President's Message:

The Hayward campus has a different look. With the widely publicized implosion of Warren Hall, another major change has come to the campus. If you did not see the actual implosion, you were able to see it over and over on local television stations and you might have seen it on national news on the CBS Morning Show. People tailgated, lined all the streets on the hill and met at K-Mart. The crowd was larger than at any sports event or commencement. Guess that is what the public wants. And so it goes.

Our members liked the Asian Buffet at the summer meeting and your ever-vigilant Board decided to go there again. For $20 you get all you can eat (from a great variety of dishes, including desserts.) This covers wine, food, gift to the speaker (gift certificate to the Castro Valley Library Bookstore), $100 donation to the ERFA Library Endowment in the award winner's name.

Our speaker at the October 29 luncheon will be Jane Lopus, Professor of Economics Emerita and former Professor of the Year. Her topic will be "Teaching Market-Based Economics to Former Communists--Lesson Learned."

Bill Vandenburg has moved to Oregon and resigned from the Board. John Giles and Jodie Servatius have accepted invitations to join the Board along with our Senator Jane Lopus.

ERFA has contributed another $500 to our endowment and the fund has reached almost $25,000. This is a major accomplishment.

Hope to see you on October 29.
