Griffin, Cheryl A.

Crawford, 2011-10-04 Many of the statistics you read about teenagers and faith can be alarming Recent studies show that 40-50 percent of kids who are connected to a youth group throughout their senior year will fail to stick with their faith in college As youth workers are pouring their time and energy into the students in their ministries they are often left wondering if they've done enough to equip their students to carry their faith into adulthood Fuller Youth Institute has done extensive research in the area of youth ministry and teenage development In Sticky Faith the team at FYI presents youth workers with both a theological philosophical framework and practical programming ideas that develop long term faith in teenagers Each chapter presents a summary of FYI's quantitative and qualitative research along with the implications of this research including program ideas suggested and tested by youth ministries nationwide This resource will give youth pastors what they need to help foster a faith that sticks with all the teenagers in their group long after they've left the youth room The Living Church, 2000

Secret Language Monica Wood, 2008-12-10 Connie has trouble with time She always has to stop and think a minute How old is she now Faith always seems to know though her life is the same as Connie's back and forth to theater towns all over The same dingy food the same noisy sidewalks the same cramped suites in the same hotels Sometimes they go to school sometimes not though they always have books to read big packets of books that Armand sends to them in every city Armand is their parents lawyer the only person they know who likes children Faith and Connie endured the same childhood as daughters of egocentric semi famous actors who can scarcely take care of themselves But the two sisters could not be more different Connie learned to beg for attention clamor for approval and fill the silence with words Faith turned inward shrinking from the tender emotions that make up an ordinary life Despite their differences the sisters came to rely on each other exclusively But lately after years of quiet connection Faith and Connie seem to have lost the ties that once held them close Faith has a home and two growing sons but is still unable to fathom unconditional love Connie a flight attendant is always searching ever expecting to find her true place in life at the end of each long flight But a series of shocking revelatory events will bring the sisters back to each other and forever alter how they define love fulfillment and most importantly family
