poems are events of form not just collections of words which shape everyone's lives Poems taught in class are formalizations of the everyday poems we live amidst albeit unknowingly Bourbon resurrects these poems to construct an anthropology of form that centers everyday poems as events or interruptions within our lives Expanding our understanding of what a poem is this book argues that poems be understood as events of form that may depend on words but are not fundamentally constituted by them This line of thought delves into a poem's linguistic particularity to ask what a poem is and how we know By reclaiming arenas previously ceded to essayists and literary writers Bourbon reveals the care and attention necessary to uncovering the intimate relationship between poems life reading and living A philosophical meditation on the nature of poetry but also on the meaning of love and the claim of words upon us Everyday Poetics situates the importance of everyday poems as events in our lives Poems Dante Gabriel Rossetti, 1870 The Poem Electric Seth Perlow, 2018-12-18 An enlightening examination of the relationship between poetry and the information technologies increasingly used to read and write it Many poets and their readers believe poetry helps us escape straightforward logical ways of thinking But what happens when poems confront the extraordinarily rational information technologies that are everywhere in the academy not to mention everyday life Examining a broad array of electronics including the radio telephone tape recorder Cold War era computers and modern day web browsers Seth Perlow considers how these technologies transform poems that we don't normally consider digital From fetishistic attachments to digital images of Emily Dickinson's manuscripts to Jackson Mac Low's appropriation of a huge book of random numbers originally used to design thermonuclear weapons these investigations take Perlow through a revealingly eclectic array of work offering both exciting new voices and reevaluations of poets we thought we knew With close readings of Gertrude Stein Frank O'Hara Amiri Baraka and many others The Poem Electric constructs a distinctive lineage of experimental writers from the 1860s to today Ultimately Perlow mounts an important investigation into how electronic media allows us to distinguish poetic thought from rationalism Posing a necessary challenge to the privilege of information in the digital humanities The Poem Electric develops new ways of reading poetry alongside and against the electronic equipment that is now ubiquitous in our world The Necessity of Wildfire Caitlin Scarano, 2022-04-05 Winner of the Wren Poetry Prize selected by final judge Ada Limón Caitlin Scarano's second full length collection is The Necessity of Wildfire It begins To not harm each other is not enough I want to love you so much that you have no before These poems chase a singular thorny question how does where and who we came from shape who and how we love Judge Ada Limón says the resulting collection is hungry clear eyed tough and generous Though originally from the South Scarano's imagination is galvanized by the Pacific Northwest floods and wildfires the Salish Sea and the North Cascades and the humans and animals whose lives intersect and collide there In this collection Scarano reckons with a legacy of violence on both sides of her family the death of her estranged father the unraveling of two long term relationships the complexity of sexuality and her decision not to have children With fierce lyricality these poems stories without monsters stories without morals resist both redemption and blame yet call in mercy Selected Poems Edward Robert Bulwer Lytton Earl of Lytton, 1894 Samuel Beckett's Poetry James Brophy, William Davies, 2022-12-22 Samuel Beckett's Poetry is the first book length study of Beckett's complete poetry designed for students and scholars of twentieth century poetry and literature as well as for specialists of Beckett's work This volume explores how poetry provided Beckett a medium of expression during key moments in his life from his earliest attempts at securing a reputation as a published writer to the work of restoring his own speech while suffering aphasia shortly before his death Often these were moments of desperation and discouragement when more substantial works were not possible moments of illness of personal loss or of public disaster This volume includes an introduction that contextualizes Beckett as a poet and a chronology of the composition and publication of all his known poems Essays offer a range of critical perspectives from translation theory war poetics and Irish Studies to Beckett's debts to Modernism Romanticism and the Jazz Age The Letters of Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov Robert Edward Duncan, Robert J. Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names Summertime Reading List: 180 Books You Need to Read (Vol.II) Robert Louis Stevenson, Henrik Ibsen, Charles Dickens, Leo Tolstoy, Ford Madox Ford, E.
