Television Introductions Vincent Terrace, 2013-11-07 Since the beginning of network television many shows have been preceded by an announcement or theme song that served various purposes In the 1950s and 60s it was common for announcers to declare that a program had been brought to you by a sponsor who paid for the privilege of introducing a show Other programs such as The Twilight Zone Star Trek and The Odd Couple provided a brief encapsulation of the show's subject matter a practice that has continued for recent shows like Alias

Battlestar Galactica Person of Interest and the various editions of Law Order In Television Introductions Narrated TV Program Openings since 1949 Vincent Terrace has assembled openings for more than nine hundred television shows from the past seven decades The only documented history of narrated television program introductions this volume is arranged by type of programming such as comedy drama Western game show soap opera and children s show In addition to quoting the opening material entries provide information about each show s network history and years of broadcast Many entries include descriptions of the show the names of announcers and a list of main cast members as well as a sponsor pitch exactly as spoken Openings for programs with multiple introductions like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and Charlie s Angels are also included For programs that featured new guest stars every episode such as game shows and variety programs Terrace has selected a representative introduction In addition to the theme song credits found in the main text there are also appendixes of theme songs and their composers and or singers as well as a listing of commercial releases on DVD VHS CD and LP of shows and their soundtracks A comprehensive resource for researchers and pop culture aficionados alike Television Introductions provides a fascinating look at this neglected part of TV history Reality Television Alison F. Slade,Amber J. Narro,, Burton P. Buchanan,2014-03-06 Reality television remains a pervasive form of television programming within our culture The new mantra is go big or go home be weird or be invisible Here Comes Honey Boo Boo and Duck Dynasty for example are arguably two of the most compelling reality television programs currently airing because of their uniqueness and ability to transcend traditional boundaries in this genre Reality Television Oddities of Culture seeks to explore not the mundane reality programs but rather those programs that illustrate the odd unique or peculiar aspects of our society This anthology will explore such programs across the categories of culture gender and celebrity Television Brandcasting Jennifer Gillan,2014-11-20 Television Brandcasting examines U S television s utility as a medium for branded storytelling It investigates the current and historical role that television content promotion and hybrids of the two have played in disseminating brand messaging and influencing consumer decision making Juxtaposing the current period of transition with that of the 1950s 1960s Jennifer Gillan outlines how in each era new technologies unsettled entrenched business models an emergent viewing platform threatened to undermine an established one and content providers worried over the behavior of once dependable audiences The anxieties led to storytelling promotion and advertising experiments including the Disneyland series embedded rock music videos in Ozzie Harriet credit sequence brand integration Modern Family s parent company promotion episodes second screen initiatives and social TV experiments Offering contemporary and classic examples from the American Broadcasting Company Disney Channel ABC Family and Showtime alongside series such as Bewitched Leave it to Beaver Laverne Shirley and Pretty Little Liars individual chapters focus on brandcasting at the level of the television series network schedule Blu ray DVD Digital combo pack the promotional short the cause marketing campaign and across social media In this follow up to her successful previous book Television and New Media Must Click TV

Gillan provides vital insights into television's role in the expansion of a brand-centric U.S. culture Classic Movie Fight Scenes Gene Freese, 2017-09-11 Both brawls and elaborate martial arts have kept movie audiences on the edges of their seats since cinema began. But the filming of fight scenes has changed significantly through the years, mainly for the safety of the combatants, from improvised scuffles in the Silent Era to exquisitely choreographed and edited sequences involving actors, stuntmen, and technical experts. Camera angles prevented many a broken nose. Examining more than 300 films from The Spoilers (1914) to Road House (1989), the author provides behind-the-scenes details on memorable melees starring such iconic tough guys as John Wayne, Randolph Scott, Robert Mitchum, Lee Marvin, Charles Bronson, Clint Eastwood, Bruce Lee, Chuck Norris, and Jackie Chan.

Tony Soprano's America M. Keith Booker, Isra Daraiseh, 2017-03-01 Widely regarded as one of the greatest television series of all time, The Sopranos is also considered one of the most significant achievements in contemporary American culture. The series spearheaded the launch of a new wave of quality programming that has transformed the way people watch, experience, and talk about television. By chronicling the life and crimes of a New Jersey mobster, his family, and his cronies, The Sopranos examines deep themes at the heart of American life, particularly the country's seedy underbelly. In Tony Soprano's America: Gangsters, Guns, and Money, M. Keith Booker and Isra Daraiseh explore the central role of the series in American cultural history. While examining the elements that account for the show's popularity and critical acclaim, the authors also contend that The Sopranos revolutionized the way audiences viewed television in general and cable programming as well. This book demonstrates how a show focused on an ethnic antihero somehow reflected common themes of contemporary American life, including ethnicity, class, capitalism, therapy, and family dynamics. Providing a sophisticated yet accessible account of the groundbreaking series, a show that rivals film and literature for its beauty and stunning characterization of modern life, this book engages the reader with ideas central to the American experience. Tony Soprano's America brings to life this profound television program in ways that will entertain, engage, and perhaps even challenge longtime viewers and critics.

Cinema of Outsiders Emanuel Levy, 1999-09-01 A deep dive into the emergence and success of independent filmmaking in America. A Los Angeles Times Bestseller. The most important development in American culture of the last two decades is the emergence of independent cinema as a viable alternative to Hollywood. Indeed, while Hollywood's studios devote much of their time and energy to churning out big-budget, star-studded event movies, a renegade independent cinema that challenges mainstream fare continues to flourish with strong critical support and loyal audiences. Cinema of Outsiders is the first and only comprehensive chronicle of contemporary independent movies from the late 1970s up to the present. From the hip, audacious early works of mavericks David Lynch, Jim Jarmusch, and Spike Lee to the contemporary Oscar-winning success of indie dynamos such as the Coen brothers, Fargo, Quentin Tarantino, Pulp Fiction, and Billy Bob Thornton, Sling Blade, Levy describes in a lucid and accessible manner the innovation and diversity of American indies in theme, sensibility, and style. Documenting the socio-economic, political, and artistic forces that led to the rise of American independent film Cinema of Outsiders depicts the pivotal role of indie guru Robert Redford and his Sundance Film Festival in creating a showcase for indies the function of film schools in supplying talent and the continuous tension between indies and Hollywood as two distinct industries with their own structure finance talent and audience Levy describes the major cycles in the indie film movement regional cinema the New York school of film African American Asian American gay and lesbian and movies made by women Based on exhaustive research of over 1 000 movies made between 1977 and 1999 Levy evaluates some 200 quintessential indies including Choose Me Stranger Than Paradise Blood Simple Blue Velvet Desperately Seeking Susan Slacker Poison Reservoir Dogs Gas Food Lodging Menace II Society Clerks In the Company of Men Chasing Amy The Apostle The Opposite of Sex and Happiness Cinema of Outsiders reveals the artistic and political impact of bold and provocative independent movies in displaying the cinema of outsiders the cinema of the other America
