Live Stock Journal ,1897

The Lane Light Candee MacQueen,2020-12-23 The blanketed Wyoming sky was getting more threatening as each minute went by Old timers called it a mean snow sky It was a thick smooth low cover of clouds in scary shades of gray Colors that made your heart beat a little faster The forecasters said this was a bad one It was Christmas Eve day The story that was to be played out would begin early in the day with the players being put in place one by one Some were friends and others were complete strangers each assigned their own special reason to be there and each important in His eyes Eventually the one in charge would say action enabling the night to play out as He had intended for His reasons That is if everyone played their parts correctly The old barn was ready The heat coming from the wood stove would keep all warm The old weathered oak planks used for the walls would manage to stay standing and keep the cold out but it would take the faith of each player new faith and old faith to reach the outcome He intended By noon the entrance to the Kahler Ranch had taken on a dreaded lonely appearance as did the main road that ran out front Snow was building up on the crossbar making it hard to read the name of the ranch The trees that Chico had tied up along the fence were taking a beating their limbs sagging from the weight of the snow Steph s red bows struggled to stay in place The only traffic out on the road would be very early on a few cars and trucks attempting to make that last desperate trip to town each one praying that the storm would hold off allowing them the needed time to get safely home People knew time was running out By late afternoon there would be no travelers on the roads Only five special people would find themselves out in the storm and they would share the same destiny to find the Lane Light
