Paul Bowles Allen Hibbard,2004 Paul Bowles 1910 1999 was one of the most paradoxical literary talents of his century a sophisticated New York writer and composer who lived a half century in Morocco a man who fled the western world that acclaimed him Paul Bowles Magic and Morocco is an extended homage a memoir of a friendship and an examination of more than a half century s influence of North African magic on Bowles s sensibilities and fictions Allen Hibbard a scholar and close friend situates Bowles with others like Conrad and Lawrence who lived a split existence literally and metaphorically divided between the modern and the primitive With an extensive knowledge of the Middle East and North Africa Hibbard weaves literary analysis and personal insight thereby yielding a unique understanding of the effects of Moroccan culture upon Bowles s sensibility Paul Bowles, Magic and Morocco Allen Hibbard,2004 Paul Bowles 1910 1999 was one of the most paradoxical literary talents of his century a sophisticated New York writer and composer who lived a half century in Morocco a man who fled the western world that acclaimed him Paul Bowles Magic and Morocco is an extended homage a memoir of a friendship and an examination of more than a half century s influence of North African magic on Bowles s sensibilities and fictions Allen Hibbard a scholar and close friend situates Bowles with others like Conrad and Lawrence who lived a split existence literally and metaphorically divided between the modern and the primitive With an extensive knowledge of the Middle East and North Africa Hibbard weaves literary analysis and personal insight thereby yielding a unique understanding of the effects of Moroccan culture upon Bowles s sensibility Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra Benlemlih,2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles s translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles s autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles s fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles s work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles s best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story s protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington's notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles's poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash

Conversations with Paul Bowles Paul Bowles, 1993 Paul Bowles says Each man's life has the quality he gives it but you can't say that life itself has any qualities If we suffer it's because we haven't learned how not to The man who wrote the books didn't exist No Writer exists He exists in his books and that's all I write unconsciously without knowing what I am writing

Re-creating Paul Bowles, the Other, and the Imagination Raj Chandarlapaty, 2014-11-05 As we withdraw farther from American canonical literature and poetry and move closer to a re appraisal of literature's impact upon the arts through media we may easily find a match for greater humanism and popular interaction in American rock culture through Paul Bowles In this work Bowles is re invented within the postmodern the postcolonial and the renegade future underscored by liberal elites that had breathed new life into the American counterculture Re Creating Paul Bowles attests to the moments of relentless humanism and imaginative transformation that are most dreamlike engaging the antagonism of psychology with imperialism at last In his youth a classical composer and critic Bowles deserves credit for spawning new generations of rock and pop music through his use of sound and tapping of non Western or non European folk music bringing classic ethnography to the rock generation with Music of Morocco Re Creating Paul Bowles examines the Latin American African and Arab moments of his scholastic effort a primary beginning for understanding modern popular music's free transcription of tradition Re Creating Paul Bowles includes several examples of films that adapt the author's personal life and times the production of surrealist technique in film and literature and the re invention of classic works such as The Sheltering Sky and Collected Stories It assumes the technique for re production allows the elder Bowles greater freedom in crossing cultural boundaries and overruling the colonialist separateness that guarded cultural content for centuries Bowles has always deserved re appraisal in the American academy and liberation from his stereotypical cult figure identity a positive force in the ethnic comprehension of Self and society

Paul Bowles Barry Tharaud, 2020 Shows that the writings of Paul Bowles who is often seen as a literary renegade owe much to the antinomian American tradition of Emerson and his literary descendants

Writing Tangier Ralph M. Coury, Robert Kevin Lacey, 2009 Writing Tangier discusses an array of topics relating to the literature on Tangier from the seventeenth century to the present Major questions include Why has Tangier come to play an important role in contemporary world literary history as a signifier in the literary imagination what is the nature of the inter textual output produced through Paul Bowles translations of the oral tales of a circle of uneducated storytellers including Mohammed Mrabet and Larbi Layachi and the text For Bread Alone brought to Bowles by the literate Mohamed Choukri how do academics artists and writers who have been based in the city or who have written about it assess the various socio economic political and cultural factors that have shaped its cultural production and the relationship of this production to the celebrated hybrid aspects of its identity does the success of the literature of Tangier reflect a truly new multicultural cosmopolitanism or does it stem from the fact that this literature is congenial to Westerners that it is understood in terms that they themselves define and that much of it including productions in Arabic prepared with the expectation of translation has even been written to measure for them

miles from Europe Tangier is more than a destination it is an escape The Interzone as William Burroughs called it has attracted spies outlaws outcasts and writers for centuries men and women breaking through artistic borders The results were some of the most incendiary and influential books of our time and the list of outlaw originals is long stretching from Ibn Battuta and Alexandre Dumas to Twain and Wharton and from the darkly brilliant Beats of Bowles Kerouac Gysin and Ginsberg to the great Moroccan novelists Mohamed Choukri Mohammed Mrabet and Tahar Ben Jelloun
