Pauper Brawler And Slanderer:

Pauper, Brawler, and Slanderer Amos Tutuola,1987

Pauper, Brawler and Slanderer Amos Tutuola,2014-07-01

Drawing on the Yoruba folk tradition Amos Tutuola's tales combine the resonance of universal myth with reflections on a range of human vagaries. The leading characters of Pauper Brawler and Slanderer are all forced to embark on journeys of no return leading to incidents and adventures in classic Tutuola style. There is a ploughing competition for the hand of the beautiful Popondoro and the reign of Pauper and Slanderer in the town of women is inevitably brief. This is Tutuola at his most vivid and funny at his wisest and most imaginative. Pauper, Brawler and Slanderer Amos Tutuola,1990 New Fiction in English from Africa: West, East, and South André Viola, Jacqueline Bardolph, Denise Coussey, 2022-05-20. The term recent or new covers novels and some short fiction published between 1980 and 1995 a period characterized by growing pessimism about the state of affairs in both East and West Africa. The section on South Africa deals more narrowly with the 1985-95 watershed marking the end of official apartheid and the beginning of reconstruction. The three sections aim at giving a coherent picture of the main directions in production highlighting three main centres of interest: Nigeria, Kenya and the Republic of South Africa, although some novelists from neighbouring countries are also considered such as Kofi Awoonor from Ghana, Nuruddin Farah from Somalia and M. G. Vassanji and Abdulrazak Gurnah from Tanzania. The evaluations conducted in the three sections lead to the emergence of a number of common themes: in particular, the writers' predilection for topicality, the role of the past and the controversy over the idea of the nation. Central themes also include the role of women in feeding for themselves both in rural and in urban environments. A further major theme is the role of the past: the Nigerian civil war, the Mau Mau period in Kenya, the revisiting of slavery, the refurbishing of myth, the questioning of historical reconstructions. The preoccupation of the West, East and South African novel with the idea and ideal of the nation is explored particularly in the context of migrancy, hybridity and transculturalism characterizing the anglophone diaspora. The volume is aimed at literary scholars and students and more generally readers of fiction seeking an introduction to contemporary literary developments in various parts of sub-Saharan anglophone Africa. No categorical distinction is drawn between popular and high literature. Though still selective and not intended as an exhaustive catalogue, the present survey covers a large number of titles. Rather than resorting to broad and ultimately somewhat abstract thematic categories, the contributors endeavour to keep control over this mass of material by applying a micro thematic taxonomy. This approach, well tested in the tradition of literary studies within France, groups works analytically and evaluatively in terms of such categories as actional motifs, plot frames and sociologically relevant locations or topics, thereby enabling a clearer focus on the dynamics of preoccupation and tendency that form networks of affinity across the fiction produced in the period surveyed. West Africa, 2003 Ajaiyi and His Inherited Poverty Amos Tutuola, 2014-10-14. This is the story of Ajaiyi, a man born into poverty who is determined to improve his situation. In the hope of finding the money he needs, he travels through unfamiliar lands filled with strange creatures He meets the Spirit of Fire with its huge feathered head and flaming body and receives assistance from a wizard and a unicorn Yet in the end the answer to his woes is not far from home Amos Tutuola was born in Abeokuta Nigeria in 1920 His first novel The Palm Wine Drinkard was acquired by T S Eliot and published by Faber in 1952 Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world Drinking from the Cosmic Gourd B.

Nyamnjoh, 2017-03-15 This book questions colonial and apartheid ideologies on being human and being African ideologies that continue to shape how research is conceptualised taught and practiced in universities across Africa Africans immersed in popular traditions of meaning making are denied the right by those who police the borders of knowledge to think and represent their realities in accordance with the civilisations and universes they know best Often the ways of life they cherish are labelled and dismissed too eagerly as traditional knowledge by some of the very African intellectual elite they look to for protection The book makes a case for sidestepped traditions of knowledge It draws attention to Africa's possibilities prospects and emergent capacities for being and becoming in tune with its creativity and imagination It speaks to the nimble footed flexible minded frontier African at the crossroads and junctions of encounters facilitating creative conversations and challenging regressive logics of exclusionary identities The book uses Amos Tutuola's stories to question dualistic assumptions about reality and scholarship and to call for conviviality interconnections and interdependence between competing knowledge traditions in Africa Incompleteness Mobility and Conviviality Francis Nyamnjoh, 2023-12-05

Central to the Jensen Memorial Lectures 2023 is an invitation to take incompleteness seriously in how we imagine relate to and seek to understand a world in perpetual motion Despite our instinct for and obsession with completeness we are constantly reminded that the sooner one recognises and provides for incompleteness and the conviviality it inspires as the normal way of being the better we are for it Fluidity compositeness and the capacity to be present in multiple places and forms simultaneously in whole or in fragments are core characteristics of reality and ontology of incompleteness How would we frame our curiosities and conversations about processes relationships and phenomena with an understanding of the universality of incompleteness and mobility West and Central Africa for example are regions where it is commonplace to embrace and celebrate incompleteness in nature the suprasensory human beings human actions human inventions and human achievements The lectures indicate how we could draw inspiration in this regard to inform current clamours for decolonisation and the growing ambivalence about rapid advances in digital technologies artificial intelligence AI in particular as well as with twenty first century concerns about migrants and strangers knocking at the doors of opportunities we feel more entitled to as bona fide citizens and insiders The lectures draw on the writings of Amos Tutuola as well as from popular ideas of personhood and agency in Africa to make a case for sidestepped and silenced traditions of knowledge They highlight Africa s possibilities prospects and emergent capacities for being and becoming in tune with the continent s creativity and imagination They speak to the nimble footed flexible minded frontier African at the crossroads and junctions of myriad encounters facilitating creative conversations and challenging regressive logics of exclusionary claims and articulation of identities and achievements The traditions of knowledge discussed in these lectures do not only speak to Africans but to the world as the philosophies explored have universal application The crucial anthropological question of relationality and othering is at the heart of this original and enlightening book Nyamnjoh cautions the missionaries of decoloniality against the risk of substituting one illusion of completeness with another For him incompleteness is the basis of any healthy exchange He therefore recommends embracing the universality of incompleteness in motion and taking seriously an ancestral tradition of self extension through creative imagination in this anxious age of artificial intelligence Forcefully argued and abundantly substantiated with finesse and laughter that run through it this book will be a milestone by making us rediscover the demands and the magic of fieldwork Prof Dr Mamadou Diawara Goethe University Frankfurt Main Frobenius Institut Frankfurt Main Point Sud Bamako Mali
