Networks of Design Jonathan Glynne, Fiona Hackney, Minton, Viv, 2010-06 Networks of Design maps a new methodological territory in design studies conceived as a field of interdisciplinary inquiry and practice informed by a range of responses to actor network theory It brings together a rich body of current work by researchers in the social sciences technology material culture cultural geography information technology and systems design and design theory and history This collection will be invaluable to students and researchers in many areas of design studies and to design practitioners receptive to new and challenging notions of what constitutes the design process Over ninety essays are thematically organised to address five aspects of the expanded notions of mediation agency and collaboration posited by network theory Ideas Things Technology Texts and People The collection also includes an important new essay on rethinking the concept of design by Bruno Latour one of the most influential figures in the philosophy and sociology of science and technology and a pioneer of actor network theory and essays deriving from forum discussions involving designers and designer makers responsive to actor network theory Rather than an anthology of previously published essays Networks of Design presents work in progress on design theory and its applications It is the outcome of a live and vigorous debate on the possibilities and actualities offered by actor network led conceptualisations of the relationships and processes constituting design All the essays many collaborative derive from papers presented at the international conference of the Design History Society held at University College Falmouth UK in the Autumn of 2008

Art Schools and Place Silvie Jacobi, 2020-06-15 Art education has a definite impact on artists sense of place and their spatial relations Exploring where and why artists choose to locate is the first step in describing an art scene ethnographically This research considers coming to and going through art school as a crucial inter subjective learning environment Artists learn not just to engage with place through spatial and relational practices but gain a sense of mobility and transnational flows in a globalized art world This book is the first time the art school has been studied this way in the nascent field of art geography blending the tool kits of human geography and urban studies This is timely against the backdrop of worldwide university closures of physical space and cost intensive fine art courses as a triumph of managerialism and business case over education This volume helps highlight how investment in this form of education has an important capacity for nurturing art scenes and feeding into the community at large

Tracing Contemporary Chinese Art Isaac Leung, 2023-11-13 This book explores the author s ten year ethnographic journey in different locations in Shanghai His immersion in China s art world is grounded in a topology of places and new ways of writing and deploying history today The ethnographic approaches to experiencing analysing and representing space offer a critical tool to explore a different version of realism invisible in the nominal art and art history paradigms As the market and institutional norms are still being defined this book also documents and analyses how individuals have strived to negotiate boundaries in the art world and thus create unique selfhood Instead of conventional methods of periodisation and stylistic analysis this book presents a historiographic strategy emphasising the philosophical significance of spatial realism to offer insights into history subjectivities and political institutions

Culture and Crisis in the Arab World Richard Jacquemond, Felix Lang, 2019-09-05 Since 2011 the art of the Arab uprisings has been the subject of much scholarly and popular attention Yet the role of artists writers and filmmakers themselves as social actors working under extraordinary conditions has been relatively neglected Drawing on critical readings of Bourdieu s Field Theory this book explores the production of culture in Arab social spaces in crisis In ten case studies contributors examine a wide range of countries and conflicts from Algeria to the Arab countries of the Gulf They discuss among other things the impact of Western public diplomacy organisations on the arts scene in post revolutionary Cairo and the consequences of dwindling state support for literary production in Yemen Providing a valuable source of empirical data for researchers the book breaks new ground in adapting Bourdieu s theory to the particularities of cultural production in the Middle East and North Africa

Technology, Design and the Arts - Opportunities and Challenges Rae Earnshaw, Susan Liggett, Peter Excell, Daniel Thalmann, 2020-06-22 This open access book details the relationship between the artist and their created works using tools such as information technology computer environments and interactive devices for a range of information sources and application domains This has produced new kinds of created works which can be viewed explored and interacted with either as an installation or via a virtual environment such as the Internet These processes generate new dimensions of understanding and experience for both the artist and the public s relationships with the works that are produced This has raised a variety of interdisciplinary opportunities and issues and these are examined The symbiotic relationship between artistic works and the cultural context in which they are produced is reviewed Technology can provide continuity by making traditional methods and techniques more efficient and effective It can also provide discontinuity by opening up new perspectives and paradigms This can generate new ideas and produce a greater understanding of artistic processes and how they are implemented in practice Tools have been used from the earliest times to create and modify artistic works For example naturally occurring pigments have been used for cave paintings What has been created provides insight into the cultural context and social environment at the time of creation There is an interplay between the goal of the creator the selection and use of appropriate tools and the materials and representations chosen Technology Design and the Arts Opportunities and Challenges is relevant for artists and technologists and those engaged in interdisciplinary research and development at the boundaries between these disciplines
