Postcolonial Studies And Beyond:

Postcolonial Studies and Beyond Ania Loomba, 2005 This interdisciplinary volume attempts to expand the temporal and geographic agenda of postcolonial studies

Postcolonial Studies And Beyond Ania Loomba, Suvir Kaul, Antoinette Burton, Et Al. (eds), 2005-01-01

Postcolonial Studies And Beyond Ania Loomba, Suvir Kaul, Matti Bunzl, Antoinette Burton And Jed Esty, The Future of Postcolonial Studies Chantal Zabus, 2014-11-20 The Future of Postcolonial Studies celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Empire Writes Back by the now famous troika Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths and Helen Tiffin When The Empire Writes Back first appeared in 1989 it put postcolonial cultures and their post invasion narratives on the map This vibrant collection of fifteen chapters by both established and emerging scholars taps into this early mapping while merging these concerns with present trends which have been grouped as comparing converting greening post queering and utopia The postcolonial is a centrifugal force that continues to energize globalization transnational diaspora area and queer studies Spanning the colonial period from the 1860s to the present The Future of Postcolonial Studies ventures into other postcolonies outside of the Anglophone purview In reassessing the nation state language race religion sexuality the environment and the very idea of the future this volume reasserts the notion that postcolonial is an anticipatory discourse and bears testimony to the driving energy and thus the future of postcolonial studies

Postcolonial Studies Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2025-01-22 Now in its fourth edition this popular A Z guide provides a comprehensive overview of the issues which characterize postcolonialism explaining what it is where it is encountered and the crucial part it plays in debates about race gender politics language and identity Fully revised and updated the fourth edition contains more than 30 new entries including Anthropocene Biopolitics Decoloniality Ecocriticism Global South Postcolonial sciences Transnationalism With substantial updates to the further reading Postcolonial Studies The Key Concepts remains an essential guide for anyone studying this vibrant field

Eighteenth-Century British Literature and Postcolonial Studies Suvir Kaul, 2009-02-25 This book convincingly challenges both the extremely short historical memory of most postcolonial work and the all too insularly English world still conjured by period specialists Hogarthian whores and Grub Street hacks coffee houses and fashionable pastimes and the burgeoning of print culture all stand revealed as intimately bound to portents of plantation insurgency agitation for abolition and the vast fortunes produced by the labouring bodies of the poor the colonized and the enslaved Eighteenth century studies has never appeared in a more engaged and fascinating light Professor Donna Landry University of Kent In this volume Suvir Kaul addresses the relations between literary culture English commercial and colonial expansion and the making of Great Britain in the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries He argues that literary writing played a crucial role in generating the vocabulary of British nationalism both in inter national terms and in attempts to realign political and cultural relations between England Scotland and Ireland The formal innovations and practices characteristic of eighteenth century English literature were often responses to the worlds brought into view by travel writers merchants and colonists Writers even those suspicious of mercantile and colonial expansion worked with a growing sense of a national literature whose achievements would provide the cultural capital adequate to global imperial power and would distinguish Great Britain for its twin success in arms and arts The book ranges from Davenant s theatre to Smollet s Roderick Random to Phillis Wheatley s poetry to trace the impact of empire on literary creativity

Key Features An introduction to the impact of mercantilism and empire on the crafting of eighteenth century British literature Encourages students to examine the key formal innovations that define eighteenth century British literary history as they were produced by writers who redefined

Postcolonial Studies Meets Media Studies Kai Merten, Lucia Krämer, 2016-04-15 The book brings together experts from Media and Communication Studies with Postcolonial Studies scholars to illustrate how the two fields may challenge and enrich each other Its essays introduce readers to selected topics including Media Convergence Transcultural Subjectivity Hegemony Piracy and Media History and Colonialism Drawing on examples from film literature music TV and the internet the contributors investigate the transnational dimensions in today s media engage with local and global media politics and discuss media outlets as economic agents thus illustrating mechanisms of power in postcolonial and neo colonial mediascapes

Beyond the Postcolonial E. Dawson Varughese, 2012-08-21 With the backdrop of new global powers this volume interrogates the state of writing in English Strongly interdisciplinary it challenges the prevailing orthodoxy of postcolonial literary theory An insistence on fieldwork and linguistics makes this book scene changing in its approach to understanding and reading emerging literature in English

The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies Graham Huggan, 2013-09-12 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies provides a comprehensive overview of the latest scholarship in postcolonial studies while also considering possible future developments in the field Original chapters written by a worldwide team of contributors are organised into five cross referenced sections The Imperial Past The Colonial Present Theory and Practice Across the Disciplines and Across the World The chapters offer both country specific and comparative approaches to current issues offering a wide range of new and interesting perspectives The Handbook reflects the increasingly multidisciplinary nature of postcolonial studies and reiterates its continuing relevance to the study of both the colonial past in its multiple manifestations and the contemporary globalized world Taken together these essays the dialogues they pursue and the editorial comments that surround them constitute nothing less than a blueprint for the future of a much contested but intellectually vibrant and politically engaged field

