Post Structuralism And The Question Of History:

Post-Structuralism and the Question of History Derek Attridge, Geoff Bennington, Robert Young, 1987 Recent developments in literary theory such as structuralism and deconstruction have come under attack for neglecting history while historically based approaches have been criticized for failing to take account of the problems inherent in their methodological foundations This collection of essays is unique in that it focuses on the relation between post structuralism and historical especially Marxist literary theory and criticism The volume includes a deconstructive reading of Marx essays that relate history to the philosophical and institutional context and a number of studies of particular texts literary and non literary which pose the question of history and literary theory with particular force

Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present Focusing on the years 1960 1984 the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s Althusser Foucault Deleuze Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Habermas Influential thinkers such as Serres Bourdieu and Rorty who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period are also covered Beyond this thematic essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy the linguistic turn in continental thinking the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur the influence of psychoanalysis the emergence of feminist thought and a philosophy of sexual difference the renewal of the critical theory tradition and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory

The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 8, From Formalism to Poststructuralism George Alexander Kennedy, Raman Selden, 1989 Volume 8 of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism deals with the most influential and hotly debated areas of literary theory those developing in Europe but having their main impact in the Anglo American world of academic literary studies whose course they have fundamentally redirected The structuralism poststructuralism Russian formalism semiotics narratology hermeneutics phenomenology reception theory and speech act theory associated with European writers including Barthes Todorov Derrida and Iser are here described in the context of their original development but with an eye also to their eventual influence and the volume includes a reflective chapter by Richard Rorty on deconstruction Incorporating full bibliographies this volume engages systematically with the history of the twentieth century's most profound and extensive set of cross cultural intellectual movements

Modern British and Irish Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2006-04-21 Modern British and Irish Criticism and Theory offers the student and general reader a comprehensive critically informed overview of the development of literary and cultural studies from the nineteenth century to the present day Beginning with Coleridge and Arnold examining the contribution of cultural commentators and novelists and considering the institutionalisation of literary criticism in the universities of England Ireland Scotland and Wales the book addresses in detailed accessible and rigorous essays the rise and significance of literary and cultural studies Nearly thirty essays contribute to an understanding of the practice of literary studies presenting the reader with a perceptive series of critical interventions which themselves engage in the very locations from which criticism and theory have emerged A further reading list accompanies each chapter

The Material Family Julie Tarrant, 2012-12-30 The Material Family is a bold new reading of the family focusing on new or post nuclear flexible family forms such as gay family divorce extended family and transnational family Reading across a range of texts from high theory to literature and popular films the book crosses disciplinary boundaries to offer a highly innovative and dynamic approach to changes in gender and other family relations Unlike most books in the fields of cultural and family studies The Material Family provides an historical and materialist argument connecting the changes within family to underlying shifts in material labor relations in global capitalism The post nuclear family is not only an affective space Tarrant argues but one whose affects are themselves fundamentally shaped by class The Material Family is a must read for anyone who wants to venture beyond the surfaces of family life to the deeper lying relations that have made the family and its new forms among the most important spaces of social life Its readers will include not only students and researchers in the fields of education cultural theory and cultural studies women s studies sociology and anthropology but also general readers interested in understanding contemporary families and their struggles

Explorations in Cultural History T. G. Ashplant, Gerry Smyth, 2001-03-20 History is an invention in the present as much as a representation and interpretation of the past This has opened up innovative approaches to the research and writing of history and it is the two ideas central to this theme that culture is historically conditioned and history culturally conditioned that this book explores Both theoretical and practical in its approach this volume explains the development of cultural history and its impact on current teaching Part One examines the ways in which conceptions of historical meaning have been challenged via developments in a range of disciplines including literary and linguistic theory history sociology anthropology media and cultural studies Part Two looks at four case studies drawn from America and Britain the Vietnam Veterans Memorial the music of the Beatles the social documentary of George Orwell and the political polemics of nineteenth century British radical women

Making Sense of New Testament Theology A K M Adam, 2005-01-07 Critics have tried to revitalize the discipline of New Testament theology The results of their labors are often disappointing A K M Adam suggests the problems many sense in New Testament theology arise from a mismatch of method and goals That mismatch stems from a preoccupation with modernity as resident in the hallowed halls of regnant historical criticism We need a hermeneutics of theology a hermeneutics of hermeneutics Adam here helps us understand what to keep of the historical critical perspective

when the realization hits that we have been sold a bill of goods that no longer makes good on its promises In that sense Adam's book is far more friendly to the historical critical method as such than unfriendly editor's preface

