Postcolonial Imaginings An Introduction

Andrew Smith, William Hughes

Postcolonial Imaginings An Introduction:

Postcolonial Imaginings David Punter, 2000 This deeply engaging historically and culturally informed book provides new perspectives on a wide range of writers and at the same time provides a radically new development of many of the most pertinent issues in the field of postcolonial writing and theory It constitutes a major new engagement between the postcolonial and a conception of the literary that is richly innovative in its deployment of psychoanalytic deconstructive and other approaches to the text The book begins with some brief background to the issue of decolonization and its contemporary effects It is informed throughout by a clear sense of literary and political context within which chosen texts by well known writers Derek Walcott Chinua Achebe Edward Kamau Brathwaite as well as less well known ones Joan Riley Susan Power Abdulrazak Gurnah and writers not often seen in a postcolonial context James Kelman Seamus Deane Hanif Kureishi can be situated The chapters that follow are based around themes such as violent geographics hallucination dream and the exotic mourning and melancholy diaspora and exile delocalization and the alibi This profoundly new approach to the complexities of the postcolonial allows the reader to appreciate some of the richness but at the same time the political and cultural ambivalence which underlies postcolonial writing Throughout the book David Punter continually questions as one would expect from his many previous books the definition and scope of the postcolonial It is seen throughout as a phenomenon not restricted to the ex or neo colonies but as a key characterisation of all our lives at the beginning of the twenty first century It is an indissoluble part of the development of national imaginings and at the same time an alibi for the emergence of a violently assertive new world order committed to the management and obliteration of difference By juxtaposing texts from different cultural traditions and topographies from Things Fall Apart to The Bone People from Anot The Postcolonial Novel Richard Lane, 2006-07-21 Richard Lane explores the themes surrounding the postcolonial novel written in English

Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology Pui-lan Kwok, 2005-01-01 The burgeoning field of postcolonial studies argues that most theology has been formed in dominant cultures laden intrinsically with imperializing structures An essential task facing theology is thus to decolonize the mind and free Christianity from colonizing bias and structures Here in this truly groundbreaking study highly respected feminist theologian Kwok Pui lan offers the first full length theological treatment of what it means to do postcolonial feminist theology She explains her methodological basis and explores several specific topics including Christology pluralism and creation

Postcolonial Imaginations and Moral Representations in African Literature and Culture Chielozona Eze, 2011-12-16 The postcolonial African culture as it is discoursed in the academia is largely influenced by Africa's response to colonialism To the degree that it is a response it is to considerably reactive and lacks forceful moral incentives for social critical consciousness and nation building Quite on the contrary it allows especially African political leaders to luxuriate in the delusions of moral rectitude imploring at will the evil of imperialism as a buffer to their disregard of their people This book acknowledges the social and psychological devastations of colonialism on the African world It however argues that the totality of African intellectual response to colonialism and Western imperialism is equally if not more damaging to the African world In what ways does the average African leader indeed the average African judge and respond to his world How does he conceive of his responsibility towards his community and society The most obvious impact of African response to colonialism is the implicit search for a pristine innocent paradigm in for instance literary philosophical social political and gender studies This search has its own moral implication in the sense that it makes the taking of responsibility on individual and social level highly difficult Focusing on the moral impact of responses to colonialism in Africa and the African Diaspora this book analyzes the various manifestations of delusions of moral innocence that has held the African leadership from the onerous task of bearing responsibility for their countries it argues that one of the ways to recast the African leaders responsibility towards Africa is to let go on the one hand the gaze of the West and on the other of the search for the innocent African experience and cultures Relying on the insights of thinkers such as Frantz Fanon Wole Soyinka Kwame Anthony Appiah Achille Mbembe and Wolfgang Iser this book suggests new approaches to interpreting African experiences It discusses select African works of fiction as a paradigm for new interpretations of African experiences European Peripheries in the Postcolonial Literary Imagination Janine Hauthal, Anna-Leena Toivanen, 2024-10-18 This book explores the meanings of European peripheries in postcolonial literary imagination While colonial discourses have constructed Europe as the centre the continent is internally divided into centres and peripheries Approaching the question of European peripherality in a variety of geographical and linguistic contexts and across national and diasporic literary traditions of postcolonial writing the contributions in this volume attest to the entangled and relational character of the centre periphery nexus Acknowledging the unbalanced power structures between centres and peripheries the volume sets out to challenge conventional ideas about peripheries and places European peripheral loci at the centre of postcolonial literary inquiry The chapters in the volume draw on diverse theoretical and conceptual frameworks in order to address among others the link between peripherality and provincialism the relations between intra European and colonial peripheries and the progressive potential of European peripheries as postcolonial spaces The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Postcolonial Writing Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature Gina Wisker, 2006-11-14 Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature provides an overview of the main themes issues and critical perspectives that have had the greatest effect on postcolonial literatures Discussing historical cultural and contextual background it contains selected work of some of the major writers from this period Imagining the Postcolonial Jaime Hanneken, 2015-04-27 Imagining the Postcolonial is the first book dedicated to comparative analysis of Latin American and francophone postcolonial identity Jaime Hanneken examines the disciplinary theoretical and political stakes involved in postcolonial identification in non anglophone cultural spheres through readings of Jos Lezama Lima and douard Glissant s poetics of place the symbolic value of Paris in modernista writing and in Congolese Soci t s des

