Intimate Relationships Mavis Klein, 2013 A stunningly eye opening original typology of five basic personality types ten compound types and fifteen types of interpersonal relationships

Intimate Relationships Mavis Klein, 2013-09-27 If human life as the author argues is a constant and desperate bid to compensate for our mortality then the desire to love and to be loved is our greatest imagined panacea against the fact of our death In modern Western society our problems have changed now with our stomachs full our need to feel we are struggling to survive has become increasingly focussed on a growing dissatisfaction and insecurity in our personal relationships Drawing on her 35 years experience as an individual and group psychotherapist Mavis Klein here elaborates her original theory of five basic personality types ten compound types and fifteen ways in which the basic types interact with each other in our relationships to others She clearly elucidates the behaviours that disguise our often self induced pains and how these pains can be transmuted into our greatest talents and joy This book addresses the reality of the world we are so often unwilling to accept the irrational and violent world of shame doubt guilt fear love and hate

Keats, Hunt and the Aesthetics of Pleasure Ayumi Mizukoshi, 2016-02-17 This book tackles the age old interpretative problem of pleasure in Keat s poetry by placing him in the context of the liberal leisured and luxurious culture of Hunt s circle Challenging the standard narrative which attribute Keat s astonishing poetic development to his separation from Hunt the author cogently argues that Keats profoundly imbued with Hunt s bourgeois ethic and aesthetic remained a poet of sensuous pleasure through to the end of his short career

Love, Joy, and Sex Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-07-30 There is no papal document that has generated as much interest controversy and debate in recent times as Pope Francis s Amoris Laetitia This document which came out of two very divisive synods of Catholic bishops and leaders in Rome in 2014 and 2015 will probably be the most discussed document ever produced by a pope in modern Catholicism on marriage and family life This volume has gathered seminal commentaries on Amoris Laetitia by African Catholic theologians social scientists and pastoral workers They offer African theological and pastoral responses to the principles and practices proposed by Pope Francis and the Synod on the family on such contested issues as same sex relations divorce and remarriage and reception and denial of Holy Communion in the church among other divisive issues These important essays and commentaries show the strengths and weaknesses of this papal commentary and point out the missing link in the global conversation on marriage family and same sex relations Their argument for the inclusion of African perspectives and moral traditions in the search for a third way in finding an inclusive and integrated pastoral art of accompaniment is very compelling The authors here also call for the inclusion of Africa s own unique challenges like polygamy childless marriages and the impact of migration civil conflict diseases ecological and population crises and the rights of African women in the global discussion on marriage and family life They also challenge uncritical clich s in world Christianity that Africa s opposition to same sex marriages or Western propaganda about population or birth control and contraception are conservative while showing diverse African conversations on these topics in the search for abundant life on this beautiful continent

The Psychology of Love and Hate in Intimate Relationships Katherine Aumer, 2016-06-23 Social psychology has made great advancements in understanding how our romantic relationships function and to some extent dissolve However the social and behavioral sciences in much of western scholarship often focus exclusively on the more positive aspects of intimate relationships and less so on more controversial or unconventional aspects The goal of this volume is to explore and illuminate some of these underrepresented aspects aspects such as non monogamy female orgasm sadism and hate that often function alongside love in intimate relationships Ultimately by looking at intimate relationships in this way the volume contributes to and advocates for a more holistic and comprehensive view of intimate relationships Throughout the volume contributors from social clinical and evolutionary psychology cover love and hate from a variety of sometimes opposing perspectives The first section covers love and the changing landscape of intimate relationships Its chapters review the current literature and research of understudied topics like non monogamy female orgasm sexual fantasies and the viewpoint of love as something other than positive The second section explores hate and how hate can operate in intimate relationships for example the appearance of sadistic behavior and debates the nature of hate as either a motivation or emotion The volume concludes by looking at ways in which the appearance of hate in relationships can be dealt with and overcome successfully Taken together these two sections reflect the full variety of experiences within intimate relationships With the aim of exploring how love and hate can and frequently do work together The Psychology of Love and Hate in Intimate Relationships is a fascinating psychological exploration of intimate relationships in modern times It is an invaluable resource to academics and students specializing in psychology gender and sociology including clinicians and therapists and all those interested in increasing our knowledge of intimate relationships

Nehls, 2022-11-11 Webster s dictionary defines myth as aEURA thing having only an unverifiable or imaginary existence aEUR How fitting then to refer to this widely accepted concept of spiritual death as a myth Over thirty years ago I came to a place of understanding where the concept seemed to fit the events of the Garden of Eden Admittedly I never really challenged the teaching Today most Christian believers have accepted spiritual death as the fulfillment of God s warning to Adam and Eve aEUR For in the day that thou eat thereof thou shalt surely die aEUR Genesis 2 17 And if spiritual death is a reality then the requirements that Jesus told Nicodemus to be aEUR born again to see the kingdom of God aEUR John 3 3 seem to fit as well Man has spiritually died and now needs to be born again of the spirit With our limited intellect we simply love to have everything figured out boxed up and placed on the shelf For the believer as you spend time in the Word of God you soon realize that much is unclear and most is left to faith Thankfully there are times when the person of the Holy Spirit speaks a nugget of truth into our spirits and a clearer revelation bursts forth Perhaps you will find nothing new in this discourse perhaps it will shake up your theology just a bit It is my prayer that the Holy Spirit will illuminate your spirit to the truth of what was really lost in the garden transgressions and what Jesus Christ requires of each of His disciples Secondly that you will discover God s intentions for the marriage relationship And finally stir your spirit to more diligently and prayerfully study your Bible like the Bereans found in the book of Acts and aEUR research the Scriptures daily whether those things be so aEUR Acts 17 11 KJV Return to Joy Bev DeSalvo, 2016 In Return to Joy Bev DeSalvo shares her own story of healing from past pain to draw other women along a journey toward intimacy with their Savior The road to healing is arduous and long But when we bow our pain in worship this broken road leads to the heart of God where all masks are removed and divine comfort can be experienced On this journey understanding the true nature of the Father Son and Holy Spirit brings