The History of Continental Philosophy Alan D. Schrift, 2013-04-12 From Kant to Kierkegaard from Hegel to Heidegger continental philosophers have indelibly shaped the trajectory of Western thought since the eighteenth century Although much has been written about these monumental thinkers students and scholars lack a definitive guide to the entire scope of the continental tradition The most comprehensive reference work to date this eight volume History of Continental Philosophy will both encapsulate the subject and reorient our understanding of it Beginning with an overview of Kant's philosophy and its initial reception the History traces the evolution of continental philosophy through major figures as well as movements such as existentialism phenomenology hermeneutics and poststructuralism The final volume outlines the current state of the field bringing the work of both historical and modern thinkers to bear on such contemporary topics as feminism globalization and the environment Throughout the volumes examine important philosophical figures and developments in their historical political and cultural contexts The first reference of its kind A History of Continental Philosophy has been written and edited by internationally recognized experts with a commitment to explaining complex thinkers texts and movements in rigorous yet jargon free essays suitable for both undergraduates and seasoned specialists These volumes also elucidate ongoing debates about the nature of continental and analytic philosophy surveying the distinctive sometimes overlapping characteristics and approaches of each tradition Featuring helpful overviews of major topics and plotting road maps to their underlying contexts A History of Continental Philosophy is destined to be the resource of first and last resort for students and scholars alike

A Companion to the Philosophy of History and Historiography Aviezer Tucker, 2011-06-28 A COMPANION TO THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY AND HISTORIOGRAPHY The philosophy of historiography examines our representations and knowledge of the past the relation between evidence inference explanation and narrative Do we possess knowledge of the past Do we just have probable beliefs about the past or is historiography a piece of convincing fiction The philosophy of history is the direct philosophical examination of history whether it is necessary or contingent whether it has a direction or whether it is coincidental and if it has a direction what it is and how and why it is unfolding The fifty entries in this Companion cover the main issues in the philosophies of historiography and history including natural history and the practices of historians Written by an international and multi disciplinary group of experts these clearly written entries present a cutting edge updated picture of current research in the philosophies of historiography and history This Companion will be of interest to philosophers historians natural historians and social scientists

Postmodernism and History Willie Thompson, 2017-03-14 In this clear jargon free guide Willie Thompson provides a concise introduction to postmodernist theory and its significant impact on the study of history Although this is a hotly debated topic with much of the current literature being both polemical and inaccessible to the beginner Thompson offers straightforward explanations of complex concepts and shows how the debates are relevant to students own work Postmodernism and History Considers the origins of postmodernism in both the ideas of poststructuralist thinkers particularly Michel Foucault and the political and cultural developments of the late 20th century Explores themes such as the treatment of historical evidence problems of historical representation feminist history ethical judgements on past events and the validity of metanarrative or long term historical explanation Discusses critically the work of a number of current and recent practicing historians including Joan Scott Roy Porter Patrick Joyce and James Vernon who have used postmodernist ideas in their writing Enquires how far postmodern thought has been absorbed into mainstream historiography Nietzsche's French Legacy Alan Schrift,2014-03-18 More than any other figure Friedrich Nietzsche is cited as the philosopher who anticipates and previews the philosophical themes that have dominated French theory since structuralism Informed by the latest developments in both contemporary French philosophy and Nietzsche scholarship Alan Schrift s Nietzsche s French Legacy provides a detailed examination and analysis of the way the French have appropriated Nietzsche in developing their own critical projects Using Nietzsche s thought as a springboard this study makes accessible the ideas of some of the most important and difficult of contemporary French poststructuralist theorists including Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Michel Foucault and Helene Cixous Through a careful analysis and close reading of the texts of Nietzsche and French poststructuralism Schrift illuminates the ways in which Nietzsche s thought prefigures certain poststructuralist motifs He demonstrates how several dominant themes in contemporary French philosophy emerge out of Nietzsche s own thinking As one of the first books to critically examine the work of the new French anti Nietzschean s Schrift defends the value of poststructuralism and Nietzsche as critical resources for confronting the present From Cannibals to Radicals Roger Célestin,1996 The objective to this study is essentially to arrive at a view of exoticism as a relation between Western Self and exotic Other that is fluctuatingly tenuous or strong depending on the narrating subject s position vis a vis a point of departure and return that I have alternately called Home Center and audience Rereading the Conquest James Krippner-Martínez,2010-11-01 Combining social history with literary criticism James Krippner Mart nez shows how a historiographically sensitive rereading of contemporaneous documents concerning the sixteenth century Spanish conquest and evangelization of Michoac n and of later writings using them can challenge traditional celebratory interpretations of missionary activity in early colonial Mexico The book offers a fresh look at religion politics and the writing of history by employing a poststructuralist method that engages the exclusions as well as the content of the historical record The moments of doubt contradiction and ambiguity thereby uncovered lead to deconstructing a coherent conquest narrative that continues to resonate in our present age Part I The Politics of Conquest deals with primary sources compiled from 1521 to 1565 Krippner Mart nez here examines the execution of Cazonci the indigenous ruler of Michoac n as recounted in the trial record produced by his executioners explores the missionary Indian encounter as revealed in the Relaci n de Michoac n and assesses the writings of Michoac n s first bishop the legendary Vasco de Quiroga and their complex interplay of authoritarian paternalism and reformist hope Part II Reflections looks at how the memory of these historical figures is represented in later eras A key text for this discussion is the Crónica de Michoacán written in the late eighteenth century by the Franciscan intellectual Pablo de Beaumont Krippner Martínez concludes with a critique of the debate that initiated his investigation the controversy between Latin Americans and Europeans over the colonialist legacy beginning with the Latin American Bishops Conference in 1992

