Sullivan Andrew Sant and Sujay Sood Postcolonial Encounters in International Relations Alina Sajed,2013-07-18 Postcolonial Encounters in International Relations examines the social and cultural aspects of the political violence that underpinned the French colonial project in the Maghreb and the multi layered postcolonial realities that ensued This book explores the reality of the lives of North African migrants in postcolonial France with a particular focus on their access to political entitlements such as citizenship and rights This reality is complicated even further by complex practices of memory undertaken by Franco Maghrebian intellectuals who negotiate in their writings between the violent memory of the French colonial project in the Maghreb and the contemporary conundrums of postcolonial migration The book pursues thus the politics of post colonial memory by tracing its representations in literary political and visual narratives belonging to various Franco Maghrebian intellectuals who see themselves as living and writing between France and the Maghreb By adopting a postcolonial perspective a perspective quite marginal in International Relations the book investigates a different international relations which emerges via narratives of migration A postcolonial standpoint is instrumental in understanding the relations between class gender and race which interrogate and reflect more generally on the shared post colonial violence between North Africa and France and on the politics of mediating violence through complex practices of memory

Refashioning Futures David Scott,1999-05-30 How can we best forge a theoretical practice that directly addresses the struggles of once colonized countries many of which face the collapse of both state and society in today s era of economic reform David Scott argues that recent cultural theories aimed at deconstructing Western representations of the non West have been successful to a point but that changing realities in these countries require a new approach In Refashioning Futures he proposes a strategic practice of criticism that brings the political more clearly into view in areas of the world where the very coherence of a secular modern project can no longer be taken for granted Through a series of linked essays on culture and politics in his native Jamaica and in Sri Lanka the site of his long scholarly involvement Scott examines the ways in which modernity inserted itself into and altered the lives of the colonized The institutional procedures encoded in these modern postcolonial states and their legal systems come under scrutiny as do our contemporary languages of the political Scott demonstrates that modern concepts of political representation community rights justice obligation and the common good do not apply universally and require reconsideration His ultimate goal is to describe the modern colonial past in a way that enables us to appreciate more deeply the contours of our historical present and that enlarges the possibility of Contemporary Postcolonial Theory Padmini Mongia, 2021-01-07 There is a crisis in contemporary reshaping it postcolonial theory while an enormous body of challenging research has been produced under its auspices severely critical questions about the validity and usefulness of this theory have also been raised This Reader is positioned at the juncture where it can address these contestations It makes available some of the classics of the field engages with the issues raised by contemporary practitioners but also offers several of the arguments that strongly critique postcolonial theory Although postcolonial theory purports to be inter disciplinary and frequently anti foundationalist traces of disciplinary formations and linearity have continued to haunt its articulations This Reader on the other hand offers a uniquely inter disciplinary mapping It is concerned with three main areas definitional problems and contests including the current challenges to postcolonial theory the disciplining of knowledge where the multiple resonances of the word disciplining are all engaged and the location of practice where the relations between intellectual practice and historical conditions are explored Finally since the guiding principle of this Reader is simultaneous attention to the enabling and constraining mechanisms of historical realities and institutional practices the commentary problematizes the writing of histories the formations of canons and indeed the production of Readers Communicating Social Change Mohan J. Dutta, 2011-05-10 Communicating Social Change Structure Culture and Agency explores the use of communication to transform global national and local structures of power that create and sustain oppressive conditions Author Mohan J Dutta describes the social challenges that exist in current globalization politics and examines the communicative processes strategies and tactics through which social change interventions are constituted in response to the challenges Using empirical evidence and case studies he documents the ways through which those in power create conditions at the margins and he provides a theoretical base for discussing the ways in which these positions of power are resisted through communication processes strategies and tactics. The interplay of power and control with resistance is woven through each of the chapters in the book This exceptional volume highlights the points of intersection between the theory and praxis of social change communication creating theoretical entry points for the praxis of social change It is intended for communication scholars and students studying activism social movements and communication for social change and it will also resonate in such disciplines such as development sociology and social work with those who are studying social transformations A Companion to Western Historical Thought Lloyd Kramer, Sarah Maza,2008-04-15 This broad survey introduces readers to the major themes figures traditions and theories in Western historical thought tracing its evolution from biblical times to the present Surveys the evolution of historical thought in the WesternWorld from biblical times to the present day Provides students with the background to contemporaryhistorical debates and approaches Serves as a useful reference for researchers andteachers Includes chapters by 24 leading historians

