Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines Fenella Cannell, 1999-03-18 What kind of reciprocity exists between unequal partners How can a culture which makes no attempt to defend unchanging traditions be understood as such In the Christian Philippines inequalities global and local are negotiated through idioms of persuasion reluctance and pity Fenella Cannell's study suggests that these are the idioms of a culture which does not need to represent itself as immutable Her account of Philippine spirit mediumship Catholicism transvestite beauty contests and marriage in Bicol calls for a reassessment of our understanding of South East Asian modernity Combining a strong theoretical interest in the anthropology of religion with a broader comparative attention to recent developments in South East Asian studies she offers a powerful alternative to existing interpretations of the relationship between culture and tradition in the region and beyond This book addresses not only South East Asianists but all those with an interest in the anthropology of religion and post colonial cultures Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines has won the Harry J Benda prize for 2001

Discerning the Powers in Post-Colonial Africa and Asia Pak Nung Wong, 2016-02-17 Qualifying post Westphalian sovereign statehood as a power as argued for in Hendrik Berkhoff's political theology this book addresses the decades long theological spiritual debate between Christian realism and Christian pacifism in U S foreign policy and global Christian circles It approaches the debate by delving into the pacifist Anabaptist political theology and delineates empirically how sovereign statehood in post colonial Africa and Asia has fallen into the hands of the devil Satan as a fallen power in the Foucaultian terms of power structures techniques and episteme While the book offers intervention schemes and options it holds that Christian statecraft remains the source of hope to effectively address a number of serious global issues By extension the book is thus an invitation to ignite debates on the suitability of Christian statecraft and the nexus between spirituality and world politics making it especially interesting for scholars and students in the fields of International Politics Politics of Asian and African States Post colonial Studies and Political Theology

Eastern Christians in Anthropological Perspective Chris Hann, Hermann Goltz, 2010-05-27 This collection of essays is a welcome and refreshing gift in a virtual desert There has been very little comparative anthropological research on the Eastern churches and this volume will fill that gap Michael Herzfeld author of Evicted from Eternity The Restructuring of Modern Rome At long last there is a book on the anthropology of Christianity that devotes direct and sustained attention to the diverse Eastern Christian Churches both Orthodox and Catholic This book should be read by anyone who thinks anthropologically about Christianity Scales will fall from their eyes and they will behold an entire wing of Christianity that has until now gone mostly unnoticed and practically untheorized Douglas Rogers author of The Old Faith and the Russian Land A Historical Ethnography of Ethics in the Urals

Ethnographies of Development and Globalization in the Philippines Koki Seki, 2020-05-26 The contributors to this volume examine the actual workings and on the ground effects of contemporary political economic shifts in the Global South and implications for reconfiguring social networks conceptions and practices of governance and burgeoning social movements How do various groups in the Global South respond to and manage chronic states of insecurity and precarity concomitant with contemporary globalization processes While drawing on diverse ethnographic viewpoints in the Philippines the authors analyze the impact of these processes through the conceptual framework of emergent sociality a purported connectedness among individuals fostered through interactions copresence and conviviality within a community over a long duration In so doing the case studies in this volume suggest illuminate and debate insecurities that may be commonly shared among populations in the Philippines and throughout the Global South This anthology will be of great interest to students and scholars of cultural anthropology globalization and Philippines society Faith, Family, and Filipino American Community Life Stephen M. Cherry, 2014-01-03 Stephen M Cherry draws upon a rich set of ethnographic and survey data collected over a six year period to explore the roles that Catholicism and family play in shaping Filipino American community life From the planning and construction of community centers to volunteering at health fairs or protesting against abortion this book illustrates the powerful ways these forces structure and animate not only how first generation Filipino Americans think and feel about their community but how they are compelled to engage it over issues deemed important to the sanctity of the family Revealing more than intimate accounts of Filipino American lives Cherry offers a glimpse of the often hidden but vital relationship between religion and community in the lives of new immigrants and allows speculation on the broader impact of Filipino immigration on the nation The Filipino American community is the second largest immigrant community in the United States and the Philippines is the second largest source of Catholic immigration to this country This groundbreaking study outlines how first generation Filipino Americans have the potential to reshape American Catholicism and are already having an impact on American civic life through the engagement of their faith White Love and Other Events in