Contemporary American Women Writers Lois Parkinson Zamora, 2017-09-29 This collection brings together critical essays that examine questions of identity and community in the fiction of contemporary American women writers among them Alice Walker Toni Morrison and Sandra Cisneros The essays consider how identities and societies are dramatized in particular works of fiction and how these works reflect cultural communities outside the fictional frame often the communities in which their authors live and work The essays included here concern fictional representations of African American Latino Asian American Native American Anglo and Euro American communities and their working interactions in the multicultural United States Each critic asks in his or her own way how a particular writer transforms her social grounding into language and literature The introduction includes an overview of the range of literary criticism devoted to contemporary American women writers and an extensive bibliography of complementary critical readings is provided to encourage further study Undergraduate and postgraduate students of contemporary literature will find the text an invaluable guide to contemporary women's writing in America and the range of criticism that this has given rise to

New Curriculum History, 2019-02-11 Rereading the historical record indicates that it is no longer so easy to argue that history is simply prior to its forms Since the mid 1990s a new wave of research has formed around wider debates in the humanities and social sciences such as decentering the subject new analytics of power reconsideration of one dimensional time and three dimensional space attention to beyond archival sources alterity Otherness the invisible and more In addition broader and contradictory impulses around the question of the nation transnational post national proto national and neo national movements have unearthed a new series of problematics and focused scholarly attention on traveling discourses national imaginaries and less formal processes of socialization bonding and subjectification New Curriculum History challenges prior occlusions in the field building upon and departing from previous waves of scholarship extending the focus beyond the insularity of public schooling the traditional framework of the self contained nation state and the psychology of the schooled individual Drawing on global studies historical sociology postcolonial studies critical race theory visual culture theory disability studies psychoanalytics Cambridge school structuralisms poststructuralisms and infra and transnational approaches the volume holds together not despite but because of differences and incommensurabilities in rereading historical records Latin American Literature

Bernard McGuirk, 2013-12-19 Critical theory meets Latin American fiction in this bold and challenging analysis of literature and literary criticism through post structuralist analysis Focusing on Latin American literary and critical production from the 1890s to the 1990s Bernard McGuirk highlights the confrontation between theory politics and literature The range of literatures discussed is extensive including writings from Argentina Brazil Chile Guatemala Mexico Nicaragua and Peru The symptomatic differences between and within cultures are illuminated by analysis of texts by such authors as César Vallejo Jorge Luis Borges Rubén Darío Pablo Neruda Julio Cortázar João Guimarães Rosa Susana Théron Carlos Fuentes Bernard McGuirk holds the Chair of Romance Literatures and Literary Theory at the University of Nottingham He is currently President of the Association of Hispanists of Great Britain and Ireland

Deconstructing History Alun Munslow, 2006

Surveying the latest research this welcome second edition of Alun Munslow's successful Deconstructing History provides an excellent introduction to the debates and issues of postmodernist history This new edition has been updated and revised and along with the original discussion material and topics now assesses the claims of history as a form of truthful explanation discusses the limits of conventional historical thinking and practice and the responses of the new empiricists to the book's central arguments examines the arrival of experimental history and its implications clarifies the utility of addressing Michael Foucault and Hayden White and strengthens the analysis of Frank R Ankersmit's recent work Along with an updated glossary and a revised bibliography this second edition will not only live up to its predecessor's reputation but will surpass it as the most essential student resource for studying history and its practice
