Poverty Of Structuralism Literature And Structuralist Theory:

The Poverty of Structuralism Leonard Jackson,2014-09-11 The Poverty of Structuralism is the first in a sequence of volumes which examine in turn the basic ideas of Saussure Marx and Freud and analyse the way in which they have been developed and applied to art culture and modern textual theory The text offers a critical introduction to the structuralist foundations of modern literary theory It gives an account of the way such foundations have been developed twisted and distorted to become part of the language that contemporary literary and cultural theoreticians use It also addresses some of the fundamental issues about language and society that are presupposed by the often difficult language of modern literary and cultural theory

Beginning Theory Peter Barry,2002-09-07 In this second edition of Beginning Theory the variety of approaches theorists and technical language is lucidly and expertly unraveled and explained and allows readers to develop their own ideas once first principles have been grasped Expanded and updated from the original edition first published in 1995 Peter Barry has incorporated all of the recent developments in literary theory adding two new chapters covering the emergent Eco criticism and the re emerging Narratology

Post-Theory David Bordwell,Noel Carroll,2012-11 Since the 1970s the academic study of film has been dominated by Structuralist Marxism varieties of cultural theory and the psychoanalytic ideas of Freud and Lacan With Post Theory David Bordwell and Noel Carroll have opened the floor to other voices challenging the prevailing practices of film scholarship Addressing topics as diverse as film scores national film industries and audience response Post Theory offers fresh directions for understanding film

Bodies of Meaning David McNally,2001-01-01 Challenges postmodernist theories of language and politics which detach language from human bodies and their material practices

Pillars in the History of Biblical Interpretation, Volume 1 Stanley E. Porter,Sean A. Adams,2016-08-17 This two volume set is part of a growing body of literature concerned with the history of biblical interpretation The ample introduction first sets key players into the story of the development of the major strands of biblical interpretation since the Enlightenment identifying how different theoretical and methodological approaches are related to each other and describing the academic environment in which they emerged and developed Volume 1 contains fourteen essays on twenty two interpreters who were principally active before 1980 and volume 2 has nineteen essays on twenty seven of those who were active primarily after this date Each chapter provides a brief biography of one or more scholars as well as a detailed description of their major contributions to the field This is followed by an often new application of the scholar s theory By focusing on the individual scholars and their work the book recognizes that interpretive approaches arise out of certain circumstances and that scholars are influenced by and have influences upon both other interpreters and the times in which they live This set is ideal for any class on the history of biblical interpretation and for those who want a greater understanding of how the current field of biblical studies developed

Body of Vision Michael Sinding,2014-02-05 In Body of Vision Michael Sinding connects

Northrop Frye's groundbreaking contributions to our understanding of the human imagination with cognitive poetics the cutting edge school of literary criticism that applies the principles of cognitive science to the interpretation of literary texts and contexts Sinding undertakes this task through analyses of the interplay of metaphoric and narrative schemas in several forms of cultural mythology Sinding identifies the profound connections between cognitive views of language literature and culture and Frye's views by exploring three related aspects of Frye's work meaning and thought culture and society and literary history He investigates these connections through detailed studies of major cultural texts including Dante's Divine Comedy Hobbes Leviathan Rousseau's Social Contract and Milton's Lycidas By linking Frye's classic studies to exciting recent approaches in the humanities and the cognitive revolution of the past few decades Body of Vision casts Frye's achievements in a fascinating new light

Bakhtin Between East and West Karine Zbinden, 2017-12-02 Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 has had an enormous influence on literary studies and cultural theory Bakhtin between East and West Cross Cultural Transmission looks beyond the concepts of carnival and dialogue and traces for the first time the transformation of the Bakhtin Circle's thought from its introduction to the West in Julia Kristeva's seminal late 1960s theory of intertextuality through Tzvetan Todorov's landmark study and on to contemporary interpretations The notion of sociality in all its problematic complexity provides the red thread guiding us through this historical and thematic examination of Western and Russian Bakhtin studies As a critical evaluation of Bakhtin scholarship across various cultures and a celebration of the vigour of the Circle's legacy this is an invaluable resource for scholars and students with an interest in Bakhtin and critical theory

Discipline and Practice Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, 2004 Has theory become resistible Has it betrayed its promise and sold out on its practice Should theory after having become a discipline still lay claims on the radical or should it embrace its establishment within the university What future's could theory have if there is disagreement about its present's and its past's and what and how should it from now proceed to read

Irving's Dialogism in the Alhambra Mohamed Dellal, 2024-12-06 Cross culture and or multiculturalism have become catchwords and phrases in certain studies within academia but they have mostly become battle grounds for contestation and convergence with contestation of identity cultural authenticity and or supremacy and hegemony Yet over and above all these skirmishes convergence tends to win the day as it struggles for a cosmopolitan culture and polity albeit very difficult to achieve The present work follows the same line of thought by trying to bring a new perspective into what it calls cultural dialogism inherent in the corpus of texts borrowed from The Alhambra by W Irving The texts selected display a dual characteristic the first is addressed as organic in the sense that the texts reflect some eight hundred years of natural copulation between Muslim culture brought up by Muslim conquerors to the Andalusian Christendom the second underlines a volition on the part of the author to merge the culture by intruding into the structures of the language and the texts The present work intends to show that these characteristic hybridities transgress the generic boundaries as well as the cultural one producing a brassage breaking the fixity of the boundaries cultural and other causing brisures and sutures This endows the texts with a certain liminality that makes it difficult to authenticate them as belonging to either culture
