Sampanikou, 2017-05-11 This volume deals with the challenges posthumanism meets as a successor to postmodernism in the field of artistic literary and aesthetic expression It also explores the ways social sciences and humanities are affected by posthumanism and it asks how posthumanism can be an expansion of humanism in the contemporary world rather than a transcendence of humanism The chapters authors come from different countries cultural backgrounds and study areas to present a varied perspective on posthumanism Art and Posthumanism Cary Wolfe, 2021-12-28 A sustained engagement between contemporary art and philosophy relating to our place in and responsibility to the nonhuman world How do contemporary art and theory contemplate the problem of the bio of biopolitics and bioart How do they understand the question of life that binds human and nonhuman worlds in their shared travail In Art and Posthumanism Cary Wolfe argues for the reconceptualization of nature in art and theory to turn the idea of the relationship between the human and the planet upside down Wolfe explores a wide range of contemporary artworks from Sue

Coe's illustrations of animals in factory farms and Eduardo Kac's bioart to the famous performance pieces of Joseph Bueys and the video installations of Eija Liisa Ahtila among others examining how posthumanist theory can illuminate and be illuminated by artists' engagement with the more than human world. Looking at biological and social systems, the question of the animal and biopolitics. Art and Posthumanism explores how contemporary art rivets our attention on the empirically thick, emotionally charged questions of life and the living amid ecological catastrophe. One of the foremost theorists of posthumanism, Wolfe, pushes that philosophy out of the realm of the purely theoretical to show how a posthumanist engagement with particular works and their conceptual underpinnings help to develop more potent ethical and political commitments.

Posthumanism in Practice Christine Daigle, Matthew Hayler, 2023-01-12. Problematic assumptions which see humans as special and easily defined as standing apart from animals, plants, and microbiota both consciously and unconsciously underpin scientific investigation, arts practice, curation, education, and research across the social sciences and humanities. This is the case particularly in those traditions emerging from European and Enlightenment philosophies. Posthumanism disrupts these traditional humanist outlooks and interrogates their profound shaping of how we see ourselves, our place in the world, and our role in its protection. In Posthumanism in Practice, artists, researchers, educators, and curators set out how they have developed and responded to posthumanist ideas across their work in the arts, sciences, and humanities, and provide examples and insights to support the exploration of posthumanism in how we can think, create, and live. In capturing these ideas, Posthumanism in Practice shows how posthumanist thought can move beyond theory, inform action, and produce new artefacts, effects, and methods that are more relevant and more useful for the incoming realities for all life in the 21st century.

The Art of Being Posthuman Francesca Ferrando, 2023-11-28. This book offers a comprehensive reflection on the existential condition of the 21st century. A visionary introduction to existential posthumanism, it takes the form of eight meditations. This posthuman journey of self-inquiry engages with a wide range of knowledge and wisdom from the Paleolithic times to the futures of radical life extension, from multi-species evolutions to the rights of Nature, the Anthropocene, and the rise of Artificial Intelligence. The book declutters the habit of being human, letting go of the need for anthropocentric mastery and species-specific ambitions; the reader emerges regenerated. The manifold paths of posthuman self-realization reveal that we are all co-creators in the existential unfolding; our lives are our ultimate works of art. The Art of Being Posthuman is a self-help guide to navigate our brave new world. You can listen to Dr Ferrando talk about the book's key themes in these videos: 1 Introduction and 2 Conclusion.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Posthumanism Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, Jacob Wamberg, 2020-07-23. As our ideas of the human have come under increasing challenges from technological change, from medical advances, from the existential threat of climate crisis, from an ideological decentering of the human, amongst many other things, the posthuman has become an increasingly central topic in the Humanities. Bringing together leading scholars from across the world and a wide range of disciplines, this is the most comprehensive available survey of cutting-edge