Ambianceurs et Personnes l gantes sape rituals and the scandals surrounding Rigoberta Mench and Yambo Ouologuem

Hanneken argues that reorienting comparative critique to the priority of the object of study can transform rather than replicate existing conceptual formats of postcoloniality

Postcolonial Settings in the Fiction of James Clarence Mangan, Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu and Bram Stoker Richard Jorge, 2023-10-09 This book explores how three Anglo Irish writers J C Mangan J S Le Fanu and Bram Stoker use settings in their short fictions to recreate depict and confront Ireland s colonial situation in the nineteenth century This study provides an innovative approach by targeting a genre the short story which has not been explored in its entirety certainly not within nineteenth century Ireland much less using a postcolonial approach to the short story Added to this is the fact that it analyses how these writers used settings as an anticolonial tool To do so the book is divided into two major sections an analysis of Irish settings and non Irish ones It works on the premise that all three writers used the idea of displacement to target colonialism and its effects on Irish society In short this book addresses a gap in scholarship as the Irish Gothic short story as a decolonizing tool has not been sufficiently and globally studied EcoGothic Andrew Smith, William Hughes, 2015-11-01 This book will provide the first study of how the Gothic engages with ecocritical ideas Ecocriticism has frequently explored images of environmental catastrophe the wilderness the idea of home constructions of nature and images of the post apocalypse images which are also central to a certain type of Gothic literature By exploring the relationship between the ecocritical aspects of the Gothic and the Gothic elements of the ecocritical this book provides a new way of looking at both the Gothic and ecocriticism Writers discussed include Ann Radcliffe Mary Shelley Ambrose Bierce Algernon Blackwood Margaret Atwood Cormac McCarthy Dan Simmons and Rana Dasgupta The volume thus explores writing and film across various national contexts including Britain America and Canada as well as giving due consideration to how such issues might be discussed within a global context Imagining Manila Tom Sykes, 2021-04-08 The city of Manila is uniquely significant to Philippine Southeast Asian and world history It played a key role in the rise of Western colonial mercantilism in Asia the extinction of the Spanish Empire and the ascendancy of the USA to global imperial hegemony amongst other events This book examines British and American writing on the city situating these representations within scholarship on empire orientalism and US Asian and European political history Through analysis of novels memoirs travelogues and journalism written about Manila by Westerners since the early eighteenth century Tom Sykes builds a picture of Western attitudes towards the city and the wider Philippines and the mechanics by which these came to dominate the discourse This study uncovers to what extent Western literary tropes and representational models have informed understandings of the Philippines in the West and elsewhere and the types of counter narrative which have emerged in the Philippines in response to them The Palgrave Handbook of the Southern Gothic Susan Castillo Street, Charles L. Crow, 2016-07-26 This book examines Southern Gothic a term that describes some of the finest works of the American Imagination But what do Southern and Gothic mean and how are they related Traditionally seen as drawing on the tragedy of slavery and loss Southern Gothic is now a richer more complex subject Thirty five distinguished scholars explore the Southern Gothic under the categories of Poe and his Legacy Space and Place Race Gender and Sexuality and Monsters and Voodoo The essays examine slavery and the laws that supported it and stories of slaves who rebelled and those who escaped Also present are the often neglected issues of the Native American presence in the South socioeconomic class the distinctions among the several regions of the South same sex relationships and norms of gendered behaviour This handbook covers not only iconic figures of Southern literature but also other less well known writers and examines gothic imagery in film and in contemporary television programmes such as True Blood and True Detective Imagining Asia Emily

