Our Dogs, Ourselves Alexandra Horowitz,2019-09-03 From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of Inside of a Dog and The Year of the Puppy an eye opening informative entertaining and enlightening BookPage celebration of the human canine relationship for the curious dog owner and science lover alike We keep dogs and are kept by them We love dogs and we assume we are loved by them We buy them sweaters toys shoes we are concerned with their social lives their food and their health The story of humans and dogs is thousands of years old but is far from understood In Our Dogs Ourselves Alexandra Horowitz explores all aspects of this unique and complex relationship that dog lovers will savor and absorb Shelf Awareness As Horowitz considers the current culture of dogdom she reveals the odd surprising and contradictory ways we live with dogs We celebrate their individuality but breed them for sameness Despite our deep emotional relationships with dogs legally they are property to be bought sold abandoned or euthanized as we wish Even the way we speak to our dogs is at once perplexing and delightful In thirteen thoughtful and charming chapters Our Dogs Ourselves affirms our profound affection for this most charismatic of animals and makes us see canine companions in new ways Science News

Tracking dogs Roland Berger,2022-04-15 Tracking or Mantrailing in a slightly different form is a useful activity for your dog Actually you do not have to teach him much here because your dog can sniff quite certainly and he also does day after day with every walk So why do you need to train your dog in tracking Well tracking work is a bit more profound You yourself or another person lay a track for your dog to follow But of course not somehow because there are rules for this You can even take certain exams to be able to lead your dog as a recognized tracking or rescue dog For mantrailing similar rules apply but here no artificially laid track is followed by your four legged friend but the dog is trained so that he can follow the scent of a very specific person and thus for example find a missing person The contents of the book are The tracking work The tracking training Difficulties in nature Mantrailing and ID tracking The trail The examination to the recognized tracking dog Learning tips Conclusion Can your dog do it Most definitely there are very few exceptions where this sport should be avoided These will be explained to you in this guide In addition you will learn how to train your tracking dog to be a tracking dog and what you need to do it You will get all the background information you need to take your fdog on the trail Enjoy reading learning and training

Horror Dogs Brian Patrick Duggan, 2023-08-07 How did beloved movie dogs become man killers like Cujo and his cinematic pack mates For the first time here is the fascinating history of canines in horror movies and why our best friends were and are still painted as malevolent Stretching back into Classical mythology treacherous hounds are found only sporadically in art and literature until the appearance of cinema's first horror dog Sherlock Holmes Hound of the Baskervilles The story intensifies through World War II's K 9 Corps to the 1970s animal horror films which broke social taboos about the good dog on screen and deliberately vilified certain breeds sometimes even fluffy lapdogs With behind the scenes insights from writers directors actors and dog trainers here are the flickering hounds of silent films through talkies and Technicolor to the latest computer generated brutes the supernatural rabid laboratory made alien feral and trained killers Cave Canem Beware the Dog or as one seminal film warned They're not pets anymore

Katz on Dogs Jon Katz, 2006-09-26 In a nation where our love of dogs keeps growing and dog ownership has reached an all time high confusion about dogs and their behavioral problems is skyrocketing Many dogs are out of control untrained chewing up furniture taking medication for anxiety and biting millions of people a year Now in this groundbreaking new guide Jon Katz a leading authority on the human canine bond offers a powerful and practical philosophy for living with a dog from the moment we decide to get one to the sad day when one dies Conventional training methods often fail dog owners but Katz argues that we know our dogs better than anyone else possibly could and therefore we are well suited to train them It is imperative he says that we think rationally and responsibly about how we choose train and live with the dogs we love and the more we learn about ourselves the better we can recognize their wonderful animal natures Misinterpreting dogs is a profound obstacle to understanding them Katz believes that both people and dogs are unique a chow differs from a Lab just as a city dweller differs from a farmer and he describes how such individuality isn't addressed by even the best and most popular training methods Not every training theory is for everyone notes Katz but almost anyone can train a dog and live with him comfortably Katz on Dogs is filled with no nonsense advice and answers to such key questions as What kind of dog should I have Is there a specific breed or kind of dog for my personality family or living situation What is the best way to train a dog Can I trust my vet How often and for how long can a dog be left alone Is it preferable to have only one dog or are more better What are the secrets to successful housebreaking What are my dogs thinking if anything How can I walk my dog instead of having her walk me Is it ever okay to give away a dog you love When is it time to put my dog down Katz draws from his own experience his interactions with thousands of dog owners vets breeders dog rescue workers trainers and behaviorists and he has tested his approach with volunteer dog owners around the country Their helpful and often inspiring stories illustrate how all of us can live well with our dogs You can do it Katz contends You can live a loving and harmonious life with your dog
