Krause-DiScala,2023-04-18 Leverage shared services alliances and knowledge hubs to increase skills save time and money and advance the field of early childhood education Shared services is a fairly new concept in the early childhood space but one that is gaining traction through the work of a number of individuals and organizations across the country Shared services knowledge hubs and alliances together allow us to collaborate with other professionals and save time and money focusing these resources instead on increasing quality addressing workforce issues and expanding access of services to children and families with fewer barriers When we bridge the gap between child care center and family care providers we make the field stronger and more successful Understanding Shared Services in Early Childhood Education a Redleaf Quick Guide provides context surrounding the history of early childhood education and child care to explain the genesis of current crises in the field then explains how leveraging shared services systems can help through pooling resources and information and sharing access to technology such as automation and financial management systems Among many other possibilities shared services may offer resources or assistance in automating business records and processes centralize resources and services such as substitute pools or payroll among programs secure bulk discounts for members and standardize policies and procedures such as tuition collection or onboarding employees Primary Care and Public Health Institute of Medicine,Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice,Committee on Integrating Primary Care and Public Health,2012-07-19 Ensuring that members of society are healthy and reaching their full potential requires the prevention of disease and injury the promotion of health and well being the assurance of conditions in which people can be healthy and the provision of timely effective and coordinated health care Achieving substantial and lasting improvements in population health will require a concerted effort from all these entities aligned with a common goal The Health Resources and Services Administration HRSA and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC requested that the Institute of Medicine IOM examine the integration of primary care and public health Primary Care and Public Health identifies the best examples of effective public health and primary care integration and the factors that promote and sustain these efforts examines ways by which HRSA and CDC can use provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act to promote the integration of primary care and public health and discusses how HRSA supported primary care systems and state and local public health departments can effectively integrate and coordinate to improve efforts directed at disease prevention This report is essential for all health care centers and providers state and local policy makers educators government agencies and the public for learning how to integrate and improve population health Entrepreneurial Women Louise Kelly, 2014-08-11 Women are now leading companies and other enterprises in significant numbers in developing countries as well as the Western world This set examines the specific ways in which entrepreneurial women create success and considers how the growing prevalence of female entrepreneurs will change the world This two volume work provides balanced and thorough coverage of women entrepreneurs in multicultural and international contexts as well as in the Western world Entrepreneurial Women New Management and Leadership Models explores how women everywhere are empowering themselves socially and economically through entrepreneurship and business ownership The contributors consider how discrimination against women in the workplace can contribute to the inspiration to become business owners in the first place and document the experiences of African American women entrepreneurs as well as women in distinct settings such as China Africa rural Jamaica and Silicon Valley The work draws on empirical studies data sets case studies and descriptions of career trajectories to portray the realities of women entrepreneurs today Readers will understand the distinctive challenges and opportunities involved with the entrepreneurship process for women owned businesses grasp how women have overcome their disadvantages in getting funding and accessing capital and learn about the unique management and leadership style of women entrepreneurs The Policies of Childcare and Early Childhood Education Katja

Repo, Maarit Alasuutari, Kirsti Karila, Johanna Lammi-Taskula, 2020-01-31 This timely book reveals how policies of childcare and early childhood education influence children's circumstances and the daily lives of families with children Examining how these policies are approached it focuses particularly on the issues and pitfalls related to equal access Sharing Cities Duncan McLaren, Julian Agyeman, 2015-11-20 The future of humanity is urban and the nature of urban space enables and necessitates sharing of resources goods and services experiences Yet traditional forms of sharing have been undermined in modern cities by social fragmentation and commercialization of the public realm In Sharing Cities Duncan McLaren and Julian Agyeman argue that the intersection of cities highly networked physical space with new digital technologies and new mediated forms of sharing offers cities the opportunity to connect smart technology to justice solidarity and sustainability McLaren and Agyeman explore the opportunities and risks for sustainability solidarity and justice in the changing nature of sharing McLaren and Agyeman propose a new sharing paradigm which goes beyond the faddish sharing economy seen in such ventures as Uber and TaskRabbit to envision models of sharing that are not always commercial but also communal encouraging trust and collaboration Detailed case studies of San Francisco Seoul Copenhagen Medell n Amsterdam and Bengaluru formerly Bangalore contextualize the authors discussions of collaborative consumption and production the shared public realm both physical and virtual the design of sharing to enhance equity and justice and the prospects for scaling up the sharing paradigm though city governance They show how sharing could shift values and norms enable civic engagement and political activism and rebuild a shared urban commons Their case for sharing and solidarity offers a powerful alternative for urban futures to conventional race to the bottom narratives of competition enclosure and division Managing health and older people during the COVID-19 pandemic , 2022-01-18 Since the start of the COVID 19 pandemic in early 2020 decision makers in affected countries have acted quickly to address the immediate health effects of the pandemic and to put into place public health and social measures to slow or stop the spread of COVID 19 In order to preserve the gains made in maternal newborn child and adolescent health in the last decades and avoid negative impacts due to the pandemic the global community quickly mobilized to advocate for protecting the health of these populations Since May 2020 the World Health Organization WHO through its headquarters regional and country office teams has supported 19 countries in five

