Possibilities: Essays on the State of the Novel Malcolm Bradbury, 1973 New Directions in the History of the Novel P. Parrinder, A. Nash, N. Wilson, 2014-02-25 New Directions in the History of the Novel challenges received views of literary history and sets out new areas for research A re examination of the nature of prose fiction in English and its study from the Renaissance to the 21st century it will become required reading for teachers and students of the novel and its history

The Rhetoric of Fiction Wayne C. Booth, 1983-02-15 A standard reference point in advanced discussions of how fictional form works how authors make novels accessible and how readers recreate texts Its concepts and terms have become standard critical lexicon

Interface between Literature and Science Victoria Carpenter, 2015-05-13 The boundaries of science and literature are permeable they are continuously crossed and illuminated by a variety of narrative forms and their interpretations Changes in our perception of the world are informed in equal measure by scientific and humanistic disciplines This volume treats both literary and scientific texts as products of the human mind therefore abiding by all the rules it creates scientific and humanistic alike The volume does not propose to replace all literary or discourse analysis with a cross disciplinary science based approach but rather uses this theoretical stance when more conventional means fail to explain or even explore the intricacies of a text It argues that scientific discourse can also be analysed through the prism of literary theories since all texts are governed in varying measure by the unity of contexts that characterize their nature the process of their creation and their place in the cognitive realm of humanity This approach will allow the nature and limitations of scientific research to be questioned while opening up more venues to explore scientific creativity that crosses the subject boundaries of science and humanities Latin American literature offers many examples of the interconnection between literary and scientific discourse Notwithstanding the often explored relationship between Jorge Luis Borges s literary themes and contemporary scientific discoveries a more general question should be asked is the influence of scientific thought a privilege of the select few or is it indeed an all pervading experience in Latin American literary narrative from late modernism to present day This book explores the texts that overtly incorporate scientific content or are structured in such a way that immediately reminds the reader of a scientific phenomenon it will also examine the texts that are presented in such a way that a conventional literary analysis does not help penetrate the many narrative layers that the text comprises The volume offers cross disciplinary readings of such authors as Jorge Luis Borges Gabriel Garc a M rquez Ernesto S bato and Gustavo Sainz to name but a few

The Modern British Novel Malcolm Bradbury, 2001 Bradbury argues that almost a century since the emergence of Modernism it is now possible to see the entire period in perspective It is clear that the first 50 years from Henry James Wilde and Stevenson through James Joyce Lawrence Forster to Huxley Isherwood and Orwell have been extensively discussed in print The years since World War II though have not been examined in depth yet have produced talents such as Graham Greene Angus Wilson Beckett Doris Lessing Margaret Drabble Angela Carter Ian McEwan Kingsley and Martin Amis Julian Barnes Fay Weldon Salman Rushdie and Timothy Mo Nostalgic Postmodernism Christian Gutleben, 2021-10-18 Why do so many contemporary British novels revert to the Victorian tradition in order to find a new source of inspiration What does it mean from an ideological point of view to build a modern form of art by resurrecting and recycling an art of the past From a formal point of view what are the aesthetic priorities established by these postmodernist novels Those are the main questions tackled by this study intended for anybody interested in the aesthetic and ideological evolution of very recent fiction What this analysis ultimately proposes is a reevaluation and a redefinition of postmodernism such as it is illustrated by the British novels which paradoxically both praise and mock honour and debunk imitate and subvert their Victorian models Unashamedly opportunistic and deliberately exploiting the spirit of the time this late form of postmodernism cannibalizes and reshapes not only Victorianism but all the other previous aesthetic movements including early postmodernism

Form as Content and Rhetoric in the Modern Novel Michael Boccia, 1989 This book examines the fiction of modern authors who have deviated from the traditional modes of narrative structure to reflect thematic elements In so doing these writers have created new novelistic forms that surprise and entrance readers in new ways The works of Vladimir Nabokov Ismael Reed Manuel Puig William Gaddis Djuna Barnes John Fowles and Lawrence Durrell are examined in terms of the aesthetic theories provided by the writers themselves