Bourdieu and Postcolonial Studies Raphael Dalleo, 2016 The collected essays demonstrate the ways postcolonial studies has adapted Bourdieu s sociology of literature to examine the institutions that structure the creation dissemination and reception of world literature the foundational values of postcolonialism as a field and its sometimes ambivalent relationship to the popular and the ways concepts like habitus cultural capital consecration and anamnesis can be deployed in reading postcolonial texts

Pre-occupation of Postcolonial Studies Fawzia Afzal-Khan, Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks, 2000 The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies contains essays by both leading figures and younger scholars engaged in the field of postcolonial studies In this state of the field reader editors Fawzia Afzal Khan and Kalpana Seshadri Crooks have created a dynamic forum for contributors from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary vantage points to question both the limits and the limitations of postcolonial thought Since it burst on the academic scene as the hot new disciplinary field during the final decade of the twentieth century postcolonial studies has faced criticism from those who question its troubling trajectories its sometimes suspect epistemological and pedagogical methods and its relatively narrow focus With diverse essays that emerge from such disciplines as South Asian Latin American Arab and Jewish studies this volume responds to skeptics and adherers alike addressing not only the broad theoretical issues at stake within the field but also the position of the field itself within the academy as well as its relationship to modern postmodern and Marxist discourses Contributors offer critiques on ahistorical and universalizing tendencies in postcolonial work and confront the need for scholars to attend to issues of class ideology and the effects of neocolonial practices Seeking to broaden the field's traditionally literary spectrum of methodologies these essayists take up large thematic issues to examine specific sites of colonial activities with all of their historical political and cultural significance Closing the volume is an insightful interview with Homi Bhabha in which he discusses postcolonial studies in the context of contemporary cultural politics and theory The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies not only offers an overview of the discipline but also pushes and pulls at the edges of postcolonial studies offering a comprehensive view of the field's diversity of thought and envisioning clear pathways for its future Contributors Fawzia Afzal Khan Ali Behdad Homi Bhabha Daniel Boyarin Neil Larsen Saree Makdisi Joseph Massad Walter D. Mignolo Hamid Naficy Ngugi Wa Thiong'o Timothy B. Powell R. Radhakrishnan Bruce Robbins Kalpana Seshadri Crooks Ella Shohat Rajeswari Sunder Rajan Colonialism and Beyond Eva Bischoff, Elisabeth Engel, 2013 In order to study the history of colonialism and its legacy from the perspective of the early 21st century we have to think beyond old spatial and disciplinary boundaries Starting from this insight the essays in this volume explore the roles that race and migration played in the formation of trans national spaces and identities They investigate topics such as citizenship sovereignty and racialized bodies as well as transnational patterns of political activism and belonging migration the biopolitics of whiteness and the history of humanitarian NGOs As a result this book makes an important contribution to ongoing debates about the current location of postcolonial studies Series Periplus Studien Vol 17

The Postcolonial Low Countries Elleke Boehmer, Sarah De Mul, 2012-06-01 The Postcolonial Low Countries is the first book to bring together critical and comparative approaches to the emergent field of neerlandophone postcolonial studies The collection of essays ranges across the cultures and literatures of the Netherlands and Belgium and establishes an encounter between postcolonial theoretical discourses from both within and without the region Each one of the contributions puts under pressure the definitive concepts of postcolonial studies in its more conventional anglophone or francophone formation as well as perceptions of the Low Countries Belgium and the Netherlands as lying outside or to the side of the postcolonial domain In the Low Countries local and regional issues concerning multiculturalism and colonial belatedness have raised important questions about the possible grounds on which postcolonial critical concepts might be not only translated but also generated afresh to suit these paradoxically new contexts As The Postcolonial Low Countries incisively demonstrates the Low Countries demand a careful rearticulation of such postcolonial readymades as hybridity accommodation and creolization Gathering together contributions from both internationally renowned scholars and newly established researchers in the field The Postcolonial Low Countries maps previously underexplored national and transnational literary critical trajectories The book challenges in boundary shifting ways current readings of the so described multicultural and postcolonial Netherlands and Belgium

