Mass Producing European Cinema Christopher Meir, 2019-02-07 Equal parts historical study industrial analysis and critical survey of some of the most important films and television programs in recent European history this book gives readers an overview of the development and output of this important company while also giving them a ringside seat for the latest round of the oldest battle in the film business With films like Lucy The Impossible and Paddington European studios are producing hits that are unprecedented in terms of global success Christopher Meir delves into StudioCanal the foremost European company in the contemporary film and television industries and chronicles its rise from a small production subsidiary of Canal Plus to being the most important global challenger to Hollywood's dominance NIV Graham Lord, 2004-12-14 This is the first and only authorized biography of Academy Award winning actor David Niven Trade Cases Commerce Clearing House, 1971 Reports the official texts of federal and state court decisions dealt with the publishers Trade regulation reports Edna Ferber's Hollywood J. E. Smyth, 2010-01-01 Edna Ferber's Hollywood reveals one of the most influential artistic relationships of the twentieth century the four decade partnership between historical novelist Edna Ferber and the Hollywood studios Ferber was one of America's most controversial popular historians a writer whose uniquely feminist multiracial view of the national past deliberately clashed with traditional narratives of white masculine power Hollywood paid premium sums to adapt her novels creating some of the most memorable films of the studio era among them Show Boat Cimarron and Giant Her historical fiction resonated with Hollywood's interest in prestigious filmmaking aimed principally but not exclusively at female audiences In Edna Ferber s Hollywood J E Smyth explores the research writing marketing reception and production histories of Hollywood s Ferber franchise Smyth tracks Ferber s working relationships with Samuel Goldwyn Leland Hayward George Stevens and James Dean her landmark contract negotiations with Warner Bros and the controversies surrounding Giant s critique of Jim Crow Texas But Edna Ferber s Hollywood is also the study of the historical vision of an American outsider a woman a Jew a novelist with few literary pretensions an unashamed middlebrow who challenged the prescribed boundaries among gender race history and fiction In a masterful film and literary history Smyth explores how Ferber s work helped shape Hollywood s attitude toward the American past A/V

The Edward G. Robinson Encyclopedia Robert Beck,2015-09-16 Edward G Robinson a 1930s cinema icon had an acting career that spanned more than 60 years After a brush with silent films he rose to true celebrity status in sound feature films and went on to take part in radio and television performances then back to Broadway and on the road in live theatre This work documents Robinson s every known public performance or appearance listing co workers source material background and critical commentary The entries include feature films documentaries short subjects cartoons television and radio productions live theatre presentations narrations pageants and recordings Also included are entries relating to his life and career ranging from his wives to his art collection Movies at Home Kerry Segrave,1999-01-01 The relationship of Hollywood and television initially turbulent has ultimately been profitable from the first sally in what was expected to be a war of attrition up through the soliciting of movies by major networks independent stations basic cable networks premium cable channels pay per view systems and even the corner video store When their initial efforts to acquire ownership interests in television outlets were thwarted Hollywood's major movie studios determined to withhold from the tube not only their films but also their actors no doubt in hopes of making the rival medium appear a weak substitute for cinema With ticket sales shrinking and television set purchases booming the studios erasing their last contemptuously drawn line in the sand grudgingly released their films to television and made a fortune

The Best Years of Our Lives Sarah Kozloff, 2019-07-25

William Wyler's The Best Years of Our Lives 1946 tells the story of three veterans returning from World War II and adjusting to civilian life in a manner unusual for classical Hollywood cinema with melodrama leavened by authentic detail personal memories and a fierce desire to capture its historical moment Sarah Kozloff's illuminating study of the film traces the contribution of Wyler himself injured while serving in the US Air Force Robert Sherwood's screenplay Gregg Toland's deep focus cinematography Hugo Friedhofer's award winning score and the ensemble cast of Myrna Loy Fredric March Dana Andrews Teresa Wright and Harold Russell The film's poignant message spoke to American audiences reeling from the end of the conflict and the bumpy transition to peace producer Samuel Goldwyn received hundreds of letters from ex servicemen about how accurately his production had captured their experiences Despite winning nine Academy Awards Best Years was soon engulfed in political conflict from both the right and the left Disagreements about the film's politics foreshadowed HUAC's anti Communist investigations and the fracturing of the Hollywood community that culminated in the collapse of the studio system Sarah Kozloff's discussion of the film's development production and reception history draws on archival research to shed new light on our understanding of this much loved movie and to bring The Best Years of Our Lives back where it belongs in our collections in our libraries and in our hearts
