Standards for Teachers Parenting without the Power Struggles Foster Cline, Jim Fay, 2014-02-27 Through the miracle of birth parents are given a tiny defenseless babe totally dependent on them for every physical need They have a mere eighteen years at most to ready that suckling for a world that can be cruel and heartless That child's success in the real world hinges in large part on the parents Just thinking about raising responsible well rounded kids sends a sobering shiver of responsibility right up the old parental spine But all is not so bleak There's hope shining beacon bright at the end of the tunnel of parental frustration Parenting doesn't have to be drudgery Children can grow to be thinking responsible adults This booklet excerpted and adapted from the best selling Parenting with Love and Logic was designed to help parents and kids establish a rewarding relationship built on love and trust What a deal By parenting with Love and Logic mothers and fathers can do away with the power struggles and put the fun back into parenting Digital Divisions Matthew H.

Rafalow, 2020-08-12 In the digital age schools are a central part of a nationwide effort to make access to technology more equitable so that all young people regardless of identity or background have the opportunity to engage with the technologies that are essential to modern life Most students however come to school with digital knowledge they've already acquired from the range of activities they participate in with peers online Yet teachers as Matthew H Rafalow reveals in Digital Divisions interpret these technological skills very differently based on the race and class of their student body While teachers praise affluent White students for being innovative when they bring preexisting and sometimes disruptive tech skills into their classrooms less affluent students of color do not receive such recognition for the same behavior Digital skills exhibited by middle class Asian American students render them hackers while the creative digital skills of working class Latinx students are either ignored or earn them labels troublemakers Rafalow finds in his study of three California middle schools that students of all backgrounds use digital technology with sophistication and creativity but only the teachers in the school serving predominantly White affluent students help translate the digital skills students develop through their digital play into educational capital Digital Divisions provides an in depth look at how teachers operate as gatekeepers for students potential reacting differently according to the race and class of their student body As a result Rafalow shows us that the digital divide is much more than a matter of access it s about how schools perceive the value of digital technology and then use them day to day I'm Here to Offend Keith Sanks,2024-08-20 In this gripping book you re about to embark on a rollercoaster ride through the raw and unfiltered moments of my life Get ready for a no holds barred exploration of the challenges that have shaped me From turbulent family dynamics to grappling with the shadows of depression I peel back the layers on my journey Childhood memories those defining incidents and the seismic moments that shook my beliefs it s all laid bare exposing the profound impact of trauma on my world view But this isn t just a recounting of events it s a gutsy attempt to redefine my convictions to challenge the status quo that life handed me Amidst the uncertainties join me in a search for meaning that takes unexpected turns Feel the weight of isolation navigate the intricate dance of independence and grapple with the bittersweet truth that true connection often remains elusive even in the lap of financial autonomy And woven into the fabric of these experiences is the undeniable realization that the falsehoods my parents hold so dear have been unquestionably shattered by the trials I ve faced As the threads of my life are woven together I invite you not just to read but to immerse yourself Brace for the unexpected as I find my footing through intense self reflection in the face of life s relentless challenges