Beyond the Slave Narrative Deborah Jensen, 2012-01-01 The Haitian Revolution has generated responses from commentators in fields ranging from philosophy to historiography to twentieth century literary and artistic studies But what about the written work produced at the time by Haitians This book is the first to present an account of a specifically Haitian literary tradition in the Revolutionary era Beyond the Slave Narrative shows the emergence of two strands of textual innovation both evolving from the new revolutionary consciousness the remarkable political texts produced by Haitian revolutionary leaders Toussaint Louverture and Jean Jacques Dessalines and popular Creole poetry from anonymous courtesans in Saint Domingue s libertine culture These textual forms though they differ from each other both demonstrate the increasing cultural autonomy and literary voice of non white populations in the colony at the time of revolution Unschooled generals and courtesans long presented as voiceless are at last revealed to be legitimate speakers and authors These Haitian French and Creole texts have been neglected as a foundation of Afro diasporic literature by former slaves in the Atlantic world for two reasons because they do not fit the generic criteria of the slave narrative which is rooted in the autobiographical experience of enslavement and because they are mediated texts relayed to the print cultural Atlantic domain not by the speakers themselves but by secretaries or refugee colonists These texts challenge how we think about authorial voice writing print culture and cultural autonomy in the context of the formerly enslaved and demand that we reassess our historical understanding of the Haitian Independence and its relationship to an international world of contemporary readers Interpreting Beyond Borders Fernando F. Segovia, 2000-04-01 This book addresses a fundamental reality of our time the great movement of people for a variety of reasons within and across countries and cultures From this migration has emerged the diasporic intellectual the state of dislocation and displacement has become a vantage point for reflection and interpretation The same is true of theological studies in general and biblical criticism in particular In this masterly treatment Fernando Segovia focuses on the emerging transborder biblical interpreters from the Two Thirds World now residing and working in the West both in the United States and in Europe and examines their multiple identities He also explores how this state of in betweenness and homesickness affects influences and informs biblical interpretation

Beyond Britain Lars Jensen, 2014-09-18 Is Stuart Hall a Cultural Studies Scholar or a Postcolonial Scholar Or is it better to engage with his work as an intellectual of both fields Postwar Britain witnessed the concurrent evolution of two new intellectual movements which have since become institutionalized as two major academic fields of enquiry Cultural Studies and Postcolonial Studies Although both fields are enormously diverse they have developed a parallel focus around the place of individuals in terms of race ethnicity class and gender Beyond Britain offers a history of the major ideas that have shaped the evolution of a shared space of inquiry in British Cultural Studies and Postcolonial Studies It uses the work of Stuart Hall a figure uniquely well positioned in both fields to offer a rich cultural historical study of the evolution of both movements It argues that the questions which both movements have continued to preoccupy themselves are as relevant today as they were when they first originated which was also a moment of challenging a conformist exclusivist and self sufficient nation's view of itself Post-Colonial Approaches in Kazakhstan and Beyond Dina Sharipova, Alima Bissenova, Aziz

Burkhanov, 2024-02-28 This book explores the postcolonial discourse and decolonization processes in modern Kazakhstan and beyond It pays particular attention to such areas as national and religious identity language literature and historical narratives Despite the fact that the post colonial theory initially emerged in other regions of the world it has increasingly been applied in the scholarship on Central Asia Exploring recent debates on post coloniality in Kazakhstan this book is an attempt to bring together two bodies of scholarly literature scholarship on culture and society in post Soviet Central Asia and research on post colonial theory This volume will be of interest to scholars of Eurasian studies as well as researchers and students of post colonialism in various contexts beyond Eurasia Beyond Descriptive Translation Studies Anthony

Pym, Miriam Shlesinger, Daniel Simeoni, 2008 To go beyond the work of a leading intellectual is rarely an unambiguous tribute However when Gideon Toury founded Descriptive Translation Studies as a research based discipline he laid down precisely that intellectual challenge not just to describe translation but to explain it through reference to wider relations That call offers at once a common base an open and multidirectional ambition and many good reasons for unambiguous tribute The authors brought together in this volume include key players in Translation Studies who have responded to Toury's challenge in one way or another Their diverse contributions address issues such as the sociology of translators contemporary changes in intercultural relations the fundamental problem of defining translations the nature of explanation and case studies including pseudotranslation in Renaissance Italy Sherlock Holmes in Turkey and the coffee and sugar economy in Brazil All acknowledge Translation Studies as a research based space for conceptual coherence and creativity all seek to explain as well as describe In this sense we believe that Toury's call has been answered beyond expectations Ireland and Postcolonial Studies Eóin Flannery, 2009-08-21 A pioneering study of the development of one of the key critical discourses in contemporary Irish studies this book covers all the major figures publications and debates within Irish postcolonial criticism delivering a commentary on this diverse body of work as well as positioning Irish postcolonial criticism within the wider postcolonial field
