intercultural communication and the possibilities for misinterpretation of the familiar in an unfamiliar context Starting with an examination of gift wrapping Joy Hendry demonstrates how our expectations are often influenced by cultural factors which may blind us to an appreciation of underlying intent She then extends this approach to the study of polite language as the wrapping of thoughts and intentions garments as body wrappings constructions and gardens as wrapping of space and even to the ways in which people may be wrapped in seating arrangements or meetings and drinking customs may be constrained by temporal versions of wrapping Throughout the book Dr Hendry considers ways in which groups of people use such symbolic forms to impress and manipulate one another and points out a Western tendency to underestimate such non verbal communication or reject it as mere decoration The ideas she presents should be valid in any intercultural encounter and demonstrate that Japanese culture so often thought of as a special case can supply a model through which we can formulate general theories about human behaviour Packaging Catalog ,1967 Fashion Photography Robert Randall,1984 Religion in Japan P.
