Paul And Third World Women Theologians:

Paul and Third World Women Theologians Loretta Dornisch,1999 How should a woman read Paul s Letters in the light of the experience of women theologians and other women of the Third World Some who have tried Paul have been put off by his apparent dogmatism and patriarchy The same persons may know little about Third World women theologians A dialectic makes Paul contemporary and gives voice to women who are speaking prophetically for a new century A Companion to Paul in the Reformation R. Ward Holder,2009 The reception and interpretation of the writings of St Paul in the early modern period forms the subject of this volume Written by experts in the field the articles offer a critical overview of current research and introduce the major themes in Pauline interpretation in the Reformation Messianic 'I' and Rastafari in New Testament Dialogue Delano Vincent Palmer,2010-04-13 Anyone familiar with the Rastafari movement and its connection with the Bible is struck by the prevalence of messianic I locution found in both As the phenomenon is important in the canonical Testaments more so within the New Testament this study seeks to investigate its significance in certain epistolary pieces Romans 7 14 25 15 14 33 the bio Narratives and the Apocalypse in their historical and cultural milieu The next stage of the investigation then compares the findings of the aforementioned New Testament books with corresponding statements of the Rasta community in order to determine their relevance for the ongoing Anglophone theological enterprise In sum this study seeks to bring into critical dialogue the permutative messianic I of the New Testament with the self understanding of Rastafari Ford's The Modern Theologians Rachel Muers,Ashley Cocksworth,2024-02-21 Captures the multiple voices of Christian theology in a diverse and interconnected world through in depth studies of representative figures and overviews of key movements Providing an unparalleled overview of the subject The Modern Theologians provides an indispensable guide to the diverse approaches and perspectives within Christian theology from the early twentieth century to the present Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and explores the development and trajectory of modern theology while presenting critical accounts of a broad range of relevant topics and representative thinkers The fourth edition of The Modern Theologians is fully updated to provide readers with a clear picture of the broad spectrum and core concerns of modern Christian theology worldwide It offers new perspectives on key twentieth century figures and movements from different geographical and ecclesial contexts There are expanded sections on theological dialogue with non Christian traditions and on Christian theology s engagement with the arts and sciences A new section explores theological responses to urgent global challenges such as nationalism racism and the environmental crisis Providing the next generation of theologians with the tools needed to take theological conversations forward The Modern Theologians Explores Christian theology s engagement with multiple ways of knowing across diverse approaches and traditions Combines introductions to key modern theologians and coverage of the major movements within contemporary theology Identifies common dynamics found across theologies to enable cross contextual comparisons Positions individual theologians in geographical regions trans local movements and ecclesial contexts Features new and revised chapters written by experts in particular movements topics and individuals Providing in depth critical evaluation and extensive references to further readings and research Ford s The Modern Theologians An Introduction to Christian Theology since 1918 Fourth Edition remains an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in Theology and Religious Studies such as Introduction to Christian Theology Systematic Theology Modern Theology and Modern Theologians It is also an invaluable resource for researchers those involved in various forms of Christian ministry teachers of religious studies and general readers engaged in independent study

Romans in Context D. V. Palmer, 2011-03-04 Using crucial chapters from Paul s magnum opus as points of theological departure Delano Palmer provides in depth discussion on important themes like the role of first century women in pastoral work and the nature and duration of spiritual endowments Romans in Context is divided into three parts Part one reviews the career and legacy of the apostle Paul against the backdrop of his cultural milieu and history Part two takes up the knotty problem of what exactly does the apostle mean by justification by faith in its exploration of the declarative demonstrative proposal of modern theologians The section also explores what Paul has to say concerning the status of the justified in Romans 5:8 It is the final section that wrestles with matters of spiritual gifts the role of female pastors as well as the apostle's best documented thoughts on Christian mission Journal of Hispanic/Latino Theology, 1999 Chikamoneka!: Gender and Empire in Religion and Public Life Cheelo Siwila, Sylvia Mukuka, 2022-03-21 This is a pioneering volume that emerges from the voices of women scholars who belong to the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians in their response to the subjection of women and children in religion and public life The book uses the metaphor Chikamoneka literally meaning it shall be seen to demonstrate resistance to all forms of oppression by empire to humanity especially those inflicted on women and children Some of the themes that addressed in this book are drawn from women's lived experiences This demonstrates the power of narrative theory as a tool for academic discourse The book makes a vital contribution to academic religious and secular society in the field of Gender Religion Development and Sociology It is also the first publication by the African Women's Circle Paul and the Politics of Difference Jae Won Lee, 2015-02-26 Paul lies at the core of the constant debate about the opposition between Christianity and Judaism both in biblical interpretation and public discourse The so called new perspective on Paul has not offered a significant break from the formidable paradigm of Christian universalism versus Jewish particularism in Pauline scholarship This book liberates Paul from the Western logic of identity and its dominant understanding of difference Drawing attention to the currency of discourses on difference in contemporary theories as well as in biblical studies the author critically examines the hermeneutical relevance of a contextual and relational understanding of difference He applies it to interpret the dynamics of Jew/Gentile difference reflected particularly in meal practices Gal 2:1-21 and Rom 14:1-15:13 of early Christian communities Paul and the Politics of Difference argues that by deconstructing the hierarchy of social relations underlying the Jew/Gentile difference in different community situations Paul promotes a politics of difference This affirms a preferential option for the socially weak solidarity with the weak Paul's politics of difference is invoked as the potential for liberation in a vision of egalitarian justice in the face of contemporary globalism's proliferation of difference The Black Studies Reader Jacqueline Bobo, Cynthia Hudley, Claudine Michel, 2004 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
