

Western Balkan - Regional Overview

- Currently Greece, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and Serbia are transit countries for migrants and refugees trying to re-enter the Schengen area in Hungary.
- Due to the construction of the fence in the Hungarian southern border with Serbia, migrants/refugees may seek alternative routes: for example from Albania to Italy or through Croatia to the Schengen area.

ECHO involvement

- ECHO is releasing €1.5 million in humanitarian funding to assist refugees and migrants in Serbia and the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia. The aid will support humanitarian partners in helping with the provision of basic emergency services (water, hygiene, health care, winterisation and basic protection).
- ECHO has granted over €30 000 in EU humanitarian assistance to the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia (on 21/07) and €150 000 to Serbia (on 30/08). The funding went directly to the International Federation of the Red Cross/Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) and the actions will be implemented by the national Red Cross Societies of the two countries.

Potential Crisis And Conflicts In The Western Balkans:

Security Community Practices in the Western Balkans Sonja Stojanović Gajić, Filip Ejduš, 2018-07-04 In the early 1990s the Western Balkans were the scene of prolonged and bloody inter ethnic wars Numerous issues remain unresolved Bosnia is a dysfunctional state Kosovo a disputed territory Macedonia a fragile republic however it is hard now to imagine the renewal of inter state armed conflict Investigating the causes and mechanisms driving peaceful transformation in the Balkans this book examines developments in the region and contributes to discussions on security community building Focusing on how different professional communities work together in the creation of regional peace and security it sheds new light on how diplomats policemen soldiers and others brought about the transformation from conflict to peace through their everyday practices Conducted collaboratively by a research community based within the region this volume will be highly relevant to scholars and researchers studying the Balkans regional security security communities and policymakers The European Union as a Mediator in Post-Conflict Western Balkans Violeta Ferati Bakia, 2023-08-22 Attempting to pacify the emergent wars in the 1990s the European Union mediation could not stop the vast destruction and prevent genocide from taking place right next door to the EU the world's biggest peace project In the 21st century the Western Balkans region has again become a subject of testing the EU's new foreign policy instrument mediation This time the EU assumed the role of a post conflict mediator aiming to sustainably resolve the intractable conflicts in the post war setting of the region While its first mediations in the former Yugoslavia were unsuccessful the EU's recent mediation attempts in the post violent stage of the Balkans conflicts have resulted in varied outcomes Introducing a new model this book explains the varying effectiveness of EU mediation in post conflict and analyses the determining conditions of the EU mediation efficiency in post conflict settings The book is among the few publications that shed light on EU mediation utilized as an instrument of conflict resolution that aims to solve protracted conflicts in post conflict settings Western Balkans Policy Review 2010 Janusz Bugajski, 2010 A report of the CSIS Lavrentis Lavrentiadis Chair in Southeast European Studies EU and the Balkans Leila Simona Talani, 2020-12-15 Integration and disintegration are the two poles of the economic political and security discourse in an area the Balkans and Southern Eastern Europe SEE which over the past fifteen years has been the stage of dramatic events Integration and disintegration are the two dimensions of an identity problem that many feel the area can solve by joining the European Union and diffusing its many conflicts in the peaceful waters of Europeanisation However quite apart from the obvious point that the accession process cannot be taken for granted in relation to many of the new Balkan countries integration into the EU can be argued as having been and still being a further catalyst for disintegration This book assesses the extent to which the integration of the Balkans into the EU will either foster or discourage the integration of the area itself as well as the winners and losers under this process The book addresses the topic in a multidisciplinary way The contributions are the result of a fruitful co operation between scholars from the Balkans the UK and the US The book tackles

the issue of the relation between the EU and the Balkans in all its controversial and contradictory dimensions

Conflict Resolution and Global Justice Nikola Tomić, Ben Tonra, 2021-07-09 This book examines how the different normative foundations of conflict resolution held by various global actors their understandings of justice and the differences between types of conflict influence the varying means by which conflicts can be prevented managed and ultimately resolved By combining insights from political theory conflict studies and European Union EU foreign policy studies the book identifies the EU as the key case of a conflict manager that is both a product and a defender of a global liberal order It focuses on three aspects of conflict resolution that pose their own sets of both normative and empirical dilemmas resolving border disputes strengthening the resilience of weak or divided states and societies after regime change and intervention in humanitarian crises Furthermore it offers a comparative analysis between a potentially distinctive European approach and that of other global actors and reflects critically on situations where policy practice may not always reflect a concern for justice asking what countervailing forces prevail and why This book will be of key interest to scholars and students in European and EU Studies Area studies Conflict Resolution War Studies EU Foreign Policy Political Theory International relations as well as policymakers Handbook of Conflict Analysis and Resolution Dennis J.D. 'Balkanization' and the Euro-Atlantic Processes of the (Western) Balkans Liridona Veliu Ashiku, 2024-08-30 This book explores how balkanization as a discourse underpins the policies of the European Union EU and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO toward the Western Balkans It shows how EU and NATO policies have emerged from and led to the constant reinvention of the unity of the West through balkanizing the region and illustrates how this dynamic is maintained by and instrumentalized for the political elites Through a genealogical analysis that stretches from the Balkans Wars to more recent events such as North Macedonia's change of name in 2018 the author shows how Western policies have aimed at recreating the united West on the back of the broken Balkans The book will appeal to scholars and students of Southeast