WHO Regions see Figure 1 to raise the profile of and commitment to maternal newborn child and adolescent health and ageing MNCAAH b through an Initiative on mitigating the indirect impacts of COVID 19 on MNCAAH services The goal was to ensure that during the response to COVID 19 actions would be taken to mitigate indirect effects on MNCAAH due to disruptions to service provision and use

Common Interest, Common Good Shirley Sagawa, Eli Segal, 2000 With funding for nonprofits shrinking and global markets shaky our business and social sectors are both confronting an increasingly uncertain future Many organizations are searching for innovative strategies that will counter the mounting pressures felt by communities and corporations alike Common Interest Common Good argues that forward looking businesses and social sector organizations both nonprofit and government can solve many of their problems by working together while serving the common good in the process According to Shirley Sagawa and Eli Segal alliances between for profit and the not for profit industries yield enormous benefits for both Businesses can boost their bottom line by leveraging a nonprofit partnership to enhance their image reach new markets increase consumer loyalty and build a positive reputation with current and prospective employees The upside is just as powerful for nonprofits because an alliance with a corporation can provide crucial funds and visibility while helping to attract new volunteers and donors Common Interest Common Good showcases many such successful partnerships from corporate sponsorships and cause related marketing to employee volunteer programs and school to work initiatives The authors also offer some much needed guidance for avoiding many of the pitfalls that can undermine even the best alliances A convincing deeply felt book by two authors who have devoted much of their careers to helping public and private sectors find profitable new ways of working together Common Interest Common Good is a guided tour of the progressive new strategies that can contribute to the purpose of our businesses and the prosperity of our communities

Coworking Spaces Janet Merkel, Dimitris Pettas, Vasilis Avdikos, 2023-11-07 This contributed volume considers the emergence of coworking as centered in labor issues More specifically its chapters consider it as a coping mechanism in the worldwide rise of independent modes of work i e self employment that leaves more and more workers exposed to precarity as they must organize and manage their own labor Grounded in this perspective this volume aims to understand the transformative social and political potentials emerging through coworking as a social and spatial practice There is a distinct lack of discussion within coworking research on the emancipatory potentials of coworking and if it is discussed more cautionary views prevail highlighting the ambivalence of coworking spaces both as a space of alternative economic practices and as integrated into market economies The aims of this collection are twofold First it aims to make visible the plurality of existing practices around shared resources in coworking and the assemblages of human and non human actors as agents of change associated with coworking and the re organization of work and labor power And second it aims to develop a more emancipatory narrative for coworking and the role of coworking spaces for workers but also the different spatial contexts in which these spaces are situated A narrative that does not emphasize entrepreneurship or coworking as the epitome of the neoliberal entrepreneurial self as in the dominant interpretations in the current research but rather one that centers coworking in the creation of meaningful careful social relationships supporting empathy and an ethics that recognizes mutual interdependencies and builds a foundation for social change So it is about alternative narratives emancipation politics and the wider social role that coworking spaces might play in neighborhoods cities or beyond because they are crucial contexts for the formation and maintenance of social relations With this specific direction this collection aims to bring coworking research into a fruitful dialog with other research fields such as sociology of work feminist perspectives on care alternative and diverse economies post capitalist transformation critical geography positioning coworking within a range of progressive alternatives in the articulation of economic and social relationships

Human Services in Rural Areas Leona L. Bachrach,1981 Assisting the Homeless ,1988 Papers from a policy conference sponsored by the U S Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations Intergenerational Space Robert Vanderbeck,Nancy Worth,2015-06-03 Intergenerational Space offers insight into the transforming relationships between younger and older members of contemporary societies The chapter selection brings together scholars from around the world in order to address pressing questions both about the nature of contemporary generational divisions as well as the complex ways in which members of different generations are and can be involved in each other s lives These questions include how do particular kinds of spaces and spatial arrangements e g cities neighbourhoods institutions leisure sites facilitate and limit intergenerational contact and encounters What processes and spaces influence the intergenerational negotiation and contestation of values beliefs and social memory producing patterns of both continuity and change And if generational separation and segregation are in fact significant social problems across a range of contexts as a significant body of research and commentary attests how can this be ameliorated The chapters in this collection make original contributions to these debates drawing on original research from Belgium China Finland Poland Senegal Singapore Tanzania Uganda the United States and the United Kingdom
