The Great War and the Death of God Charles A. O'Connor, 2014-04-07 A compelling analysis of how World War I spurred the rise of atheism and the subsequent effect on Western theology philosophy literature and art The catastrophic Great War left humanity in a world no longer trustworthy and reassuring but seemingly meaningless and indifferent Instead of redressing humanity's cosmic alienation postwar Western culture abandoned its concern for cosmic meaning lost its confidence in human reason and enabled the scientific worldview of neo Darwinian materialism to emerge and eventually dominate the Western mind According to the proponents of that worldview science is the only source of genuine truth nature is the product of a blind evolutionary process and reality at bottom is just physics and chemistry Thus God is dead and continued belief in a transcendently purposeful universe is intellectually indefensible and either disingenuous or delusional By turning away from the eternal questions about the nature of reality Western culture effectively ceded unwarranted credibility and prominence to neo Darwinian materialism including its recently strident New Atheism O Connor revisits the 20th century's journey from Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God to the rise of materialism as the dominant worldview of western intelligentsia We live in a world that has largely expelled both mind and meaning from the citadels of serious intellectual pursuit and O Connor's book is a fascinating and scholarly expedition into the how and why of that troubling development Carter Phipps author of Evolutionaries I found this topic to be top rate The book is well researched and conceived nicely narrated and analyzed and an original body of inquiry into a challenging fascinating intellectual tradition Ronald M Johnson Professor Emeritus of American History Georgetown