The Postcolonial Aura Arif Dirlik,2019-09-13 The essays in this volume range from questions of cultural self representation in China to more general problems of reconceptualizing global relationships in response to contemporary changes Although the new era of global capitalism calls for the remapping of global relations such remapping must be informed both by a grasp of contemporary structu Colonialism Melvin E. Page,2003-09-16 The most exhaustive reference work available on this critical subject in world history focusing on the politics economy culture and society of both colonizers and colonized The history of the last 500 years is the history of imperialism writes editor Melvin Page In the Americas as a result of imperialist conquest disease famine and war nearly wiped out a population estimated in the tens of millions Africa was devastated by the slave trade an integral part of imperialism from the 1400s to the 1800s In Asia even though native populations survived native political institutions were destroyed Imperialism also forged the two most important ideologies of the last five centuries racialism and modern nationalism In more than 600 essays presented in this three volume encyclopedia Page and other leading scholars historians political scientists economists and sociologists analyze the origins of imperialism the many forms it took and its impact worldwide They also explore imperialism's bitter legacy the gross inequities of global wealth and power that divide the former conquerors primarily Europe the United States and Japan from the people they conquered Postcolonial Literatures in English Anke Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2019-04-27 The term postcolonial literatures in English designates English language literatures from Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania as well as the literatures of diasporic communities who have moved from those regions to the global north This volume introduces the central themes of postcolonial literary studies and delineates how these themes are reflected and elaborated in exemplary literary works by postcolonial authors from around the world It also offers succinct definitions of key terms like Orientalism hybridity Indigeneity or writing back Postmodernity's Histories Arif Dirlik, 2000-10-18 Challenges to the conventional study of history have been raised by the recent paradigm of globalization and by new intellectual transformations linked to postmodernism and postcolonialism In this book the noted historian Arif Dirlik argues for a new approach to the practice of historical research Moving beyond mere critique he synthesizes traditional historical methods with new approaches that emphasize historical memory indigenous writing place based history and the dual processes of integration and fragmentation in a globalized world Sparta Stephen Hodkinson, 2009-12-31 Both in antiquity and in modern scholarship classical Sparta has typically been viewed as an exceptional society different in many respects from other Greek city states This view has recently come under challenge from revisionist historians led by Stephen Hodkinson This is the first book devoted explicitly to this lively historical controversy Historians from Britain Europe and the USA present different sides of the argument using a variety of comparative approaches The focus includes kingship and hegemonic structures education and commensality religious institutions and practice helotage and ethnography The volume concludes with a wide ranging debate between Hodkinson and Mogens Herman Hansen Director of the Copenhagen Polis Centre on the overall question of whether Sparta was a normal or an exceptional polis Embedded Enterprise and Social Capital Simon Leonard, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 The concept of embeddedness refers to the social construction of inter firm relationships and the enmeshing of economic relationships within broader social structures and relationships in particular places Previous research has suggested embedding is the best way to generate local growth and social capital and has focused on SMEs in Europe and North America although the existing model is being more widely adopted now This volume is the first to examine the complex processes of embedding in this wider context Bringing together a broad range of case studies from the developed and developing world which address the nature of embeddedness from various perspectives it not only questions the universality of the current model and the policy initiatives it has spawned but also provides a much wider understanding of embeddedness It does so by discussing the social dimensions more fully and by throwing light on the spatial and temporal ambiguity of the concept and its inadequate treatment of power DangerousLiaisons Anne McClintock, Aamir Mufti, Ella Shohat, 1997 The first collection to emphasize the complex interaction between gender and postcoloniality Most people in the world from Africa to Asia and beyond live in the aftermath of colonialism Their day to day lives are defined by their past history as colonized peoples often in ways that are subtle or hard to define In Dangerous Liaisons eminent contributors address the issues raised by the postcolonial condition considering nationhood history gender and identity from an inter disciplinary perspective Among the questions they address are What are the boundaries of race and ethnicity in a diasporic world How have women been so effectively excluded from national power What have been the historical aftermaths of different forms of colonialism What are the cultural and political consequences of colonial partitions of the nation state Representing an essential intervention Dangerous Liaisons is a crucial guidebook for those concerned with understanding postcoloniality at the moment when it is becoming more and more widely discussed

Anti-Colonialism and Education ,2006-01-01 There is a rich intellectual history to the development of anti colonial thought and practice In discussing the politics of knowledge production this collection borrows from and builds upon this intellectual traditional to offer understandings of the macro political processes and structures of education delivery e g social organization of knowledge culture pedagogy and resistant politics. The contributors raise key issues regarding the contestation of knowledge as well as the role of cultural and social values in understanding the way power shapes everyday relations of politics and subjectivity. In reframing anti colonial thought and practice this book reclaims the power of critical oppositional discourse and theory for educational transformation. Anti Colonialism and Education The Politics of Resistance includes some the most current theorizing around anti colonial practice written specifically for this collection Each of the essays extends the terrain of the discussion of what constitutes anti colonialism. Among the many discursive highlights is the interrogation of the politics of embodied knowing the theoretical distinctions and connections between anti colonial thought and post colonial theory and the identification of the particular lessons of anti colonial theory for critical educational practice Essays explore such key issues as the challenge of articulating anti colonial thought as an epistemology of the colonized anchored in the indigenous sense of collective and common colonial consciousness the conceptualization of power configurations embedded in ideas cultures and histories of marginalized communities the understanding of indigeneity as pedagogical practice and the pursuit of agency resistance and subjective politics through anti colonial learning
