Ramesside Administrative Documents. 1948 Michel Malinine,1951 Ancient Egyptian Administration Juan Carlos Moreno García,2013-06-03 Ancient Egyptian Administration provides the first comprehensive overview of the structure organization and evolution of the pharaonic administration from its origins to the end of the Late Period The book not only focuses on bureaucracy departments and official practices but also on more informal issues like patronage the limits in the actual exercise of authority and the competing interests between institutions and factions within the ruling elite Furthermore general chapters devoted to the best documented periods in Egyptian history are supplemented by more detailed ones dealing with specific archives regions and administrative problems The volume thus produced by an international team of leading scholars will be an indispensable up to date tool of research covering a much neglected aspect of pharaonic civilization On the Reliability of the Old Testament K. A. Kitchen,2006-06-09 Draws upon a wide range of historical sources to examine the factuality of the Old Testament arguing that the Bible s stories are firmly based on fact and refuting evidence from modern scholars who claim otherwise Manuscripts and Archives Alessandro Bausi,Christian Brockmann,Michael Friedrich,Sabine Kienitz,2018-02-19 Archives are considered to be collections of administrative legal commercial and other records or the actual place where they are located They have become ubiquitous in the modern world but emerged not much later than the invention of writing Following Foucault who first used the word archive in a metaphorical sense as the general system of the formation and transformation of statements in his Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 postmodern theorists have tried to exploit the potential of this concept and initiated the archival turn In recent years however archives have attracted the attention of anthropologists and historians of different denominations regarding them as historical objects and grounding them again in real institutions The papers in this volume explore the complex topic of the archive in a historical systematic and comparative context and view it in the broader context of manuscript cultures by addressing questions like how by whom and for which purpose were archival records produced and if they differ from literary manuscripts regarding materials formats and producers scribes
