Poussin The Holy Family On The Steps Art In Context:

Poussin: The Holy Family on the Steps Howard Hibbard, 1974 Artists' Art in the Renaissance Marilyn Aronberg Lavin, 2006-12-31 Marilyn Aronberg Lavin has taught the history of art at Washington University the University of Maryland Yale Princeton and Universita di Roma La Sapienza Specializing in Italian 13th 16th century painting she is internationally known for her books and articles on Piero della Francesca Her other books include The Place of Narrative Mural Painting in Italian Churches 431 1600 AD and Seventeenth Century Barberini Documents and Inventories of Art both of which were recipients of international prizes for distinguished scholarship She is one of the leaders in the use of computers and digitized imagery for research teaching and publication in the history of art This book offers a series of case studies intended to introduce and define an important class of fifteenth century Italian art not previously recognized It is argued that the paintings and sculptures discussed were created privately by artists for personal satisfaction and internal needs outside the traditional framework of patronage and commercial gain Since there is no direct documentation from this period of a work being privately made the selection presented here is necessarily speculative Instead the essays focus on works by Piero della Francesca Mantegna Michelangelo Bellini and Titian that appear in the artists testaments letters of refusals to sell and inventories showing ownership at the time of death The task at hand is to uncover the motivation and meaning of works of art in which the medieval craftsman began to rise to the status of independent artist and the maker and the viewer confront each other face to face for the first time

The Art of Reception Jacobus Bracker, Ann-Kathrin Hubrich, 2021-03-05 This book deals with processes of reception in visual arts Images in the broadest sense from different cultures and times are examined The volume focuses on two key interpretations of reception On the one hand reception is understood as a concept of repetition and revision spanning different cultures and time periods On the other hand reception is also seen as the process of perceiving images Both ways of understanding can be described by the metaphor of migration of images in the first case images migrate from one medium to another in the second case they migrate from the artefact into the human body The contributions to this volume cover a variety of approaches coming from different disciplines such as Ancient Oriental philology English and American studies classical studies classical archaeology communication studies cultural studies art history aesthetics literature media studies philosophy journalism Romance studies sociology Near Eastern archaeology prehistory and classical studies

Bernini Howard Hibbard, 1990-08-30 Sculptor and architect Bernini was the virtual creator and greatest exponent of Baroque in 17th century Italy He has left his greatest mark on Rome where Papal patronage provided him with enormous architectural commissions

Presence Robert Maniura, 2017-07-05 In about 25 BC tribesmen of the kingdom of Meroe placed a bronze head of Augustus cut from a full length statue beneath the steps of a temple of victory the decapitated head of the Emperor was thus regularly trampled underfoot Two millennia later during the second Gulf War Iraqis insulted a toppled bronze statue of Saddam Hussein by beating it with their shoes Do these chronologically

