The Amazonian "Other" Aleksandra Wierucka, 2024-08-07 This book explores representations of Amazonian Indigenous peoples in contemporary cultural texts It analyzes a variety of mediums from novels and films to games and exhibitions uncovering a distorted image of Indigenous peoples of the Amazon in Euro American common imagination The author suggests that these texts rely on a stereotypical vision that was shaped in the first decades of colonization The chapters consider the formation of the image of Amazonian Indigenous people throughout history and some of the contemporary issues they face touching on daily life and themes such as shamanism and cannibalism Together they highlight the misrepresented image of Indigenous groups in the Amazon who are portrayed as different even strange in relation to Western culture The argument put forward is that both exotic and self exoticization rely on the notion of otherness leading to romanticization patronization and caricature The book will be of particular interest to scholars of Indigenous studies Latin American studies cultural studies anthropology and comparative literature

The Jaguar Within Rebecca R. Stone, 2012-09-21 An important new way of viewing the prehistoric art of the Americas The Jaguar Within demonstrates that understanding a work of art s connection with shamanic trance can lead to an appreciation of it as an extremely creative solution to the inherent challenge of giving material form to nonmaterial realities and states of being Shamanism the practice of entering a trance state to experience visions of a reality beyond the ordinary and to gain esoteric knowledge has been an important part of life for indigenous societies throughout the Americas from prehistoric times until the present Much has been written about shamanism in both scholarly and popular literature but few authors have linked it to another significant visual realm art In this pioneering study Rebecca R Stone considers how deep familiarity with and profound respect for the extra ordinary visionary experiences of shamanism profoundly affected the artistic output of indigenous cultures in Central and South

America before the European invasions of the sixteenth century Using ethnographic accounts of shamanic trance experiences Stone defines a core set of trance vision characteristics including enhanced senses ego dissolution bodily distortions flying spinning and undulating sensations synaesthesia and physical transformation from the human self into animal and other states of being Stone then traces these visionary characteristics in ancient artworks from Costa Rica and Peru She makes a convincing case that these works especially those of the Moche depict shamans in a trance state or else convey the perceptual experience of visions by creating deliberately chaotic and distorted conglomerations of partial inverted and incoherent images
