

The background of the slide is a photograph of an open book, likely a Bible, with its pages slightly aged and yellowed. The book is open to a page with text, though the text is not legible. A dark, semi-transparent rectangular overlay is positioned in the upper half of the image, serving as a background for the title and author's name. The title is written in a large, white, serif font, and the author's name is in a smaller, white, serif font, separated by a thin horizontal line.

Theological Proposal Angus Paddison,2009-10-10 To identify the biblical texts as Scripture is to make a series of specific claims about this text that it is drawn into the activity of the triune God of Israel that its ultimate destination is the worshipping church and that it has a ministry in shaping Christian thinking and acting Scripture A Very Theological Proposal advances that the resources for reading Scripture understanding its claims and acting upon them will be found by looking to the church s life and doctrines Reading Scripture with a host of theologians Paddison proposes a hermeneutic appropriate to reading Scripture both as divine address and the book of the church The book positions itself by resisting accounts in which Scripture s relationship to God and its life within the church are understood competitively as if the more we attend to one the less we are attending to the other Chapters further explore a doctrine of Scripture and the relationship of ethics doctrine and preaching to Scripture A final chapter asks can or should Scripture be read in the university
