness and offers the needed supplement Exploring Site-specific Art

Cultural Roots of Strategic Intelligence Gino LaPaglia, 2019-11-20 Strategic Intelligence is a form of meaning that promises the possibility of strategic advantage dignity the achievement of objective and the fulfillment of potential in hostile environments In The Cultural Roots of Strategic Intelligence Gino LaPaglia demonstrates that the strategic aspect of reason arising in human experience encoded as value and born by culture as a strategic resource has been encoded as values that have been memorialized in culturally authoritative sources in various Eurasian cultures for thousands of years These sources

Not Being A Empress for Years Xin Yue, 2019-12-25 When she was still a child she was cursed She was born with half of her face that could topple nations and the other half that was as ugly as a ghost He originally thought that his mother would eventually return home He never would have thought that she would actually become the empress of a mother to the world with an imperial edict On the night of their wedding her husband the emperor opened his phoenix handkerchief In that instant Xue Lian saw the most wonderful face in his life Before she could finish admiring the expressions her husband left The next day an imperial edict sent her the empress to the cold palace She didn't know why If he didn't like her then why did he want her to be his successor Intimacy on the Internet Lauren Rosewarne, 2016-04-14 The focus of this book is on the media representations of the use of the Internet in seeking intimate connections be it a committed relationship a hook up or a community in which to dabble in fringe sexual practices Popular culture film narrative television the news media and advertising present two very distinct pictures of the use of the Internet as related to intimacy From news reports about victims of online dating to the presentation of the desperate and dateless the perverts and the deviants a distinct frame for the intimacy Internet connection is negativity In some examples however a changing picture is emerging The ubiquitousness of Internet use today has meant a slow increase in comparatively more positive representations of successful online romances in the news resulting in more positive spin advertising and a more even handed presence of such liaisons in narrative television and film Both the positive and the negative media representations are categorised and analysed in this book to explore what they reveal about the intersection of gender sexuality technology and the changing mores regarding intimacy

Kundalini Rudolf Steiner, 2019-04-25 In Hindu tradition the concept of kundalini refers to a form of primal energy located at the base of the spine Through traditional Eastern methods efforts were made to awaken the kundalini in order to achieve transformed consciousness Rudolf Steiner offers an entirely new perspective integrating the kundalini idea into his spiritual philosophy This anthology contains all relevant comments and notes by Steiner on the theme highlighting how his thinking evolved At the same time it accentuates the differences and similarities between Western and Eastern spiritual paths and in the process reveals what is new and original about Steiner's esoteric teachings. In contrast to most yoga traditions which cultivate the energy rising from the lower life centre the Western path of esoteric schooling starts in our upper centre of consciousness in thinking and the I. From there the centre of experience is shifted downward from the head to the heart. After development of the new heart centre as Rudolf Steiner describes it forces can be guided consciously and through specific exercises the kundalini snake can be fully awoken. In his detailed introduction editor Andreas Meyer distils the perspectives and instructions from Steiner's complete works presenting a valuable synopsis for our understanding and practice of meditation today. Chapters include The Meaning of Meditation and the Six Exercises, Developing and Cleansing the Lotus Flowers, The Snake Symbol, The Kundalini Fire, The Kundalini Light, Developing the New Heart Organ, The Reversal in Thinking and Will, Specific Aspects of Kundalini Schooling, Transforming Physical Love and the Division of the Sexes, Breathing the Light, Soul Process and the New Yoga Will, The Polarity of Light and Love and Transforming the Kundalini Fire into Fraternity.

Strange Eventful Histories Shiamin Kwa, 2020-10-26 When it comes to really knowing a person is what you see, really what you get. Is it ever all you get? In this first critical study and annotated translation of the dramatic masterpiece Four Cries of a Gibbon by the late Ming dynasty Chinese playwright Xu Wei, author Shiamin Kwa considers the ways that people encounter and understand each other in extraordinary circumstances. With its tales of crimes redressed in the next world and girls masquerading as men to achieve everlasting fame, Four Cries of a Gibbon complicates issues of self and identity when it appeared in the late Ming dynasty, paving the way for increasingly nuanced reflections on such questions in late Ming and early Qing fiction and drama. Beyond their historical context, Xu Wei's influential plays serve as testimony to what Kwa argues are universal strategies found within drama. The heroes and heroines in these plays glide back and forth across the borders of life and death of male and female as they seek to articulate who they truly are. As the actors sort out these truths onstage, the members of the audience are invited to consider the truths that they live with offstage.
