Akinsanya,John A. Ayoade,2013-07-19 An Introduction to Political Science in Nigeria attempts to fill the void in the literature for undergraduate and graduate students in the Third World particularly Nigeria that are studying the arts humanities social sciences education and law Primarily intended for introductory courses in political science and specifically Nigerian government the material covers such areas as the foundations of political science key concepts of political thought political systems citizenship world order and politics Human Nature in Modern Economics Anna Horodecka,2022-06-15 Human Nature in Modern Economics offers a precise definition of the concept of human nature in economics something that is so far lacking in the theoretical and methodological literature This book develops tools for the analysis of human nature through the construction of the author s meta model based on anthropological and psychological foundations allowing for comparisons of anthropological assumptions made in economic theories The model demonstrates that the normative functions of human nature may affect the economic reality The chapters argue that the concept of human nature determines our thinking about the economy and economics including fundamental methodologies methods and theories Thus the differences between various economic schools may result from the different assumptions of these schools about human nature Those evolving views of human nature proceed to explain the development of both orthodox mainstream and heterodox economics The book marks a significant addition to the literature on the history of economic thought heterodox economics economic theory and economic methodology For students it is a supplement to standard textbooks as it explains the current state of economics especially in its heterodox branches It will allow scholars to discover the importance of what they assume about human nature and how it may influence their research process Teaching of Social Science:

Soti Shivender Chander, 2012 Teaching of Social Sciences provides an exhaustive coverage of the essential topics that will serve as a useful textbook for prospective teachers of social sciences. It endeavors to present a balanced treatment of the theoretical knowledge and practical skills required for classroom teaching. Special care has been taken to include a variety of questions to test students' understanding and help them succeed in the examination. Written in an easy-to-understand language, this text will provide readers with a solid foundation on which to build expertise in the teaching of the subject.

TEACHING OF SOCIAL STUDIES S. K. MANGAL, UMA MANGAL, 2008-08-25 Written in an easy-to-understand style, this text provides a thorough coverage of the essential topics related to the teaching of social studies in secondary and elementary schools. Reflecting on the theoretical knowledge and practical skills required to teach social studies in an effective manner, the text first introduces its readers to the various components, study material, scope, and importance of social studies. It then teaches the formulation of instructional objectives in social studies and brings out the principles of social studies curriculum as well as its relationship with other subjects of the school curriculum. The book focuses mainly on improving the methodological concepts of the social studies teacher and, in doing so, discusses various methods of teaching, evaluation, and planning of lessons, units, and courses, organization of social studies room, and the equipment to be kept in it. It also examines certain innovative methods of teaching such as team teaching, micro teaching, and individualized instruction. KEY FEATURES Incorporates chapter outline at the beginning and chapter summary at the end of each chapter to help readers review the important topics. Provides chapter-end questions for students to drill the topics discussed. Discusses various topics with the help of a number of figures and tables that facilitate easy understanding of the concepts. This book is suitable for a course on Teaching of Social Studies for the students of B Ed and M A Education. It can also be used for the in-service teacher education programmes organized by the Central and State education boards.