Europe International Relations Political Science Peace and Conflict Studies and History Internationalized State-Building after Violent Conflict Marc Weller, Stefan Wolff, 2013-10-18 Previously published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics this volume analyzes various dimensions of the internationalized state building process in Bosnia and Herzegovina since 1995 In December 1995 the Dayton Agreements ended the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina and established a fragile peace between the former conflict parties The settlement seemed morally wrong and politically impracticable but still necessary in order to end violence of a scale and intensity not seen in Europe since the end of the Second World War The leading contributors conclude that internationalized state building can only serve well in the stabilization of states emerging from conflict if it draws on a well balanced approach of consociational techniques moderated by integrative policies tempered by a wider regional outlook and sustained by resourceful and skilled international involvement The experience of Bosnia and Herzegovina may not have scored full marks in all of these categories but important lessons can be gleaned for other similar contemporary and future challenges that the international community no doubt will have to face This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international organizations civil wars and ethnic conflicts international law and peace studies EU Foreign Policy and Post-Soviet Conflicts Nicu Popescu, 2010-12-10 This book examines EU intervention and non intervention in conflict resolution with a specific focus on the EU's role in the post soviet conflicts of Moldova Abkhazia and South Ossetia in Georgia and Azerbaijan Responding to Violent Conflicts and Humanitarian Crises Pamela Aall, Dan Snodderly, 2021-01-08 This book introduces the four principal sets of institutions that engage in bringing peace and relief to societies mired in violent conflicts and humanitarian crises the United Nations and other international bodies non governmental organizations civilian government agencies and militaries Because these institutions have distinct goals as well as overlapping mandates and activities on the ground they do not always collaborate effectively due in part to a lack of familiarity with how the other institutions are organized make decisions or act on the ground Despite declining public support for large scale state building missions recently more complex interagency efforts have evolved in partnership with host country governments Numerous third parties continue to undertake peacebuilding stabilization and humanitarian relief measures around the globe This book is intended primarily for those serving in the field but it is also helpful to headquarters personnel and policymakers as well as military and agency trainees and university students The Eu and Its Balkan Entanglements Jan-Henrik Petermann, 2011-11 Essay from the year 2006 in the subject Politics International Politics Topic European Union London School of Economics Department of International Relations language English abstract The Balkan wars of the 1990s and NATO's military intervention in Kosovo at the end of the past decade can be seen as two major catalysts which have triggered various readjustments within the EU's system of foreign policy making Materially the EU has been forced to reshape its relations with the countries of South Eastern Europe but it has also adapted its post Cold War foreign policy tools more generally In terms of overall political strategies the adoption of new security doctrines such as the Petersberg tasks and the implementation of peace building initiatives for the Western Balkans such as the Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe or the joint police mission in Bosnia Herzegovina have been widely acknowledged as both internal and external successes for the EU Institutionally the member states have demonstrated a commitment to reinforce their visibility and influence in world politics by establishing the position of a High Representative for the CFSP a Political and Security Committee PSC and a Policy Planning and Early Warning Unit It was also recognised that restricting CFSP to an adhoc arrangement of informal or reactive policies would not be sufficient if the EU s declared ambition to become a significant international actor was to be taken seriously Still it might well be argued that CFSP experienced a considerable boost only after other actors had criticised the EU s seeming complacency and self limitation to the role of a paymaster in international security affairs Partly as a reaction to the mistakes made between 1991 and 1995 a specifically European approach to preventing and managing security crises appears to have emerged Ultimately the EU has learnt a lot from its Balkan entanglements In this essay I will first trace back mem The Presidentialisation of Political Parties in the Western Balkans Gianluca Passarelli,2018-08-24 This book examines the process of presidentialisation of political parties in the Western Balkans The Western Balkan countries deserve to be analysed in a comparative perspective due to their distinctive features in terms of processes of democratization forms of government and institutional assets the presence of social cleavages religious linguistic ethnic and of course the nature of political parties which differs from other European cases especially in terms of origins organization and structure However Western Balkan political parties do show certain similarities with other West European cases where power is centralised and held by the parties leadership The book ultimately attempts to test whether and to what extent the influence of institutional variables affects the level of presidentialisation of political parties also considering the parties organization features Conference Proceedings Dr Sheetal Sharma & Dr Shruti Singh, The International Conference on Emerging Socio cultural and Political Issues India and Europe is organised by Amity Institute of Social Sciences Amity University Noida Uttar Pradesh in collaboration with Jean Monnet Module and Centre for European Studies Jawaharlal Nehru University on May 24 25 2021 The aim of the conference is to develop an understanding of the dynamics of social change and Development taking place in European and Indian society Both India and Europe are taking firm strides towards cooperation and development specially in the post pandemic era In this context the conference aims in developing on working new path for structuring and building new vision and ideas for strong partnership between the two The main objective of the Conference is to deliver new understanding of various issues ranging from society culture politics and environment It shall look into these issues from a different prism in the post pandemic era Restoring the Eastern Mediterranean as a U.S. Strategic Anchor Jon B. Alterman, Heather A. Conley, Haim Malka, Donatienne Ruy, 2018-06-05 U S strategy in the Eastern Mediterranean is long overdue for revision Today s strategy was conceived 70 years ago and is no longer fit for purpose despite the continued strategic importance of the region for U S interests To account for the dramatic changes that have occurred in the Eastern Mediterranean in the past two decades it is time for the United States to create a new regional strategy that builds on common transatlantic interests ensures European unity and security provides greater stability in the Middle East and safeguards state capacity against a myriad of strengthening nonstate actors This report aims to offer such a new strategy focusing on two priority areas resolving the Syrian conflict and recalibrating the relationship with Turkey Much is at stake for the United States and it must take a new strategic approach to the region or risk losing influence for the foreseeable future Turkey and the Balkans
