Postmodernism And The New Enlightenment:

Postmodernism and the New Enlightenment Hugo Anthony Meynell, 1999 In this provocative book Hugo A Meynell sets out to describe what is known about postmodernism He criticizes its defects calls attention to its dangers and outlines a new way of thinking which combines postmodernism's best features with those of the Enlightenment to which it is so vehemently opposed

Postmodernism and the Enlightenment Daniel Gordon, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Succeeding Postmodernism Mary K. Holland, 2013-04-25 While critics collect around the question of what comes after postmodernism this book asks something different about recent American fiction what if we are seeing not the end of postmodernism but its belated success Succeeding Postmodernism examines how novels by DeLillo Wallace Danielewski Foer and others conceptualize threats to individuals and communities posed by a poststructural culture of mediation and simulation and possible ways of resisting the disaffected solipsism bred by that culture Ultimately it finds that twenty first century American fiction sets aside the postmodern problem of how language does or does not mean in order to raise the reassuringly retro question of what it can and does mean it finds that novels today offer language as solution to the problem of language Thus it suggests a new way of reading antihumanist late postmodern fiction and a framework for understanding postmodern and twenty first century fiction as participating in a long and newly enlivened tradition of humanism and realism in literature

Ecclesiology and Postmodernity Gerard Mannion, 2017-01-13 What in the world is postmodernity Is it the dominant reality today If it is what does it mean to be a church in a postmodern world It seems that the church had a difficult time coming to terms with a modern world an era ruled by the claims of scientific certainty Having done so more or less it is now confronted by the claims of postmodernity which seem to reverse the whole

equation to say that certainty and objectivity are chimeras What is truth Pilate asked and postmodernity at least as caricatured by its opponents responds There s no such thing Gerard Mannion in Ecclesiology and Postmodernity addresses the situation of the church in a postmodern world The fundamental changes in human society and culture wrought by the twentieth century require the church to consider its response in the twenty first century What is the church s moral Vision how does its practice look what is the nature of its aspiration toward holiness in our times Mannion believes that since Vatican II the Catholic Church has been in a kind of limbo awaiting a Vision of its own life for the future Rather than focusing on specific controversies Mannion offers concrete suggestions about how the church can create a better harmony between its own self understanding its ecclesiological Vision and its day to day life its ecclesial practice Gerard Mannion PhD educated at King s College Cambridge University and New College Oxford University is Associate Professor of Ecclesiology and Ethics in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at Liverpool Hope University UK He is also the director of Church In Our Times Centre for the Study of Contemporary Ecclesiology co director of the Applied Ethics Initiative at Liverpool Hope co chair of the AAR American Academy of Religion Ecclesiological Investigations Program Unit and co ordinator of the Ecclesiological Investigations International Research Network Mannion is the author of Schopenhauer Religion and Morality and co editor of Readings in Church Authority Gifts and Challenges for Contemporary Catholicism both published by Ashgate in 2003 and co editor of the forthcoming volumes The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church and Catholic Social Justice Theological and Practical Explorations

Understanding Postmodernism Stewart E. Kelly, 2017-12-05 Most introductions to postmodernism are either wholly negative or wholly positive Stewart Kelly and James Dew present a balanced introduction and assessment of postmodernism that corrects misunderstandings and examines its shortcomings This is a clear accessible text for Christian students of philosophy

God, the Gift, and Postmodernism John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 1999-12-22 Pushing past the constraints of postmodernism which cast reason and religion in opposition God the Gift and Postmodernism seizes the opportunity to question the authority of the modern and open the limits of possible experience including the call to religious experience as a new millennium approaches Jacques Derrida the father of deconstruction engages with Jean Luc Marion and other religious philosophers to entertain questions about intention givenness and possibility which reveal the extent to which deconstruction is structured like religion New interpretations of Kant Heidegger Husserl and Derrida emerge from essays and discussions with distinguished philosophers and theologians from the United States and Europe The result is that God the Gift and Postmodernism elaborates a radical phenomenology that stretches the limits of its possibility and explores areas where philosophy and religion have become increasingly and surprisingly convergent Contributors include John D Caputo John Dominic Crossan Jacques Derrida Robert Dodaro Richard Kearney Jean Luc Marion Frangoise Meltzer Michael J Scanlon Mark C Taylor David Tracy Merold Westphal and Edith Wyschogrod

that the doctrinal form of the Christian faith in its essential characteristics calls for certain theoretical exigencies This is to say that the proportion and beauty of the form is not served or illuminated by simply any presuppositions Rather a determinate understanding of first philosophy of the nature of truth of hermeneutical theory of the predication of language and mutual correlation is required if Christian faith and doctrine are to maintain a recognizable and suitably mediative form Failing to adduce specific principles will lead either to a simple assertion of Christian truth in which case the form of Christianity becomes less intelligible and attractive or one will substitute a radically changed form which is itself inappropriate for displaying the fundamental revelatory narrative of faith The house of Christian faith possesses a certain proportion of structure the form will sag badly if one removes an undergirding item or if one beam is replaced with another of variable shape or size The form s beauty will either be obscured no longer clearly visible or the form will become something quite different no longer architectonically related to what was originally the case The intention of this book is to discuss those doctrinal characteristics considered fundamental to the Christian faith as protective of its revelatory form and concomitantly to examine the theoretical principles required if such form is to remain both intelligible and beautiful

