Asian Perspectives on the World's Religions after September 11 Arvind Sharma, Madhu Khanna, 2013-02-15 This book offers a unique perspective on September 11 and our world after this tragic event sharing lessons from an Asian religious experience that can help heal a world troubled by religious conflicts and deepening divisions and promote a positive global transformation Existing literature regarding the events of September 11 and our world afterward has focused mostly on the

West and the Middle East Asian Perspectives on the World's Religions after September 11 extends this discussion to include Asia a continent and culture far too important to be ignored in any assessment of the global impact of this event The book is organized along the following themes as they emerged post September 11th religion and civilizational dialogue religion conflict and peace religion and human rights religion and ethics religion and the arts religion hermeneutics and literature religion and gender religion and ecology and religion and globalization Individuals who are studying or teaching political science international relations philosophy ethics Asian studies or religious studies will find the text invaluable while general readers will appreciate the largely unvoiced Asian perspective on this topic

The Psychologisation of Eastern Spiritual Traditions Elliot Cohen, 2021-09-30 This essential book critically examines the various ways in which Eastern spiritual traditions have been typically stripped of their spiritual roots content and context to be more readily assimilated into secular Western frames of Psychology Beginning with the colonial histories of Empire the author draws from the 1960s Counterculture and the subsequent romanticising and idealising of the East Cohen explores how Hindu Buddhist and Daoist traditions have been gradually transformed into forms of Psychology Psychotherapy and Self Help undergoing processes of modernisation and secularisation until their respective cosmologies had been successfully reinterpreted and reimagined An important component of this psychologisation is the accompanying commodification of Eastern spiritual practices including the mass marketing of mindfulness and meditation as part of the burgeoning well being industry Also presenting emerging voices of resistance from within Eastern spiritual traditions the book ends with a chapter on Transpersonal Psychology showing a path for how to gradually move away from colonisation and towards collaboration Engaging with the mindfulness movement and other practices assimilated by Western culture this is fascinating reading for students and academics in psychology philosophy and religious studies as well as mindfulness practitioners
