Sports Car Market magazine - December 2008 , Motorama David Temple,2015-01-15 In an age of unbridled American enthusiasm and towering industrial might the GM Motorama was a dazzling and elegant show that was unlike any automotive event before it or since General Motors staged extravagant and elaborate Motorama shows that rivaled some fashion shows. It showcased some of the most revolutionary and innovative prototype and dream cars ever built. And it captured the imagination of the car buying public from 1950 to 1961. Motorama expert and experienced author David Temple has comprehensively researched the show, the cars, and the personalities to create a fascinating new story with many new photos of these magnificent cars. Because television was in its infancy, GM's President Alfred Sloan believed that the Motorama was the most effective way to market GM products and design prowess. Legendary stylist Harley Earl led a talented group of designers and engineers to dream up style and develop some of the most remarkable prototype cars of all time. While current production Buick, Chevy, Cadillac, and Pontiac cars were showcased, the bold, radical, awe-inspiring prototype and dream cars stole the show. These included the GM Le Sabre replete with aerospace design and an aluminum engine, the fiberglass-bodied Corvette dream car which went into production after overwhelmingly positive response, and the jet engine-powered Firebird. Temple goes into fascinating detail on the body, frame, engine, drivetrain, and all the special features of each model. He has also retraced the ownership histories of some of these cars. Within the pages of this volume, you get to relive this glorious era of automotive history and revisit the advanced show cars that inspired so many new models. This book features fascinating period photography of Motorama cars at the show in development and at different locales. No other automotive show rivaled the Motorama for stunning productions and awe-inspiring cars, which makes this a must-have book.

Land of a Thousand Balconies Jack Stevenson, 2003. Most books about B movies are straight-forward genre guides, biographies, or encyclopaedias. Not this one. In addition to chapters on film showmen, gimmicks, and cult films, Land of a Thousand Balconies documents those incidents and unusual film happenings which author Jack Stevenson has, over the past fifteen years, been privy to in his various capacities as show organiser, tour arranger, festival jury member, and projectionist for hire. Land of a Thousand Balconies also focuses on movie theatres and renegade exhibition spaces, lamenting on the disappearing sense of place that is such an integral part of the movie-going experience. Here, the reader is invited to tour a diversity of venues from the notorious old grindhouses of San Francisco to the home-made storefront cinemas of Seattle and NY, through to the underground film clubs of Europe. Mustang and the Pony Car Revolution Michael W. R. Davis, 2014-04-07. There have been few cars that ignited the public's interest as much as the Ford Mustang. Introduced at the opening of the New York World's Fair in April 1964, the Mustang was based on mechanicals from the earlier Ford Falcon compact car. It quickly established a new motorcar category which was widely copied by domestic and overseas competitors: the pony car. From the outset, the Mustang represented inspired product planning and design followed by brilliantly executed marketing. Ford's Mustang team effort used every tool in the vehicle marketing toolbox: clever teasers long before the new product went on sale; unprecedented publicity; simple but effective advertising; the stage at the World's Fair; movie placement; distribution of toy plastic models; and even a replica pedal car for the young drivers of the future. With a measure of luck, it became a classic case of releasing the right product at the right time and Ford sold one million units in less than two years Even today the Mustang is held high as a symbol of American design engineering and the freewheeling American spirit