Editors,2024-07-25 As the Year 2024 has already passed half I sincerely hope and pray for world peace and for people to live and work in peace But looking ahead I believe the future will still not be peaceful The Russian Ukrainian war is still raging and the people are suffering The Israeli Hamas conflict seems to have no signs of stopping and the US election is surging As I said before the three major divisions facing the world are presented at the same time this year the Russian Ukrainian war is a major division between the democratic and dictatorial camps the US election is a major left right division and the Israeli Hamas conflict has surpassed the left right division and the democracy dictatorship division Is the world heading for doomsday We wait and see     Whither China? Xudong Zhang,2002-03-28 Chinese cultural and intellectual politics waned after the Tiananmen Square incident This volume explores their revitalization in the 1990s     World History and the Eonic Effect John C. Landon,2010-04-27 At a time when theories of evolution are undergoing renewed controversy the study of the Eonic Effect can break the deadlock by looking at world history in the light of evolution The assumption that evolution occurs at random is the crux of the dispute and one confused with issues of religion and secularism We can detect a non random pattern in the record of civilization itself to see evolution in action on a stupendous scale We live in the first generations with enough data to detect this phenomenon In the confusion of evolutionary theories the unexpected discovery of deep level structure can allow us to deconstruct fl at history and assess claims of directionality in evolution In the process the theory of natural selection applied to human evolution is seen to fail a photo finish test The book provides a new model for the study of the overlap of history and evolution and a critique of current views of the descent of man     Supplanting the Postmodern David Rudrum,Nicholas Stavris,2015-09-24 For more than a decade now a steadily growing chorus of voices has announced that the postmodern literature art thought and culture of the late 20th century have come to an end At the same time as this the early years of the 21st century have seen a stream of critical formulations proclaiming a successor to postmodernism Intriguing and exciting new terms such as remodernism performatism hypermodernism automodernism renewalism altermodernism digimodernism and metamodernism have been coined proposed and debated as terms for what comes after the postmodern Supplanting the Postmodern is the first anthology to collect the key writings in these debates in one place The book is divided into two parts the first The Sense of an Ending presents a range of positions in the debate around the demise of the postmodern the second Coming to Terms with the New presents representative writings from the new isms mentioned above Each of the entries is prefaced by a brief introduction by the editors in which they outline its central ideas point out the similarities and or differences from other positions found in the anthology and suggest possible strengths and limitations to the insights presented in each piece     Out of the Shtetl Nancy Sinkoff,2003     The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church Gerard Mannion,Lewis S. Mudge,2007-12-12 Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues     Derrida and the Future of the Liberal Arts Mary Caputi,Vincent J. Del Casino, Jr.,2013-04-11 Derrida and the Future of the Liberal Arts highlights the Derridean assertion that the university must exist without condition as a bastion of intellectual freedom and oppositional activity whose job it is to question mainstream society

Derrida argued that only if the life of the mind is kept free from excessive corporate influence and political control can we be certain that the basic tenets of democracy are being respected within the very societies that claim to defend democratic principles. This collection contains eleven essays drawn from international scholars working in both the humanities and social sciences and makes a well grounded and comprehensive case for the importance of Derridean thought within the liberal arts today. Written by specialists in the fields of philosophy literature history sociology geography political science animal studies and gender studies each essay traces deconstruction's contribution to their discipline explaining how it helps keep alive the unconditional contrapuntal mission of the university. The book offers a forceful and persuasive corrective to the current assault on the liberal arts.

Postmodernism and China

Xudong Zhang, Arif Dirlik, 2000-10-27. This work maps the terrain of the postmodern in China.

Popular Music, Gender and Postmodernism

Neil Nehring, 1997-03-20. The migration of cynical academic ideas about postmodernism into music journalism are traced in this book. The result of this migration is a widespread fatalism over the ability of the music industry to absorb any expression of defiance in popular music. The book synthesizes a number of fields: American and British academic and journalistic music criticism aesthetic and literary history and theory from romanticism through postmodernism alternative music such as feminist punk and grunge political economy which has fueled the obsession with commercial incorporation and subcultural sociology.

Beyond Evangelicalism

Steven Knowles, 2016-12-05. A prolific author and thinker Stanley J Grenz was a respected and influential figure not only within evangelicalism but in the wider theological world. Amongst the many issues tackled by him it is perhaps his revisioning of evangelical theology in the light of the postmodern challenge that has caused the biggest stir in the theological world. Advocating a nonfoundationalist methodology Grenz attempts to re position evangelical theology in line with postmodern concerns. This work examines the main traits of postmodern thought that would seem to directly challenge how evangelical theology is traditionally done. An examination of the seminal influences on Grenz will be traced in order to understand more fully the position he takes. A rigorous critique and assessment of his theological methodology will follow with the conclusion that his work goes beyond evangelicalism. This will be the first book length treatment on Grenz's work on theological methodology and therefore will break new ground in this important area of study.
