The Many Faces of God Jaap Durand, 2007-03-01 Since the Enlightenment of the eighteenth century theologians and philosophers have brought about profound changes in the discourse about God The orthodox image of God developed in the previous seventeen centuries in Roman Catholicism as well as within Protestantism has come under great pressure but it would be wrong to think that this image is no longer relevant and that only a few conservative Christians hold on to it

Evangelicals and Liberation Revisited João B. Chaves, 2013-03-18 Despite the fact that the theological gains of Latin American Liberation Theology LALT have been incorporated into several theologies around the world many North Atlantic evangelicals still consider LALT a heresy The underlying reason for the lack of positive engagement between North Atlantic Evangelical Theology in general and American Evangelical Theology in particular and LALT is the mistaken perception that LALT and evangelical theology are necessarily contradictory In Evangelicals and Liberation Revisited Joao Chaves analyzes instances of the evangelical liberationist interaction and examines the generally suspicious responses given to LALT by North Atlantic Evangelicals Evangelicals who think of LALT as a heresy have failed to look not only into the diversity that exists among liberationists but also into the different theological expressions within their own movement Joao Chaves argues convincingly that if evangelicals think about both liberation theology and their own theological commitments critically then they will be able to recognize that LALT can be an indispensable ally in their commitment to following God
