Poems Of Andre Breton:

Selected Poems [of] André Breton André Breton, 1969 Poems of André Breton André Breton, 1982 André Breton André Breton, 2003-10 This is a kind of essence of Breton variously translated by some of our finest writers each of whom highlights different facets of Breton's complex work Mark Polizzotti's useful introduction provides context and a brief analysis of the artist and his times Diane di Prima author of Recollections of My Life as a Woman Mark Polizzotti who is a poet a translator and the author of the definitive biography of André Breton has chosen stellar translations of Breton's dazzling poetry and placed it in its lively context This shapely introduction to the life and work of André Breton is smart concise and exciting I cannot imagine a better one Ron Padgett poet and translator of The Complete Poems of Blaise Cendrars The Poets for the Millennium Series generally and André Breton's Selected Works specifically offers a workable image of an author and the work and the conjuncture all at once What comes across is a vivid presentation of André Breton not just as an art czar a manifesto merchant but a serious haunted inventive and strangely profound poet of the imagination who invented or archeologized new ways of dreaming but insisted on bearing witness with them in the actual world Polizzotti does justice as I think no other writer has to the double burden of Breton's work Robert Kelly A superbly chosen selection of Breton's poetry and prose translated in every case with an elegant intelligence and preceded by an unusually thorough introduction showing quite exactly how the poet's life informed each epoch of his work It proves again the remarkable un-boredom of Breton and how important he is now to our own poetry and to us Mary Ann Caws author of The Surrealist Look An Erotics of Encounter and editor of The Surrealist Painters and Poets Poems of André Breton André Breton, 1990

Selected Poems [of] André Breton André Breton, 1969 André Breton Mary Ann Caws, 1996 In this volume Mary Ann Caws revises her 1974 treatise on Breton adopting a new approach considering different essays and concentrating on new aspects of Breton's works Caws structures her study by concentrating on the surrealist elements in Breton's works with a full chapter devoted to his poems and surrealist poetry As one of Breton's most frequent translators and a long time acquaintance of Breton's last two wives Caws' viewpoint is both intimate and impassioned My Heart Through which Her Heart Has Passed André Breton, 1998 Earthlight André Breton, 1993 A republication of the PEN Book of the Month Club Translation Prize winner of 1993 André Breton J. H. Matthews, 1986-01-01 Breton's stature is much greater than that of a number of contemporaries who have received already far more attention from the critics than he It provides justification without excuse especially when the commentator's purpose is to shed light on the intricacies of Breton's mind the significance of his original work or the impact of his ideas on twentieth century culture Hence the aim pursued in the present study may be stated without further preamble To attempt to broaden understanding of the evolution of André Breton's thinking during a critical period in his life the one which brought him to leadership of the surrealist movement in France Evidently the focus here is narrow the goal being to give clearer definition to the intellectual state of a young man emerging from doubt and so from self doubt into renewed confidence in his poetic calling Arcanum 17 André Breton, 2004

Considered radical at the time Breton's ideas today seem almost prescient yet breathtaking in their passionate underlying belief in the indestructibility of life and the freedom of the human spirit Breton wrote Arcanum 17 during a trip to the Gaspé Peninsula in Quebec in the months after D Day in 1944 when the allied troops were liberating Occupied Europe Using the huge Perce Rock its impermanence its slow motion crumbling its singular beauty as his central metaphor Breton considers issues of love loss aggression war pacifism and feminism Amour Fou André Breton, 1988-10-01 Mad Love has been acknowledged an undisputed classic of the surrealist movement since its first publication in France in 1937 Its adulation of love as both mystery and revelation places it in the most abiding of literary traditions but its stormy history and technical difficulty have prevented it from being translated into English until now There has never been any forbidden fruit Only temptation is divine writes Andr Breton leader of the surrealists in Paris in the 1920s and 30s Mad Love is dedicated to defying the widespread opinion that love wears out like the diamond in its own dust Celebrating breton's own love and lover the book unveils the marvelous in everyday encounters and the hidden depths of ordinary things André Breton Today Anna Elizabeth Balakian, Anna Balakian, Rudolf E. Kuenzli, 1989 André Breton Clifford Browder, 1967 André Breton the Poet Keith Aspley, 1989-01-01 Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Azérad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre from classical verse to vers libre from calligrammes to prose poems and po sie sonore This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory A foreword by one of France's foremost poets Yves Bonnefoy a general introduction and an afterword provide a helpful theoretical framework for the study of modern poetry An extensive bibliography concise biographies of the poets and a glossary of literary terms are included Students of French and of comparative literature will gain a deeper understanding of the development of French verse and of the artistic movements especially in the visual arts which have shaped twentieth century French poetry André Breton in Exile Victoria Clouston, 2017-09-22 Following the journey of Andr Breton the leader of the Surrealist movement into exile during the Second World War the author of this book traces the trajectory of his thought and poetic output from 1941 1948 Through a close examination of the major and as yet little studied works written during these years she demonstrates how Breton's quest for a new myth for the postwar world led him to widen his enquiry into hermeticism myth and the occult This ground breaking study establishes Breton's profound intellectual debt to 19th century Romanticism its literature and thought revealing how it defined his understanding of hermeticism and the occult and examining the differences between the two It shows how having abandoned political action on leaving the Communist Party in 1935 Breton nonetheless held firmly to political thought moving in his quest for a better world via Hermes Trismegistus across the utopian ideas of Charles Fourier and the magical practices of the Hopi Indians The author finally reveals Breton's misreading of the situation in postwar Paris on his return in 1946 and his failure to communicate the span of his ideas for creating a better society while at the same time maintaining a close connection between art and life

The Collected Poems of Philip Lamantia Philip

Lamantia, 2019-10-22 The Collected Poems of Philip Lamantia represents the lifework of the most visionary poet of the American postwar generation Philip Lamantia 1927-2005 played a major role in shaping the poetics of both the Beat and the Surrealist movements in the United States First mentored by the San Francisco poet Kenneth Rexroth the teenage Lamantia also came to the attention of the French Surrealist leader André Breton who after reading Lamantia's youthful work hailed him as a voice that rises once in a hundred years Later Lamantia went on the road with Jack Kerouac and shared the stage with Allen Ginsberg at the famous Six Gallery reading in San Francisco where Ginsberg first read Howl Throughout his life Lamantia sought to extend and renew the visionary tradition of Romanticism in a distinctly American vernacular drawing on mystical lore and drug experience in the process The Collected Poems gathers not only his published work but also an extensive selection of unpublished or uncollected work the editors have also provided a biographical introduction

André Breton, 2005 André Breton, 1988 Twentieth Century Poetry Peter Robinson, 2005 Peter Robinson's third book of literary criticism presents a sequence of chapters exploring ways that selves and situations interact and become imaginatively identified with each other in poems Readings of works by Ezra Pound Basil Bunting Louis MacNeice W S Graham Elizabeth Bishop Allen Curnow Charles Tomlinson Mairi MacInnes Tom Raworth and Roy Fisher share an interest in how poems can be both attached to and detached from the culture society and conditions in which they were written These studies draw out and underline both the ubiquity and elusiveness of the self in the situation of the text The poems studied here are also discussed as focal points for relations between readerly and writerly selves and their situations in and over time