Filipino History Vicente L. Rafael, 2014-06-18 In this wide ranging cultural and political history of Filipinos and the Philippines Vicente L Rafael examines the period from the onset of U S colonialism in 1898 to the emergence of a Filipino diaspora in the 1990s Self consciously adopting the essay form as a method with which to disrupt epic conceptions of Filipino history Rafael treats in a condensed and concise manner clusters of historical detail and reflections that do not easily fit into a larger whole White Love and Other Events in Filipino History is thus a view of nationalism as an unstable production as Rafael reveals how under what circumstances and with what effects the concept of the nation has been produced and deployed in the Philippines With a focus on the contradictions and ironies that suffuse Filipino history Rafael delineates the multiple ways that colonialism has both inhabited and enabled the nationalist discourse of the present His topics range from the colonial census of 1903 1905 in which a racialized imperial order imposed by the United States came into contact with an emergent revolutionary nationalism to the pleasures and anxieties of nationalist identification as evinced in the rise of the Marcos regime Other essays examine aspects of colonial domesticity through the writings of white women during the first decade of U S rule the uses of photography in ethnology war and portraiture the circulation of rumor during the Japanese occupation of Manila the reproduction of a hierarchy of languages in popular culture and the spectral presence of diasporic Filipino communities within the nation state A critique of both U S imperialism and Filipino nationalism White Love and Other Events in Filipino History creates a sense of epistemological vertigo in the face of former attempts to comprehend and master Filipino identity This volume should become a valuable work for those interested in Southeast Asian studies Asian American studies postcolonial studies and cultural studies

Alpers, Gwyn Campbell, Michael Salman, 2013-09-13 First published in 2004 This book previously published as a special issue of the journal Slavery and Abolition provides pioneering studies on the nature and structure of resistance to forms of bondage in Africa Asia and the Indian Ocean world

Christianity in the Modern World Afe Adogame, Elizabeth Olson, 2016-05-23 What is the state of Christianity today and what might it look like in the future In the West the story for a long time has revolved around decline and the loss of monopoly status but how are these shifts changing the practice of Christianity or individual belief Similarly the rapid growth of Christianities in the Global South has been well reported but the continuing complex intersections of mission Christianity with indigenous religions are less well known Large scale flows of people across increasingly fluid borders mean that not only does immigration sometimes significantly boost Christian numbers in a given country but that different forms of Christianity shift traditional religious landscapes How will emerging trends such as reverse mission from the Global South affect Christianities in areas more used to sending rather than receiving missions As the majority of believers shifts from the West to the Global South how will issues such as homosexuality be played out theologically politically and individually Will new virtual churches manage to create viable long term communities How does new festival Christianity function in the religious life of an individual The divergent and oftentimes contradictory state of Christianity in the modern world fuels questions about its place and future in the world in politics education and healthcare This book brings together cutting edge research on the most recent changes and trends in Christianity worldwide Contributors drawn from the USA UK and Europe Africa and East Asia offer an invaluable breadth of coverage expertise and disciplinary perspective at the intersections between sociology of religion theology politics education and human geography

The Made-Up State Benjamin Hegarty, 2022-12-15 In The Made Up State Benjamin Hegarty contends that waris who compose one of Indonesia's trans feminine populations have cultivated a distinctive way of captivating the affective material and spatial experiences of belonging to a modern public sphere Combining historical and ethnographic research Hegarty traces the participation of warias in visual and bodily technologies ranging from psychiatry and medical transsexuality to photography and feminine beauty The concept of development deployed by the modern Indonesian state relies on naturalizing the binary of male and female As historical brokers between gender as a technological system of classifying human difference and state citizenship warias shaped the contours of modern selfhood even while being positioned as nonconforming within it The Made Up State illuminates warias as part of the social and technological format of state rule which has given rise to new possibilities for seeing and being seen as a citizen in postcolonial Indonesia
