Love Returned A Novel Or Could It Be True:

Love Returned Deborah Kohona Johnson, 2004 Love's Sweet Return Margaret Ann Jensen, 1984 Over one hundred twenty formula romance novels are churned out every month These romantic fantasies for women are big business and earn huge profits for the companies that publish them Love's Sweet Return examines the phenomenon of romance fiction focusing specifically on one of the most successful book publishers in the world the Canadian based Harlequin Enterprises Margaret Jensen details the rise of the company examines the Harlequin formula and evaluates the growth and impact of both Harlequin and its competition She also assesses recent shifts in the content of Harlequins particularly as they pertain to women's changing roles in society

Confession and Complicity in Narrative Dennis A. Foster, 1987-05-29 What is the precise relationship between the writer of a text and the reader Contributions to reader response theory have suggested that the reader is relatively passive In this 1987 text Professor Foster argues that the relationship is more complex than that readers enter into complicity with writers and create the illusion of the writer's mastery over meaning in order to imagine themselves as masters and become writers in their own place This dynamic model of the reading process is revealed most tellingly in confessional narratives and so Professor Foster explores the complex patterns of the reader writer symbiosis in texts by Augustine Kierkegaard Henry James Hawthorne Faulkner and Beckett What emerges is a fresh theory of reading literature the engagement between writer and reader as a struggle for power in which the reader is actively complicit and self conscious in his or her interpretations