The Joy Model Jeff Spadafora, 2016-10-18 Weaving together his own spiritual journey stories from his experience coaching others and down to earth principles and practices management consultant and Christian life coach

Jeff Spadafora helps readers find the joy in a life that is more vibrant and real than any they have experienced before. An increasing number of American Christians are frustrated. Even as they read their Bibles, listen to sermons, and hang out with other Christians, they become painfully aware that something is missing: joy. As a result, many have given up on their faith, being a source of joy, and instead they seek meaning, purpose, and joy through their Christian service, work, relationships, hobbies, possessions, or even more destructive and hollow substitutes. The Joy Model offers a better way, showing readers that joy comes from balancing the practical and spiritual sides of our lives: the Doing and the Being of the Christian life. Jeff Spadafora reveals a plan to uncover significant increases in joy, including tried and true disciplines to engage God practically, a blueprint to move from knowing about God to actually experiencing him, practical steps to let our new understanding of God transform relationships, attitudes, finances, service, and work.

The Hip-Hop Underground and African American Culture J. Peterson, 2014-09-11 The underground is a multi-faceted concept in African American culture. Peterson uses Richard Wright, KRS-One, Thelonus Monk, and the tradition of the Underground Railroad to explore the manifestations and the attributes of the underground within the context of a more panoramic picture of African American expressivity within hip-hop.

Joy Unspeakable Peter Y. Lee, 2019-01-03 In this fallen world, Christians often suffer due to no fault of their own. Imagine a loving spouse who suffers the pains of marital unfaithfulness or loving Christian parents who suffer the loss of their child. Now imagine that you can overcome the pain and instead experience a joy unspeakable. 1 Pet 1:8 That is the message of this book. It teaches that to experience righteous suffering is to fellowship with Christ in his sufferings. 1 Pet 4:13 We desire to know the glory of Christ, but that is only half of what he experienced. Unless we know Jesus suffering, we will never know the whole Jesus. And to know Jesus is the greatest joy of a believer, a joy unspeakable.

Count It All Joy Missionary Paula, 2015-06-17 We are all accountable for our own sins, and we can't stand before God and put the blame on someone else. There is no small sin or big sin, and God doesn't hold our past against us like we do to some people. Regardless of what you do in life, if you sincerely come before God and ask Him for forgiveness, He will give it to you. When struggles come, they may not turn out the way you think or expect them to, but God can give you the grace to count it all joy.

Soul Transformation Donald W. Ekstrand, 2012-09 The three steps of salvation in a nutshell are these: becoming a Christian, living the Christian life, and going to heaven. Theologians refer to these three steps as justification, sanctification, and glorification. The first and third steps are instantaneous experiences, but the second step, sanctification, is a life-long process whereby the Holy Spirit works in the believer's life to bring about practical holiness and transform his character into the likeness of Christ. It is this second step of salvation with which the believer struggles because it requires putting to death the deeds of the body, saying no to our sin nature and obeying the promptings of the Holy Spirit, saying yes to God. This is the essence of spiritual warfare. Sadly, most churches in the West today pretty much ignore the issue of sanctification and just focus on justification, either out of ignorance about what Scripture teaches or out of fear that living a holy life is essentially legalism. But living a life of obedience to Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit has nothing to do with legalism legalists think they gain favor with God by being good but believers obey Christ out of gratitude because they already have favor with God The key to sanctified living is gratitude The Bible emphatically describes God as being both loving and holy yet western Christianity primarily focuses on God's love and says almost nothing at all about His holiness As such the central message of most churches is one of love and forgiveness with scarcely a word being said about holiness and death to sin and self Satan is thrilled with our one dimensional Christianity because it essentially leaves believers lukewarm impotent and ineffectual This book presents God's blueprint for spiritual development and portrays the transformational experiences every believer goes through in life they include ups and downs highs and lows peaks and valleys joy and suffering victory and defeat these experiences are the norm for every believer none of us get a painless trouble free road to glory Incidentally the material presented in this book reflects the teachings of the most respected Christian theologians since the reformation individuals the evangelical community has long recognized as being pillars of the faith To our lamentable regret however these teachings no longer have a prominent place in the vast majority of churches in the West It is time for believers in America today to reconsider the fullness of God's call upon their lives Donald W Ekstrand is a retired pastor adjunct professor and author Dr Ekstrand holds degrees in finance business education theology and divinity and is a graduate of Arizona State University Talbot School of Theology and Western Seminary He has served as pastor teacher ministry consultant and executive administrator for more than 40 years Don and his wife Barbara have two grown daughters and reside in Phoenix Arizona