distant but apparently related examples of the defamation of images imply that the persons represented were regarded by their detractors as in some way present in the images Presence The Inherence of the Prototype within Images and Other Objects reconsiders the notion of presence in objects The first book to address the issue directly it contains a series of case studies covering a broad geographical and chronological range from ancient Greece and the Incas to industrial America and contemporary India as well as examples from the canon of western European art The studies reveal the widespread evidence for this striking form of response and allow readers to see how presence is evoked and either embraced or repressed in differing historical and cultural contexts Featuring a variety of disciplines and approaches the book will be of interest to students of art history art theory visual culture anthropology psychology and philosophy Nicolas Poussin Oskar Bätschmann,1990 Publication coincides with the 400th anniversary of the artist's birth and a forthcoming exhibition The Continuing Dialogue Brian Leslie Bishop,2017-07-20 The I AM statements exclusive to the Fourth Gospel are seen as the attempt of the author's of that Gospel to present the nature and purpose of the earthly life of Jesus by engaging the imaginative faculty of the reader Succeeding generations of artists are considered as undertaking a similar task by engaging in an imaginative dialogue with the text There are five narratives that are peculiar to the Fourth Gospel The Wedding at Cana the Woman of Samaria the Woman Taken in Adultery the Raising of Lazarus and the Washing of Feet Five paintings based upon each narrative are considered in context These are taken from the early fourteenth century Duccio and Giotto to the twentieth and twenty first centuries Max Beckmann and the contemporary Icon writer Constantina Wood A sense of the loss experienced by the western church under the sanctions of the Protestant Reformation against visual imagery is conveyed This leads to a suggestion that a reassertion of the role of the aesthetics of Christian worship might be a unifying factor for a generation jaded by the pedantry that divides the Christian Church The Connoisseur,1974 Nicolas Poussin Anthony Blunt,2023-10-17 A landmark account of the work thought and life of the seventeenth century French painter In this book Anthony Blunt presents a rich account of the paintings life and development of the great seventeenth century French classicist Nicolas Poussin 1594 1665 addressing the artist's entire oeuvre alongside his theory of art Blunt shows why Poussin holds a central place in the great French humanist line that produced Racine Molière Voltaire the Parnassians and Mallarmé At the same time he examines how Poussin looks back to Raphael and ancient Rome while pointing forward to Ingres Cézanne the Cubists and Picasso Nicolas Poussin Hugh Brigstocke,2016-04-01 A French painter and draughtsman active in Italy Nicolas Poussin's supreme achievement as an artist lies in his unrivalled marriage of dramatic narratives and expressions of human passions within a formal harmony of design Focused on the search for a point of equilibrium and synthesis between the forces of the Classical and the Baroque Poussin's work embodied the critical artistic debate in Rome during the 1630s This fully illustrated title explores Poussin's life and work including an analysis of his working methods and technique and delves into both his own writings and the critical reception of his work With the addition of an extensive bibliography discover the grandeur of Poussin's designs with Grove Art Essentials Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1977 Whose Culture? James Cuno, 2012-05-23

 The international controversy over who owns antiquities has pitted museums against archaeologists and source countries where ancient artifacts are found In his book Who Owns Antiquity James Cuno argued that antiquities are the cultural property of humankind not of the countries that lay exclusive claim to them Now in Whose Culture Cuno assembles preeminent museum directors curators and scholars to explain for themselves what's at stake in this struggle and why the museums critics couldn't be more wrong Source countries and archaeologists favor tough cultural property laws restricting the export of antiquities have fought for the return of artifacts from museums worldwide and claim the acquisition of undocumented antiquities encourages looting of archaeological sites In Whose Culture leading figures from universities and museums in the United States and Britain argue that modern nation states have at best a dubious connection with the ancient cultures they claim to represent and that archaeology has been misused by nationalistic identity politics They explain why exhibition is essential to responsible acquisitions why our shared art heritage trumps nationalist agendas why restrictive cultural property laws put antiquities at risk from unstable governments and more Defending the principles of art as the legacy of all humankind and museums as instruments of inquiry and tolerance Whose Culture brings reasoned argument to an issue that for too long has been distorted by politics and emotionalism In addition to the editor the contributors are Kwame Anthony Appiah Sir John Boardman Michael F Brown Derek Gillman Neil MacGregor John Henry Merryman Philippe de Montebello David I Owen and James C Y Watt Monet to Dalí Cleveland Museum of Art, William H. Robinson, Laurence Channing, Barbara J. Bradley, Margaret Burgess, 2007 This first comprehensive presentation of this collection from the Cleveland Museum of Art includes paintings by Monet Degas Renoir Boudin and Manet among other innovative artists of the Impressionist and Post Impressionist period Each painting is presented with descriptions detailing the artist's motifs and context of the work in the Impressionist era The title with its essays and over 100 colour plates provides a thorough focus of the dramatic artistic development of the century between 1850 and 1950 through the remarkable pieces of this collection 100 colour Illustrations Francesco Albani: Albani and his Critics Catherine R. Puglisi, Francesco Albani, 1999-01-01 This is the first full scale study of the artist his career and his key contribution to the 17th century Bolognese school of painting Beginning with an account of Albani's life and artistic development Puglisi focuses attention on his entirely personal landscapes then assesses his crucial role as teacher and transmitter of the Carracci reform The Beauty of God Daniel J. Treier, Mark Husbards, Roger Lundin, 2007-05-18 Editors Mark Husbards Roger Lundin and Daniel J Treier present ten essays that explore a Christian approach to beauty and the arts The visual arts music and literature are considered as well as the theological meaning and place of the arts in a fallen world redeemed by Christ Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1974 "Cuckoldry, Impotence and Adultery in Europe (15th-17th century)" Sara F.