Stokes-Rees,2019-07-23 Despite widespread recognition that we are living in an era of mass globalization there has been a startling resurgence of nationalism in many regions of the world Alongside this development many new national museums are being built or refurbished pointing to the critical role the telling of history plays in processes of building national identity From new museum construction to the re purposing of colonial monuments and from essentialized narratives to spaces which encourage visitors to dream this book explores the development and influence of national museums in three contemporary Asian societies Singapore Hong Kong and Macau Culture, Education, and Community J. Lavia,S.

Mahlomaholo,2012-04-14 Provides a critical space in which to interrogate the ways in which postcolonial voices are imagined and struggle to be valued heard and responded to Takes the imagination of the postcolonial as its focus acknowledging that it is a troubling unsettling and ambiguous concept requiring re visiting and re interpretation Mediated Geographies and Geographies of Media Susan P. Mains,Julie Cupples,Chris Lukinbeal,2015-10-12 This is the first comprehensive volume to explore and engage with current trends in Geographies of Media research It reviews how conceptualizations of mediated geographies have evolved Followed by an examination of diverse media contexts and locales the book illustrates key issues through the integration of theoretical and empirical case studies and reflects on the future challenges and opportunities faced by scholars in this field The contributions by an international team of experts in the field address theoretical perspectives on mediated geographies methodological challenges and opportunities posed by geographies of media the role and significance of different media forms and organizations in relation to socio spatial relations the dynamism of media in local global relations and in depth case studies of mediated locales Given the theoretical and methodological diversity of this book it will provide an important reference for geographers and other interdisciplinary scholars working in cultural and media studies researchers in environmental studies sociology visual anthropology new technologies and political science who seek to understand and explore the interconnections of media space and place through the examples of specific practices and settings Transnational and Postcolonial Vampires T. Khair,2012-11-14 Throughout the ages vampires have transgressed the borders of gender race class propriety and nations This collection examines the vampire as a postcolonial and transnational phenomenon that maps the fear of the Other the ravenous hunger of Empires and the transcultural rifts and intercultural common grounds that make up global society today Imagining Hinduism Sharada Sugirtharajah,2004-02-24 Imagining Hinduism is an indispensable guide to an immensely significant new understanding of the Hindu faith that it exists largely as a construct of the Western imagination Postcolonialism Michael Chapman,2009-03-26 This collection poses two overarching questions Is there a role for the literary imagination in postcolonial studies And where might one locate South Africa or more generally South African perspectives in a field delineated primarily by northern institutional purposes and practices While engaging with contemporary debates the essays seek to turn current postcolonial emphases on theoretical formulations and issue driven interpretation towards the subjective experience of literary texts in specific contexts The Introduction Postcolonialism A Literary Turn suggests a template of late postcolonialism beyond empires writing back to the centre Instead ongoing challenges include settler identity past and present independent or compromised African diasporic voices the character of the postcolony in which the pre modern modern and postmodern contest a single though heterogeneous place or space and the voicing of the silent subaltern alongside the postcolonialising of Nobel laureates Nadine Gordimer and J M Coetzee Despite the utopian political pronouncements of many postcolonial projects the West s own undoing this collection wishes to stimulate us students academics to see afresh and comparatively across worlds In this a literary turn may achieve an ethical dimension
